POETRY.

[From the Boston Statesman.]

ORIGINAL POETRY.

Fast hurried by the playful hours,
The sun to his blue couch was hieing,
When on a bank of blushing flowers,
I saw a rosy creature lying,
As bright and beautiful and fair
As the rich blossoms breathing there.

It was a little roughish girl—
Her lips apart, her blue eyes raised
And laughing thro' the silken curl
Of her soft hair, she upwards gazed,
I turned—and rising clear and light
A brilliant bubble met my sight.

The bright thing glittering for a while
In silent beauty floated on,
Returned the day, god's parting smile—
Trembled and faded—and was gone—
I looked at that young child once more
And she was gazing as before:

But to that earnest brow and eye
A gentle shade of thought had crept,
And then she started eagerly,
And bent her glowing face—and wept,
For there mid flowers that wreathed it round
Her pipe lay broken on the ground.

Delighted with the splendid toy,
The pretty simple pipe had given,
She'd flung it there in careless joy,
To see her bubble rise to Heaven;
Low words stole forth—the first she'd spoken
"My bubble's burst—my pipe is broken."

Soon that bright, joyous creature blushed
To deeper lovelier bloom and now
A woman's soul the young cheek flushed,
A woman's feeling lit the brow,
Again I saw her graceful head
Upon the downy pillow laid.

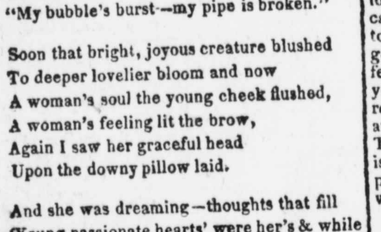

And she was dreaming—thoughts that fill
'Young passionate hearts' were her's & while
The bright glow deepened brighter still,
The red lip wore a summer smile,
Her sleep was broken—she awoke,
And the rose faded as she spoke.

The same dark eyes before me shone,
That watched the bubble soaring high,
And wildly sweet the thrilling tone
Of that soft evening hour went by,
'Twas the same voice, which then had spoken
"My dream hath fled—the spell is broken."

"Years came and went" and left the trace
Of time and tears upon her brow,
But once again I saw that face,
Alas! how changed, how altered now!
Consumption nursed the heetic tinge,
That glowed beneath that drooping fringe.

The breathing smile once bright and warm
With the rich dreams her heart had cherished,
Had that too darkened in the storm,
Where light & bloom and joy had perished?
Ay! worn away with grief unspoken,
'The smile was gone—the heart was broken.'

M. BARR

HAVING leased the above extensive, well known and long established HOTEL, informs his friends, the friends of the House and the Public generally, that he has had the house thoroughly repaired & fitted up in a very superior manner with entire new furniture, and is now prepared with every requisite, throughout every department of his establishment to make his customers comfortable.

There are several pleasant parlors fitted up with chambers attached, having a private entrance for the accommodation of families.

The location of this Hotel is most advantageous for Gentlemen visiting the city on business, being near both the wharves and Market street—however it is known to almost every gentleman who comes to Baltimore by the bay, and has been formerly a favourite stopping place with them.

The proprietor trusts it will become a favorite house again with gentlemen from the bay, when it is known that the house is in as fine order as it ever has been; and he feels a confidence (will gentlemen call and see the alterations and improvements made) that a portion of patronage will be awarded him, pledges himself that as far as attention and exertion can go toward accommodation, nothing will be wanting to produce comfort.

☞Terms of board one dollar per day.

Baltimore, May 3, 1828—6m

☞The Cambridge Chronicle, Centreville Times, and Elkton Press will publish the above 6 months, and forward their accounts to the Proprietor.

SPLENDID VIEWS
AMERICAN SCENERY

ON FRIDAY the 10th of October, 1828, will be published by T. K. Greenbank, No. 64 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, a volume of splendid views of American Scenery as follows:

1. A view of Beck's Shot Tower, on the Schuylkill near Philadelphia, and adjacent scenery.
2. A view of the Light House on Long Island Sound, with the adjacent scenery.
3. A view of York, on Lake Ontario, with the fortifications.
4. Characteristic Scenery on the Hudson River.
5. View of New London, Connecticut, with the adjacent scenery.
6. View of Lemon Hill, near Philadelphia, the seat of Henry Pratt, Esq.
7. The Tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon.
8. View at the Great Bend of the Susquehanna.
9. View of the Upper Falls of Solomon's Creek, Lucerne county, Pa.
10. View of the Lower Falls of Solomon's Creek.
11. View of the Catskill Mountains, from the Hudson.
12. View of Fort Niagara on Lake Ontario, from the Light House on the British side.

These views are executed in the best style of Philadelphia engraving, from drawings made upon the spot. Each plate will be accompanied by a full and accurate description thereof, as to make it perfectly intelligible to every person.

The work will be printed and issued to subscribers in the first style, on superior paper, and with a handsomely printed cover, and delivered to subscribers at the very low price of ONE DOLLAR. Flexible covers will be used for country subscribers, so that they can be safely sent by mail.

☞Any gentleman, postmasters and others, who will interest themselves to procure ten subscribers; and remit $10 to the editor, shall receive twelve copies. From the very flattering patronage already received (1200 subscribers have put down their names) this volume will probably be succeeded by another, as soon as other plates can be engraved. All orders from the country will be promptly attended to.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Sunday morning the 21st inst. a mulatto fellow who calls himself ABRAHAM SULLIVAN, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, straight and well made, with rather a down look when spoken to, but polite and attentive.—For the last eight or nine months he has been employed as a waiter, in the Easton Hotel by Mr. Peacock. He had on when he ranaway a fox coloured hat blue cloth coat, corduroy pantaloons and new shoes.—There is little doubt he will change his clothing as he took a variety with him.

Whoever will take up said Runaway and deliver him in the Jail in Easton, Talbot county, (Md.) shall receive a reward of Fifty Dollars, if taken in this State or the State of Delaware—if taken out of the above States, One Hundred Dollars reward will be given.

WM. H. GROOME, Agent
for Isabella Smyth.

Easton, Oct. 4—tf

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY on Saturday night last, a negro man called DANIEL, who is about 32 years of age, five feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a dark mulatto colour, has broad shoulders and broad face, is rather lusty and well made, has large white teeth, his eyes are of a reddish colour, and when he is spoken to he has a smile on his countenance. Daniel was hired out in Easton, and went off under pretence of going to Camp Meeting, and there is reason to believe that he was accompanied by a negro man, the property of Mrs. Smyth, who was also hired out in Easton, and is of a chesnut colour and rather tall. I have no knowledge of what clothes Daniel took with him, other than a blue jacket and fur hat nearly new. It is more than probable that these negroes will make their way either to Delaware or New Jersey. The above reward will be paid for apprehending Daniel if taken out of the State and lodged in Jail so that I get him, and all reasonable expenses paid if brought to Easton and lodged in Jail.

EDWARD O. MARTIN.

Head of Wye, Talbot co. Md. }
Sept. 27, 1828. }

20 DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber on or about the 15th of April last, a negro woman who calls herself MARGARET—she is about 23 years of age, stout and well made, rather light complexion for a negro.—The subscriber understands the above negro has made her way to Baltimore, where she has no doubt hired herself as a free woman.

Whoever takes up said negro and secures her in jail so that the subscriber gets her again shall receive the above reward.

THOMAS D. MONNELLY.
