EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON:

Saturday Evening—Oct: 11, 1828.

LATE ELECTION.

The result of the late election in Talbot is gratifying to all who regard it as the forerunner of the public sentiment in relation to the great question of the next Chief Magistrate of the Union Freed from that prejudiced notion on the one hand, which disorders the sense, and from desperation, on the other, which seeks changes or advancement by whatever means, the people of Talbot have spoken in the language of reflection and of sound and safe discretion. They could not brook the idea of giving their sober judgements up to a course of things that had a tendency to place such a man as General Jackson in the Chief Magistrate's Chair of the Country—they regard General Jackson as a fortunate Soldier, as a General of high merit, as a Commander who achieved a brilliant victory, and as such, they do him honor—but they have seen this same Gen Jackson at other times and frequently, contemn the Laws of the Land, trample down the Constitution of the Country, defy and disobey his express Orders and his experience in authority, put down the Civil Magistracy, suspend and forbid the process of the Law that was going to inquire into the right of a citizen's imprisonment and of a Judge's being cast into Gaol by the order of a haughty military Commander, crazed with success and flushed with supposed power—and seeing all this and more, could it be expected that men who had been bred up to revere and love a Government of Laws to hold the military authority subordinate to the civil power, and who have been taught to believe, that men in power are as much bound by the Law of the Land, and owe it to their country, as a first duty to maintain the supremacy of the Law as other men, could for a moment after this entertain an idea of giving their support to General Jackson as President of the United States? Impossible.—Our thinking people are too well versed in the fundamental maxims of free Government, too sagacious in their knowledge of mankind, and too faithful to the rich inheritance left them by the fathers of the Revolution and the Founders of the Republic to rush to their own destruction under the blind guidance of a maddened enthusiasm. They say, as all should say, the man who dares to act against the Constitution of the Country, to disobey the Law, to put down the Civil Magistracy, to disregard his orders, to riot lawlessly in power, & to shed the blood of American citizens, our Brothers, unnecessarily and under colour of pretended authority, is a tyrant at heart an abuser of what we hold most sacred and unfit to be the Chief Magistrate over a free and enlightened People.

ELECTIONS.

The returns from the several Counties on the Eastern Shore, contained in this day's paper, are pledges of the sound views of our countrymen upon the momentous contest for the next President that has long agitated the nation, and which will now, in a few weeks, be brought to a close. We cannot but particularise the results in Caroline and Somerset, who have so handsomely distinguished themselves on this occasion. We are informed that but for the circumstance of their being five Administration Candidates in Dorset, that she too would have presented her opinions in behalf of the Administration with strong force. In Queen Ann's we have been somewhat disappointed, as from the reported nice division there, we had calculated on two and two. Kent is always a battle ground where good principles are warmly defended, never without ability, seldom without success, and she rises from the contest with her wonted eclat. In Worcester, we lamented to apprehend causes that might seem to make her appear as the advocate of the remorseless, merciless, lawless Military Chieftain—and it is so - yet for her sake and our Country's sake, we hope the late expression of her opinion has been more in relation to favour felt for the individual Gentlemen who were Legislative Candidates, than a sure indication of her view as to the Presidential Election.

In Cecil our disappointment is not great.—Three Jackson men are elected, and a tie between one of the Administration Candidates, (Mr. Thomas) and one of the Jackson Candidates, (Mr. Townsend.)

[COMMUNICATED.]

To your Posts good men and true.

The several Committees appointed for the respective Districts in Talbot County in support of the cause of the Administration, are earnestly requested to call immediate meetings in their proper Districts, to preserve their organization, and to make such further regulations as experience may have suggested, to give a full and free expression of the public voice on the approaching Electoral Election—that the Law and the Constitution may triumph over the man who has trampled both under his feet.

DELAWARE TRIUMPHANT FOR THE ADMINISTRATION!

We learn from a gentleman from Delaware, who came on in the Steam Boat Line this morning, that just before he left accounts had been received of the complete triumph of the Administration party throughout the State by an increased majority. "The work goes bravely on."—Pat.

Sickness in the neighborhood of New York.—Public prayers were offered in some of our Churches last Sabbath, for the sick in the towns and villages adjacent to New-York. From the statements that we hear, there must be a great deal of distress in the country at the present moment. Dr. Spring mentioned from his pulpit, that in a large church and congregation in this vicinity, such was the prevalence of disease that but eight or ten persons were able to attend church on the preceding Sabbath. The Rev. gentleman also stated, that in many places there are no well people enough to take care of the sick. Last year there was more sickness than usual in the neighborhood of this city; but we believe the distress the present season is without a parallel. Meantime it should be a cause of fervent gratitude to Providence, that this city has been blessed with an uninterrupted measure of health. Indeed, we are informed that the old order of things has so far been reversed, that the sick from the country have been brought into town, while many people have also made temporary removals to the city, to avoid the wasting sickness.—[N. Y. Commercial Lamentable Accident.—At a regimental review of Infantry, at Bolton, Conn on the 23d instant, an accident occured of a painful description. A Mr Ruggles, (brother to Senator Ruggles, of Ohio) said to some of those present, that if they would dischaice a cannon in honor of General Jackson, he would furnish powder. He accordingly furnished them with two kegs, and they commenced firing. At the second discharge, the cannon burst, & one man, from North Coventry, was instantly killed by the broken pieces, his head being literally severed from his body, one arm blown off, and otherwise shockingly mangled. Another man was so badly wounded, that his case is considered very dangerous. The name of the man killed is Benjamin F. Kench, and of the man badly injured, Amos Avery.

SOUNDNESS OF THE LUNGS.—Dr. Lyons, Edinburgh, proposes an ingenious and practical test for trying the soundness of the lungs. The patient is directed to draw in a full breath, and then begin to count as far as he can, slowly and audibly, without again drawing in his breath.—The number of seconds he can continue is then to be carefully noted. In confirmed consumption, the time does not exceed eight, and is often less than six seconds. In pleurisy and peumonia it ranges from nine to four seconds. But when the lungs are sound, the time will range as high as from twenty to thirty five seconds
