PROPOSALS

BY JOSEPH SMITH, & Co.

For Publishing in Princess Anne, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, a Weekly Newspaper to be entitled

THE SOMERSET IRIS

AND MESSENGER OF TRUTH

The proposed periodical will be chiefly devoted to Politics, General Literature, and Morality. It will review with temperance and candour, effusions of cotemporaneous writers, and apply the laws of criticism, or appropriate reprehensions, to every lurking sophistry, insidious deception, and unveiled, or wanton falsehood. It will sedulously endeavour to demonstrate the impolicy of ejecting from office, an experienced and able magistrate, whilst the national government is proceeding "in the full tide of successful experiment;" and to expose the peril of substituting an illiterate individual, whose sole distinction has been erected, by meretricious and delusive fame, upon achievements in feats of arms; and, for the greater part, upon the event of a single battle.

The course of the Editors will be characterised by the spirit of respect and courtesy which is due to an intelligent, & generous people, but equally firm and uncompromising in the proper maintenance of personal rights, and the just support of those principles with which their press will be connected—and, that misconception may not arise in the construction of this avowal, they freely declare their determined identity, and indissoluble union, with those tenets and revered maxims of the ILLUSTRIOUS WASHINGTON, which have been confirmed and CONSECRATED by each succeeding father of the REPUBLIC, and are now sustained, in precise purity and essential practice, by a WISE and VIRTUOUS ADMINISTRATION.

Having disclosed their views, and the fundamental bases of their proposition; and promising to justify them by a diligent and faithful performance, the publishers will confidently expect a due proportion of the public patronage and support.

TERMS.

The IRIS will be printed on a super-royal sheet, with entire new type, at THREE DOLLARS for a whole year, to be satisfied by the payment of Two Dollars, if paid within thirty days, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, if paid within six months. A subscription may be taken for six months, after which it will cease upon the order of the subscriber.

Advertisements not exceeding a square will be inserted three times for one dollar, and 25 cents for every subsequent insertion,—those exceeding a square, in the same proportion. Persons advertising will limit the time for insertion, otherwise their advertisements will be continued, and charged accordingly.

THE NOTED JACK, RIEGO,

WILL stand the present season on Tuesday's and Wednesday's at Col. Nicholas Goldsborough's Farm, near Easton—and Saturday's and Monday's at the subscriber's Farm near St. Michaels. He will be let to Mares by the Spring's Chance only, at $5 each, which may be discharged by the payment of Four Dollars, on or before the 1st day of October next. The groom will be entitled to 25 cents for each Mare.

RIEGO is six years old this Spring, is well formed, and remarkably active, He is of the best Stock in this country, being sired by Col. Fitzhugh's Knight of Malta,' who was by Gen. Washington's celebrated Imported Jack, The Kinght of Malta. The Mules from this stock of Jacks are not surpassed by those of any other in the United States.

JOHN TILGHMAN, Melfield.

WOOL CARDING.

THE Subscriber has erected a Wool Carding Machine at the stand formerly occupied by William Brown and Samuel S. Smith, as a Plaister Mill, on Lot, between Front and High streets, O. T. and adjoining the Market Yard occupied by Nicholas Gorsuch, where all persons can have their Wool carded in the best manner, and at the shortest notice, the Cards being of the best quality.

For the convenience of persons residing on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and in Virginia, I have made arrangements with M. BALDERSTON, No. 61, Smith's Wharf, to receive all Wool coming by water; and it will be taken from, and returned to the aforesaid Store, free of any charge other than for the Carding, which will be eight cents per pound.

YOUNG LADIES' BOARDING SCHOOL,

AT NEW-ARK, DEL.

THE undersigned, members of the visiting committee, attended an examination of the Young Ladies in the boarding school at New Ark, under the superintendence of the Rev. SAMUEL BELL, on Tuesday the 15th ultimo; and have no hesitation in saying that they were highly pleased with the manner in which the young ladies acquitted themselves. The promptness with which they answered the several questions which were put to them, evinced an intimate acquaintance with those branches of science in which they had been instructed.

The examination embraced the following viz English Grammar, Chronology, Rhetoric, Composition, Modern and Ancient Geography, Modern and Ancient History, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry and Mental Philosophy.—From this, as well as from other specimens of literary improvement which we have witnessed, we auger well of this institution—& as we think we have well grounded reason to believe, that it justly deserves to be ranked among the first literary establishments of the kind in our country, we earnestly desire that it may receive extensive and liberal patronage, and above all, that it may enjoy the favor of HIM whose blessing alone can give success to every good design.
