POETRY.

THE FIRST LAND.

The following beautiful lines are extracted from the Literary Souvenir.

How welcome from the dizzy mast—
The watchful seaman's stand—
Sounds o'er the billow, and the blast,
The joyful cry of "Land!"
Which, veiled within a misty shroud,
Lifts o'er the wave its peak of cloud.

Ah! who but he whose weary eye
Hath long been doomed to dwell
Upon the wastes of sea and sky,
The raptured throb can tell,
The boundless bursts of joy that fills
The heart that hails earth's distant hills!

At once upon the gaze they come,
With mingling sighs and tears—
With beauteous visions of our home,
And days of other years—
Reflected from the past, that throw
Around their heads a sun-set glow.

And far away in fancy's dream,
Beyond the waste of floods,
The wave worn spirit hath a gleam
Of sunny vales and woods;
A gentle whisper of the trees—
A murmur of the forest breeze;

A dying echo of the grove,
That to the heart doth bring
Sweet memories of the walks of love,
In life's unclouded spring;
And dear the woodlands anthem be,
Far warbled o'er the moaning sea.

And soon upon the lovely shore
Our bosom friends we strain;
They welcome us from ocean's roar
To native shores again—
To woman's love and smiling home,
From which our lot has been to roam.

NOTICE.

THERE will be a general meeting of the citizens of Talbot county friendly to the dissemination of the Sacred Scriptures held in the Court House at Easton, on Tuesday the 27th of May, to take into consideration the propriety of establishing a county Bible Society.

At a preparatory meeting held in Easton April 27th, a committee were appointed to make preparations for a more general meeting of the citizens of the county, at which time a society will be organized—officers and managers elected—and other measures adopted for furthering the Bible cause and supplying those families destitute of the word of life.

It will be recollected that great interest has been excited in different parts of the Union relative to the Bible cause—several States have resolved to supply all within their own bounds—and it is gratifying to observe the interest which is felt in many counties on the Western Shore, all of which have resolved as counties, to supply their own destitute.—Flourishing county societies have also, within two weeks, been established in Kent & Queen Anns, and it is hoped that the citizens of Talbot will co operate in the same general plan which we expect will be adopted by the remaining counties on the Eastern Shore.

The meeting will take place in the Court House in Easton at 11 o'clock A. M. where addresses will be delivered by Commissioners and agents of the Young Men's Bible Society of Baltimore.
