DORCHESTER COUNTY COURT,

APRIL TERM, A. D. 1827.

Whereas a Commission did issue from Dorchester county Court, at October Term 1825, to divide or value the real estate of John C. Tyler, late of Dorchester county deceased, in virtue of the act entitled an act to direct descents "and the several supplementary acts. And whereas the Commissioners appointed by the said Court, did at the April Term of the said Court in the year 1826 make return of their proceedings had on the said Commission, in which they determine and so return that the real estate of the said John C. Tyler, was incapable of division without loss and injury to all the parties entitled, and that they did value the said real estate to the sum of twelve hundred dollars current money—which said return of the proceedings of the said Commissioners hath been ratified and confirmed by this Court. And whereas Thomas Tyler the eldest son of the said John C. Tyler and person entitled by law to make his election to take the said real estate at the valuation made by the Commissioners aforesaid, is absent out of the county.—It is thereupon ordered by the said court, that the said Thomas Tyler be and appear in Dorchester county court on the second day of the next October Term of the said court, and make his election to take the said real estate at the valuation aforesaid, otherwise it shall and may be lawful for the same proceedings to be had thereon as if the said Thomas Tyler had appeared and refused to take the said real estate at the valuation aforesaid.—Provided a copy of this order be published in some one of the newspapers printed in Easton (Maryland) for four weeks successively before the first Monday in October Term next.
