House of Thomas Hedge which stood about fifty Yards to the Northwestward of the Place where he this Deponent now stands being on the End of a Point of a hill between a Deep Gully to the Northwest, and the Northwest Branch of Patapsco River to The South and the South East when he heard the said Thomas Say as he stood at his House aforesaid unto John Enwor then of this County but since Deceased upon the End of That Point (pointing with his hand unto or towards the End of the Point where he this Deponant now Stands) Rogers's Bounded Tree stands but This Deponant says he never Came to the Point aforesaid to look after said Bounded Tree and This Deponant further says on his Oath aforesaid that he understood that the Reason ~~[illegible]~~ of the Above Conversation Between the said Hedge and said Enwor was Occasioned by the said Hedge his Describing To said Enwor the Boundaries or Situation of his the said Hedges Land he then lived on and further saith not Thomas his + Gorsuch Mark
Sworn to October 25th 1762 before us.
Auxton Gay. Brian Philp Received and Recorded This fourth Day of November 1762 J. B. Bordley Clk