THE EXILE AT REST.

BY THE REV. JOHN PIERPONT.

His falchion flashed along the Nile;
His hosts he led through Alpine snows;
O'er Moscow's towers, that blaze the while,
His eagle flag unrolled—and froze.

Here sleeps he now, alone!—not one
Of all the Kings whose crowns he gave,
Bends o'er his dust;—nor wife nor son
Has ever seen or sought his grave.

Behind this sea-girt rock, the star
That led him on from crown to crown
Has sunk;—and nations from afar
Gazed as it faded and went down.

High is his couch;—the ocean flood
Far, far below, by storms is curled;
As round him heaved, while high he stood,
A stormy and unstable world.

Alone he sleeps! the mountain cloud,
That Night hangs round him, & the breath
Of morning scatters, is the shroud
That wraps the conqueror's clay in death.

Pause here!—The far off world at last
Breathes free—the hand that shook its thrones,
And to the earth its mitres cast,
Lies powerless now beneath these stones.

Hark! comes there, from the pyramids,
And from Siberian waste of snow,
And Europe's hills, a voice that bids
The world be awed, to mourn him? No:

The only, the perpetual dirge
That's heard here, is the sea-bird's cry—
The mournful murmur of the surge—
The cloud's deep voice—the wind's low sigh.

PROPOSALS

BY JOSEPH SMITH, & Co.

For Publishing in Princess Anne, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, a Weekly Newspaper to be entitled

THE SOMERSET IRIS

AND MESSENGER OF TRUTH

The proposed periodical will be chiefly devoted to Politics, General Literature, and Morality. It will review with temperance and candour, effusions of cotemporaneous writers, and apply the laws of criticism, or appropriate reprehensions, to every lurking sophistry, insidious deception, and unveiled, or wanton falsehood. It will sedulously endeavour to demonstrate the impolicy of ejecting from office, an experienced and able magistrate, whilst the national government is proceeding "in the full tide of successful experiment;" and to expose the peril of substituting an illiterate individual, whose sole distinction has been erected, by meretricious and delusive fame, upon achievements in feats of arms; and, for the greater part, upon the event of a single battle.

The course of the Editors will be characterised by the spirit of respect and courtesy which is due to an intelligent, & generous people, but equally firm and uncompromising in the proper maintenance of personal rights, and the just support of those principles with which their press will be connected—and that misconception may not arise in the construction of this avowal, they freely declare their determined identity, and indissoluble union, with those tenets and revered maxims of the illustrious WASHINGTON, which have been confirmed and CONSECRATED by each succeeding father of the REPUBLIC, and are now sustained, in their pristine purity and essential practice, by a WISE and VIRTUOUS ADMINISTRATION.

Having disclosed their views, and the fundamental bases of their proposition; and promising to justify them by a diligent and faithful performance, the publishers will confidently expect a due proportion of the public patronage and support.

TERMS.

The IRIS will be printed on a super-royal sheet, with entire new type, at THREE DOLLARS for a whole year, to be satisfied by the payment of TWO Dollars, if paid within thirty days, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, if paid within six months. A subscription may be taken for six months after which it will cease upon the order of the subscriber.

Advertisements not exceeding a square will be inserted three times for one dollar, and 25 cents for every subsequent insertion,—those exceeding a square, in the same proportion. Persons advertising will limit the time for insertion, otherwise their advertisements will be continued, and charged accordingly.
