POETRY.

[COMMUNICATED.]

SUSPICIOUS SIGNS.

When the heart rises in the throat and sticks,
And choaks the sound of every word we say,
And we have hardly sense to judge betwixt
The gloom of midnight and the glare of day.

When blushes blossom o'er the scorching cheek
And the step falters, and the eyelids droop,
And we feel foolish when we try to speak
And o'er our work to hide those blushes stoop.

When a girl acts in this stile, 'tis a sign
The gateway to her heart is just unhinged.
Or to use words that are not quite so fine,
That she by love has been a little singed.

YOUNG LADIES' BOARDING SCHOOL,

AT NEW-ARK, DEL.

THE undersigned, members of the visiting committee, attended an examination of the Young Ladies in the boarding school at New Ark, under the superintendence of the Rev. SAMUEL BELL, on Tuesday the 15th ultimo; and have no hesitation in saying that they were highly pleased with the manner in which the young ladies acquitted themselves. The promptness with which they answered the several questions which were put to them, evinced an intimate acquaintance with those branches of science in which they had been instructed.

The examination embraced the following viz English Grammar, Chronology, Rhetoric, Composition, Modern and Ancient Geography, Modern and Ancient History, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry and Mental Philosophy. —From this, as well as from other specimens of literary improvement which we have witnessed, we auger well of this institution—& as we think we have well grounded reason to believe, that it justly deserves to be ranked among the first literary establishments of the kind in our country, we earnestly desire that it may receive extensive and liberal patronage, and above all, that it may enjoy the favor of HIM whose blessing alone can give success to every good design.

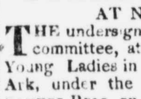

A. K. RUSSEL,
ISAAC GIBBS,

HAVING leased the above extensive, well known and long established HOTEL, informs his friends, the friends of the House and the Public generally, that he has had the house thoroughly repaired & fitted up in a very superior manner with entire new furniture, and is now prepared with every requisite, throughout every department of his establishment to make his customers comfortable.

There are several pleasant parlors fitted up with chambers attached, having a private entrance for the accommodation of families.

The location of this Hotel is most advantageous for Gentlemen visiting the city on business, being near both the wharves and Market street—however it is known to almost every gentleman who comes to Baltimore by the bay, and has been formerly a favourite stopping place with them.

The proprietor trusts it will become a favorite house again with gentlemen from the bay, when it is known that the house is in as fine order as it ever has been; and he feels a confidence (will gentlemen call and see the alterations and improvements made) that a portion of patronage will be awarded him, pledges himself that as far as attention and exertion can go toward accommodation, nothing will be wanting to produce comfort.

☞Terms of board one dollar per day.

Baltimore, May 3, 1828—6m

☞The Cambridge Chronicle, Centreville Times, and Elkton Press will publish the above 6 months, and forward their accounts to the Proprietor.

WOOL CARDING.

THE Subscriber has erected a Wool Carding Machine at the stand formerly occupied by William Brown and Samuel S. Smith, as a Plaister Mill, on Lot 8, between Front and High streets, O. T. and adjoining the Market Yard occupied by Nicholas Gorsuch, where all persons can have their Wool carded in the best manner, and at the shortest notice, the Cards being of the best quality.

For the convenience of persons residing on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and in Virginia, I have made arrangements with M BALDERSTON, No. 61, Smith's Wharf, to receive all Wool coming by water; and it will be taken from, and returned to the aforesaid Store, free of any charge other than for the Carding which will be eight cents per pound.
