POETRY.

THE GRAY HAIR.

Come let me pluck that silver hair
Which 'midst thy clust'ring curls I see;
The withering type of time or care
Hath nothing, sure, to do with thee!

Years have not yet impaired the grace
That charmed me once, that chains me now;
And Envy's self, love, cannot trace
One wrinkle on thy placid brow?

Thy features have not lost the bloom
That brightened them when first we met:
No—rays of softest light illume
The unambitious beauty yet!

And if the passing clouds of Care
Have cast their shadows o'er thy face,
They have but left, triumphant there,
A holier charm—more witching grace!

And if thy voice hath sunk a tone,
And sounds more sadly than of yore
It has a sweetness all its own,
Methinks I never marked before.

Thus, young and fair, and happy too—
If bliss indeed may here be won,
In spite of all that Care can do;
In spite of all that time has done.

Is yon white hair a boon of love,
To thee in mildest mercy given?
A sign, a token from above,
To lead thy tho'ts from earth to heaven?

To speak to thee of life's decay;
Of beauty hastening to the tomb;
Of hopes that cannot fade away;
Of joys that never lose their bloom?

Or springs the line of timeless snow
With those dark, glossy locks entwined,
Mid Youth's and Beauty's morning glow,
To emblem thy maturer mind.

It does—it does—then let it stay;
Even Wisdom's self were welcome now;
Who'd wish her soberer tints away,
When thus they beam from Beauty's brow?

BRANDYWINE
Chalybeate Springs.

THE Subscriber having recently removed to this elegant establishment, situated about five miles from the Borough of Wilmington, and about the same distance from the Town of Newcastle, and occupying an elevated site in a district of country alike remarkable for the varied beauty of its landscape, the high cultivation of its soil, and the salubrity of its atmosphere—has opened it as a resort for those in pursuit either of health or amusement.

The sanative properties of the waters have been long celebrated, and for many years the invalid has sought the renovation of his strength in their use, notwithstanding the absence of those accommodations which were essential to his comfort and which are now abundantly provided.

The approach to it, is by various routs along the Elkton and Lancaster turnpikes, and the cross roads of the country, which are at all times in excellent condition. Its vicinity to Wilmington and Newcastle places it within the reach of the citizens of Philadelphia and Baltimore, who enjoy the facilities and despatch of Steam boat conveyance to the former places. To the inhabitants of the Peninsula it offers an agreeable refuge from the heats of summer, and a valuable tonic in its Chalybeate Springs.

The buildings, erected about a year since by an incorporated company, are spacious, and having been newly furnished by the subscriber, offer every accommodation that can be desired. The supplies of his table are drawn from the market of Wilmington and the immediate neighborhood, and will be found to embrace all the varieties of the season. His bar is provided with the choicest liquors, and the no less essential contribution of a well filled ice house.

The subscriber flatters himself that as from his experience in his business, he will not be found deficient in a knowledge of its duties, neither will he be found wanting in the anxious desire to promote the comfort and enjoyment of those who may honor him with their patronage.
