us by any one who will calmly and dispassionately read the very excellent Address, for this almost exclusive devotion of one paper to its publication. The Address is a dignified, dispassionate, and forcible appeal to the good sense of the people of Maryland; and implies, at the same time, a knowledge of the existence of this good sense, by abstaining altogether from appeals to the passions, crimination, and mere declamation.—a species of argument so much in vogue with the opposing party, and always and exclusively the resort of those who have no foundation for any other.—The style of the Address is beautiful, and this, with the peculiar and pleasant manner of meeting and refuting error, will amply repay a perusal, even to those who take no part or lot, and have no kindred feeling in politics—if such there can possibly be at this most critical and eventful period in the affairs of the Republic.—Patriot.

We find the following extract of a letter in the last received Kentucky Commentator, which we publish with pleasure, disclosing as it does, certain interesting incidents in the House of Representatives on the Presidential election, and coming from the distinguished individual who presides at the head of the Government of Maryland, with honor to himself and in the most acceptable manner to the People.—Pat.

Extract of a letter from his Excellency, Joseph Kent, Governor of Maryland, to a gentleman of Frankfort, Ken. dated ROSEMOUNT, 15th May, 1827.

"I have seen so little of late from your state upon the subject of politics, that I do not know whether the violence of the opposition to the present administration, has extended itself among you or not.

"Our friend Mr. Clay, appears to be the chief object of persecution with the opposition. They are with great industry, conducting a systematical attack upon him, which commenced with the Kremer story, which was an entire fabrication.

"At the time the plot opened I was a member of the House of Representatives and heard Kremer declare he never designed 'to charge Mr. Clay with any thing dishonorable in his life.'

"The old man, naturally honest, was imposed on at the time, by a powerful influence, and constrained to act his part in an affair, which from beginning to end, was as much a fiction, as the merry wives of Windsor, or the School for scandal.

"The attack on Mr. Clay, during the late session of Congress by Gen. Saunders, as far as I could judge from the debate as published, proved an entire abortion, and I hardly know which surprised me most, the folly of the attack, or the inconsistency of the General.

"You have seen, no doubt, that Mr. F. Johnson stated in his reply to Gen. Saunders, that at the time of the Presidential election, in the House of Representatives, that he, Gen. S. was decidedly in favor of Mr. Adams, in preference to General Jackson.

"In confirmation of what Mr. Johnson has stated, I well remember, that not ten minutes before the election, Gen. Saunders came to me, with an anxious countenance, discovering deep concern indeed, and used these emphatic words, 'I hope to God you may be able to terminate the election on the first ballot, for fear, we from North Carolina may be forced to vote for General Jackson.' —North Carolina, you know, voted in the House of Representatives for Mr. Crawford, whose prospect of success was hopeless although the electors of that state gave their votes in favor of General Jackson.

"Knowing the deep interest you have always taken in Mr. Clay's welfare, I have been induced to give you, for your personal satisfaction, those particulars.

"Mr. Clay I have known intimately for sixteen years; his public career is completely identified with every important event of the country, from that period to the present time, whether in peace or in war.

"During the late war, I have seen the House of Representatives, after having gone out of committee of the whole, return to it again, for the sole purpose of affording Mr. Clay an opportunity (then Speaker) of putting down the desperate, and infuriated advocates of British tyranny, insult and injury.

"But his enemies say, Mr. Adams bargained with him—This is assertion without proof, and as destitute of truth, as it is of manly frankness.

"His superior qualifications placed him in the Department of State, and history furnishes no instance, when a superior man ever had to bargain for a high station, for which, his peculiar fitness was evident to every one.

"In Maryland, the administration is daily gaining ground, and by the time the election occurs, I hope we shall be able to present an undivided front in their support."

The State of Connecticut has Bank and United States Stock to the amount of $444,798—and the whole State Debt is $2,835. The annual expenditures are about $76,543. There is now a surplus of $16,540 in the Treasury.

The Springs.—Six hundred and four visiters arrived at Saratoga, between the 9th and 15th inst. inclusive.

The Milledgeville Recorder contradicts the assertion made a few days past, that the Hon. W. H. Crawford had declined the appointment of Judge of the Superior Court of Georgia, and says Mr. Crawford has accepted the office, and is now on a circuit.

Maryland Cattle Shows—The time fixed for the next Maryland Cattle Show & Fair, for the exhibition and sale of Domestic Animals, Manufactures, &c. for the Western Shore, is Tuesday and Wednesday, the 23d and 24th of October, at Carroll's Point, near the Long Bridge, on the Annapolis Road, and within the limits of the City of Baltimore.

The Cattle Show and Fair, for the Eastern Shore, will be held at Easton, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 1st, 2d and 3d days of November next.—Pat.

COLOMBIA.—Capt. Rugan at Philadelphia from Laguira states, that General Bolivar and Mr. Cockburn the British minister embarked at Laguira the 5th inst. on board the British frigate Druid, Capt. Chambers, bound down to Carthagena, accompanied by a considerable number of troops. A letter states that Bolivar goes on to Bogota to meet the Congress, and to punish the performers in the drama under the management of Santander. General Paez remains in command of Venezula. ib.

We copy the following from a report of the proceedings of the city councils of New York.

The committee made a long report on the petition of Dr. Banker, who was employed in 1824 to vaccinate the citizens of the 10th district; the number vaccinated was 849, one of whom died, the parents of which brought a suit against Dr. Banker for $5000, which, however, was not sustained; but the expenses incurred were about $540. which Dr. Banker is unable to pay. The committee moved that the sum should be paid out of the public treasury. Adopted.

EMIGRATION —This, which has always been a very important subject, is becoming every day of greater moment. The late English papers are filled with notices of the regular and vast amount of emigration from that country. In a single month upwards of 1500 persons (from Yorkshire alone) quitted their native country at Liverpool. A petition signed by 2310 heads of families in Manchester, was recently transmitted to the Under Secretary of State praying to be sent out to the British Colonies. These are two items out of thousands

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

A letter from Liverpool, of the 13th of June, states, that notwithstanding the amendments to the Corn Bill in the House of Lords, it was expected to pass that House in its original form.

The English papers give highly favorable accounts of the crops throughout the kingdom, and the good effects from the revival of trade were becoming more & more manifest.

Sir Humphrey Davy has relinquished the chair of the Royal Society. Either Lord Colchester or Lord Aberdeen will succeed him.

By Calcutta papers to the 9th February, there appears to be much commercial distress in India, and several heavy failures are announced.

Several persons of eminent talent, it is said, will leave London to fulfil engagements at the Park Theatre during the ensuing winter.

The divorce bill of Miss Turner, against Wakefield, has passed the House of Commons. It now only awaits the Royal assent to pass into a law.

The John Bull, of the 10th, intimates that Mrs. Coutts, widow of the late celebrated banker, was to be married on the following day to the Duke of St. Albans.

The London Gazette of the 8th contains an order in council, pursuant to treaties, for abolishing the anchorage due claimed in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Shark, on ships belonging to Denmark, Prussia, Hanover, Sweden, Norway, United States of America, the Free Hanseatic Republics, the state of Colombia, and the U. States of Rio de la Plata.

The opposition in France seems to increase. The ultras are still excited on account of the removal of Hyde de Neuville.

A letter from Havre, dated June 6th, says, that Com. Porter's vessels had captured, off Cape St. Antonio, several Spanish vessels, one valued at $160,000.

PORTUGAL.—The provision for the maintenance of British troops stationed in Portugal, passed the Commons without a division, and was sanctioned by the House of Lords. The seceding Ministers voted for the supplies. The Editor of the Liverpool Courier says—

"We are glad, however, to find that what appears to us to be the right principle, has been very explicitly assented to on both sides—that our interference is confined to the protection of our ally from the invasion of and machinations of a foreign power, and that it is not to be considered as an interference with the right of the people of Portugal, if they choose it, even to go wrong, and to reject the constitution altogether."

GREECE.—It appears by the accounts which have been received from various quarters, that the affairs of this country are approaching towards a favourable crisis.—The best authenticated statements confirm the intelligence of the Greeks, under the command of General Church, Karaiskaki, Colonels Gordon, Kridregger, and Colocotroni, having attacked Redschid Pacha before Athens, on the 19th of April, and the two following days, and, after an obstinate engagement, compelled him to abandon his entrenchments, and retreat to the distance of two hours march from the city. By this event, which it is hoped will lead to the final deliverance of the Acropolis, the Greeks would be enabled to convey an immediate supply of provisions into the Citadel. The events by sea are also stated to be equally favourable to the cause of the Greeks. Ten vessels laden with warlike stores intended for the Seraskier, had been taken or destroyed in the Gulf of Volo.

EARTHQUAKE.—The earthquake felt in Kentucky and Ohio, on the 5th inst. was noticed in New Albany, Indiana. Its effect was such as to cause some to fly into the street, so much were the houses shaken.

The Missouri Republican of the 5th inst. says—"A severe shock of an Earthquake, of about a minute's duration, was felt in this city [St. Louis] this morning, at half past 5 o'clock, accompanied by a loud rumbling noise, resembling the passage of a wagon over a pavement."

SWIMMING SCHOOLS.—Teachers of the art of swimming are now engaged with great profit both to themselves and pupils in Boston & Philadelphia. Dr. Lieber a German, at Boston, is enabled in a few lessons to teach any person to swim The unspeakable importance (to say nothing of the pleasure) of being able to sustain and move oneself in the water, would it is believed, find pupils in abundance for any competent persons who would establish a school in our own city. A knowledge of swimming ought to be considered as indispensible a branch of the physical education of every youth as riding on horse-back or the management of fire-arms.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life on the 20th inst. at Cedar Grove Somerset county, in the 4th year of her age, CAROLINE, second and only daughter of John P. Gale—In truth we may say this dear little affectionate child was inured to affliction, for since the age of six months she never enjoyed the blessing of health—during her last illness, which continued nineteen days, this little sufferer evinced the patience and fortitude becoming the most resigned Christian.—Never will her memory cease to be cherished by her disconsolate Parents.

"I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you"—

"Yet, when the first wild throb is past
Of anguish and despair,
To lift the eye of faith to Heaven,
And think, "my child is there?"—
This best can dry the gushing tears,
This yields the heart relief;
Until the christian's pious hope
O'ercomes—a mother's grief!"
