POETRY.

ODE—for the FOURTH of JULY, 1827.

Sung at the celebration in the Exchange Coffee House in Boston.

I.

To the Sages who spoke—to the *H*eroes who bled—
To the Day, and the Deed—strike the harp-strings of glory!
Let the song of the Ransomed remember the *D*ead,
And the tongue of the Eloquent hallow the story.
O'er the bones of the Bold.
Be that story long told,
And on Fame's golden Tablets their triumphs enrolled,
Who on Freedom's green hills Freedom's banner unfurled,
And the beacon fire raised that gave light to the world.

II.

'Twas for Us and our Children, to conquer or die,
Undaunted they stood; where the War-storm burst o'er them;
Each blade drew a thunderbolt down from the sky,
Till the foeman turned pale, and was withered before them.
Then from Liberty's band,
Went a shout through the land,
As the rainbow of peace their fair heritage spanned;
Where the banner of Freedom in pride was unfurled,
And the beacon-fire rose that gave light to the world.

III.

They are gone—Mighty Men!—and they sleep in their fame;
Shall we ever forget them?—Oh, never, no never!—
Let our Sons learn from us to embalm each great name,
And the anthem send down—'Independence Forever!"
Wake, wake, heart and tongue!
Keep the theme ever young—
Let their deeds through the long line of ages be sung,
When on Freedom's green hills Freedoms banner unfurl'd
And the beacon fire raised that gave light to the world.

OGDENSBURGH, (N. Y.) June 26.

Novel Emigration.—The unprecedented increase of Red Squirrels on the borders of the river in this vicinity and their unseemly locations in almost every wood yard in this village, within a few weeks, have excited no little curiosity. The mistery however, was within a few days fully disclosed; and it is now ascertained from ocular demonstration, that these animals from having become dissatisfied with the present administration of the Government of His Majesty's Colony of Upper Canada—the hopeless prospect of their ever attaining the privileges of citizenship under the recent Alien Law of that Providence—or from some other cause—are daily crossing the river St. Lawrence by tens, fifteens, and hundreds—and fixing their habitations in every vacant nook and corner within our own territory. We are informed that they may be seen landing, a short distance above and below this village, almost every hour in the day; and the woods, as we have ourselves observed, along the bank of the river are literally thronged with these quiet and heretofore loyal subjects of His Majesty.

'JAIL TO LET'

As our county jailor informs us that the prison is at present tenantless—we notify all thieves, pick-pockets, rogues, rascals, blackguards and other gentlemen, that they can now be accommodated with lodgings—
