186

perches then north fifty two perches to the great Falls then Falls South south seventy five de grees east thirty four per south fourty degrees east forty perches then south thirty f then south twenty degrees west twenty eight perches the Falls till it intersects the east northeast line of the and with that line twentytwo perches to the beginning con-in all thirty acres of land together with all improvements ments ways inclosements and profitts ariseng belonging ways appurtain-ing to the here demised premises or any situate and being in the mannor of the said Thomas being a tract of land calld My Lord monly My Lady's Mannor premises

187