EASTON, MD.

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 29.

A meeting of the Executive Council of Maryland will be held at Annapolis, on the 15th day of October next.

It is said from Nashville, that General Eaton is to furnish forthwith a statement of what passed between him and Mr. Buchanan, in relation to Mr. B's visit to General Jackson; that letters are to be produced, conversations attested, &c. on the same subject.

The way they do business in Washington County.

"At a general meeting of the Jackson committee of vigilance for Washington county held in Hagerstown on the 15th inst. it was unanimously resolved to support the four following gentlemen as Jackson candidates, to represent this county in the next general Assembly of Maryland:

Capt. John Wolgamot,
William Yates, Esq.
Daniel Rench, Esq.
William H. Fitzugh, Esq."

The Committee in an address to the voters of some length assigned the reasons for drawing the line, from which we have time only to extract the following.

"Independently of these local considerations urging us to the measure, this question has now become general throughout the state. It is right that it should be. It is considered important to have, if possible, a Jackson Legislature. The conduct of Governor Kent, during the late electioneering campaigns in the West, in misrepresenting the Jackson party of Maryland, proclaims him unworthy of the support of a free people.

"In case of a vacancy in the Senate of the United States, by the death or resignation of our present Senators, that vacancy must be filled by the Legislature: On that account also it is important that it should be Jacksonian. Moreover, the politics of a State is judged of abroad by the political complexion of its Legislature: Therefore, as it is of importance to the Jackson cause that Maryland should be considered abroad Jacksonian in its politics, we would earnestly endeavour to promote so desirable an end by having a Jacksonian Legislature.

In recommending the candidates named the committee observes:—"Being taken from that part of the people which is the bone and sinew of our country, the independant Yeomanry and Agriculturists they well know the real wants of the people. The question then is, Jackson? or Adams? Washington county expects every Jackson man to do his duty.

Signed by order of the Committee,
BENJAMIN F. YOE,

In consequence of this proceeding, notice was immediately given for a meeting of the friends of the administration to nominate a regular ticket on their part. A meeting was held accordingly on the 19th at Hagers Town, and

Col. DANIEL MALOTT,
Col. HENRY FOUKE,
MARMADUKE W. BOYD, Esq.
JONATHAN NEWCOMER, Esq.

Were nominnated—The meeting

Resolved, That, however we may regret the course pursued by the friends of Gen. Jackson, we conceive that no other course remains for us to pursue; and we earnestly recommend to the persons favourable to the present Administration of the State and General Governments, to promote, by all fair and honorable means, the election of the above ticket."

From Washington we learn that two Conventions between the United States and Great Britain have been received at the Department of State, which were concluded and signed in the early part of last month a few days before Mr. Cannings death, by Mr. Gallatin and, Messrs. Grant and Addington. By one of them the Third Article of the Convention of 1818, which stipulates the joint occupation of the country beyond the Stony Mountains, is continued; and, by the other the Commercial convention of 1815, which was continued by the above mentioned convention of 1818, is further continued. The duration of the Convention of 1818, having been limited to ten years, which would have expired on the 20 of October, 1828, on that day the existing Commercial Convention, and the Article respecting the country beyond the Rocky Mountains, would have terminated but for the recent conventions. They are now to continue indefinitely as to time, each party reserving the right to put an end to either of them, upon twelve months notice given to the other party.

Perpetual Motion.—Mr. Lewis Babcock a watch maker at Ware Factory Village, has constructed a machine of brass, of about 18 inches high and ten inches wide, which has the power of winding itself up once in five minutes, by means of a spring lever that falls instantly, without diminishing or retarding the power of the machine. When put together, it commences motion immediately, without any starting cause, and moves a pendulum at about the same rate of a clock pendulum. We are informed that it has now been running about five weeks incessantly, and several distinguished machanics, who have seen it, say that they see no reason to hinder its running perpetually until it is worn out. The ingenious inventor intends taking it to Washington the approaching winter.—Springfield Rep.

The first volume of Mr. Cooper's Red Rover (all that has been received of the novel) is calculated, in our opinion, to raise the expectation of a work much superior on the whole to the Prairie. The vehicles, men and business of the sea are the subjects which he handless with surpassing knowledge and talent, and they form the chief matter of the Red Rover. The first vol. contains able delineations of character and scenery, and dialogues of true flavor and spirit. We closed it with a feeling of chagrin for the want of the others, which was, to us, sufficient proof of the merit of the plot.—We learn that the whole will reach this country in the course of the autumn.

National Gazette.

The Harrisburg Chronicle states that much excitement has prevailed along the Canal during the last week, in consequence of the agents of the N. York mammoth company having stopped payment on Wednesday last. That company had the contract at Hunter's Falls. By the failure, the laborers will be affected variously; some to the amount of 400 dollars. Some excesses were committed by the laborers: A still-house and stable were burnt in the narrows, on Thursday night, and the person arrested on suspicion of having fired it, was rescued by his companions. All was quiet on Friday evening.

From the Baltimore Chronicle.

MR. ADAMS THE CHOICE OF MARYLAND.

We often hear it stated and insisted on, that General Jackson was the people's candidate—now, so far as this state is concerned, the following statement of the votes received will clearly shew, that Mr. Adams received a majority of the people's votes, although he got but three out of the eleven electoral votes. This result then shews the unfairness of the district system, and the necessity there is for it being changed to a General Ticket—let the State be divided into districts as regards the residence of the electoral candidates, but let the entire vote of the State determine the election, it will then be the majority, and not the minority who govern:

SELECT

Boarding School

FOR

YOUNG LADIES

HAGERS-TOWN.

MISS INGLIS, who has for several years conducted a Boarding and Day School in this place, wishing to establish her Seminary on a more retired and limited plan, proposes to open on Monday the 15th of October, next, a Select Boarding School for Young Ladies.

As her attention will be confined to boarders, of whom the number will be limited, it is hoped that parents and the friends of youth in general, will be sensible of the great advantages which young ladies under her care, may reasonably be expected to possess.

Her residence is spacious, and delightfully located in a retired, airy, and healthful situation, surrounded by open grounds, and combining advantages of both town and country.

That young ladies from a distance may be accommodated with the most agreeable seasons of the year for visiting their friends, Miss Inglis proposes to have her vacations in May and October. On this plan, the winter session, with the exception of the first, will consist of six months, and the summer ones of four months.

Hagerstown, Sept. 22.

Baltimore, July 12, 1827.

I have carefully considered the proposals of Miss Inglis to establish a Select School in the vicinity of Hagerstown, and can hardly doubt but she will meet with due success.—The situation is beautiful and healthy, and while sufficiently retired, it is quite accessible to respectable and genteel society.

From an acquaintance with Miss Inglis, for a considerable number of years, I have great pleasure in saying, that as to character accomplishments, learning & talents, I consider her as qualified in no ordinary degree to superintend such an establishment: and I am satisfied, that those, who may entrust the education of their daughters to her care, will find them well instructed in the various parts of female education, well grounded in correct principles, pious habits and good manners.

JAMES KEMP,
Bishop of the Diocess of Maryland.

We cordially concur in the opinion above expressed by Bishop Kemp.

WILLIAM NEVINS,
Pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Baltimore.

JOHN BRECKENRIDGE,
Pastor of Second Presbyterian Church in Baltimore.

Fully concurring in the above expressed opinion of Bishop Kemp, with respect to the qualifications of Miss Inglis, and the benefits that may be expected to result to young ladies placed under her care, I have only to add that her residence is all that she describes it to be in her proposal. Her house is a very large one, and the grounds which surround it are sufficiently spacious for all the purposes of exercise within themselves. Whether the mental or moral culture of children be considered, or the due preservation of their health, I feel persuaded that parents may, with all confidence commit their children to the Seminary of Miss Inglis.

GEORGE LEMMON,
Rector of St. John's Parish, Hagerstown.

Being acquainted with Miss Inglis and the situation of her residence, I freely give the testimony of Mr. Lemmon as my own.
