POETRY.

[From the New York Morning Courier.]

DESTINY.

Sybil! look upon my brow—
Read to me my destiny—
Mark the thoughts that, even now,
Burn to burst their secresy.
Many a bright and laughing morrow
Cradling in the sigh of sorrow,
Or in lines of light revealing
Withered hope and blasted feeling.
Sybil, speak! whate'er the spell,
Name—for I can hear it well.

Tell of blisses, rich and rare,
Wooing hearts to meet them—never;
Tell of all that's bright and fair,
Grappled, dash'd aside forever;
Tell of roses pluck'd and withering,
Storm clouds in the blue sky gathering,
Serpents coiling round the bower,
Blasted bud and falling flower.
Sybil speak! whate'er it be,
Read to me futurity.

I can nerve to meet the scorn
I can bear the scorching flame—
'Tis but once to cloud the morn,
But the blighting of one name—
Bloom or burning, joy or anguish,
'Tis but once to writhe or languish,
Speak the mutter'd malin, louder,
Never can ye crush a prouder—
Speak! and be futurity
Dark or bright unveiled to me.

NOTICE.

THE Officers of the "Easton Female Sabbath School Society" hereby give notice, that Sermons will be preached, and collections made in the Episcopal Church to-morrow, and in the Methodist Church on Sunday 23d inst. for the benefit of the indigent pupils of this Institution.

The general claims of these necessitous objects on the charity of the christian public, the Officers deem it unnecessary to urge; but they would respectfully represent the peculiar exigency which impels them to make the present application.

Equally destitute of seasonable apparel as of moral and religious instruction, the Society is charged with the burden of furnishing many of its Scholars with the former, in order that it may have the opportunity of imparting to them the latter. To this object have been applied the funds, which ought to have been appropriated to the purchase of books, premiums, &c. and though exhausted, they have been found inadequate to the demand. This simple statement the Officers are persuaded will be sufficient with all those who duly consider the infinitely important end of their Institution—even that of rescuing immortal souls from the dominion of sin & ignorance, & of bringing them to the knowledge of their Redeemer, and relying on the intrinsic merit of their cause, and on the blessing of HIM, "who clothes even the grass of the field," and "tempers the wind to the Shorn Lamb," they feel confident that their appeal will not be in vain. By order of the Directress

ELIZABETH NICOLS.

SPLENDID VIEWS
AMERICAN SCENERY

ON FRIDAY the 10th of October, 1828, will be published by T. K. Greenbank, No. 64 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, a volume of splendid views of American Scenery as follows:

1. A view of Beck's Shot Tower, on the Schuylkill near Philadelphia, and adjacent scenery.
2. A view of the Light House on Long Island Sound with the adjacent scenery.
3. A view of York, on Lake Ontario, with the fortifications.
4. Characteristic Scenery on the Hudson River.
5. View of New London, Connecticut, with the adjacent scenery.
6. View of Lemon Hill, near Philadelphia, the seat of Henry Pratt, Esq.
7. The Tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon.
8. View at the Great Bend of the Susquehanna.
9. View of the Upper Falls of Solomon's Creek, Lucerne county, Pa.
10. View of the Lower Falls of Solomon's Creek.
11. View of the Catskill Mountains, from the Hudson.
12. View of Fort Niagara on Lake Ontario, from the Light House on the British side.

These views are executed in the best style of Philadelphia engraving, from drawings made upon the spot. Each plate will be accompanied by a full and accurate description thereof, as to make it perfectly intelligible to every person.

The work will be printed and issued to subscribers in the first style, on superior paper, and with a handsomely printed cover, and delivered to subscribers at the very low price of ONE DOLLAR. Flexible covers will be used for country subscribers, so that they can be safely sent by mail.

☞Any gentleman, postmasters and others, who will interest themselves to procure ten subscribers; and remit $10 to the editor, shall receive twelve copies. From the very flattering patronage already received (1200 subscribers have put down their names) this volume will probably be succeeded by another, as soon as other plates can be engraved. All orders from the country will be promptly attended to.

Two Hundred Dollars Reward.

THE following Criminals broke the Jail of Baltimore County on Thursday night the 30th of October, to wit:

THOMAS WARD, one of the mail robbers, aged about 35 years, 5 feet 10 inches high, raw boned, light hair and blue eyes, has a large scar on his neck, believed to be on the right, or perhaps both sides, still somewhat sore occasioned by the king's evil. Ward having been wounded by the guard when robbing the mail, it is probable that marks of the wound may be discovered on his breast, and one of his fingers, believed to be the middle finger on the right hand—He is a native of Pennsylvania, and his family are said to live between Baltimore and Pittsburg, near Styestown, Pa. Ward at this time is in delicate health.

WILLIAM ANDERSON, alias THOMAS BRYSON, aged about 30 years, 5 feet nine inches high, a native of Ireland, dark complexion, hair and eyes, a few pits of the small pox, a down look, especially when spoken to, with a broken or hollow nose.

HOWARD EASTON, 19 to 22 years old, 5 feet six inches high, light complexion hair and eyes, small person, and has the appearance of a youth.

ELBERT EASTON, brother to Howard Easton, description same as Howard, as far as can be recollected, supposed one or two years younger—both natives of Montgomery County, Maryland.

The above reward will be paid for the apprehension and delivery of the above mentioned prisoners, or Fifty Dollars for each, with all reasonable charges, if taken out of this state, or secured in any jail in the United States.

DIXON STANSBURY,
Warden Baltimore County Jail.

Nov. 15

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Sunday morning the 21st inst. a mulatto fellow who calls himself ABRAHAM SULLIVAN, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, straight and well made, with rather a down look when spoken to, but polite and attentive.—For the last eight or nine months he has been employed as a waiter, in the Easton Hotel by Mr. Peacock. He had on when he ranaway a fox coloured hat blue cloth coat, corduroy pantaloons and new shoes.—There is little doubt he will change his clothing as he took a variety with him.

Whoever will take up said Runaway and deliver him in the Jail in Easton, Talbot county, (Md.) shall receive a reward of Fifty Dollars, if taken in this State or the State of Delaware—if taken out of the above States, One Hundred Dollars reward will be given.

WM. H. GROOME, Agent for Isabella Smyth.

Easton, Oct. 4—tf

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY on Saturday night last, a negro man called DANIEL, who is about 32 years of age, five feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a dark mulatto colour, has broad shoulders and broad face, is rather lusty and well made, has large white teeth, his eyes are of a reddish colour, and when he is spoken to he has a smile on his countenance. Daniel was hired out in Easton, and went off under pretence of going to Camp Meeting, and there is reason to believe that he was accompanied by a negro man, the property of Mrs. Smyth, who was also hired out in Easton, and is of a chesnut colour and rather tall. I have no knowledge of what clothes Daniel took with him, other than a blue jacket and fur hat nearly new It is more than probable that these negroes will make their way either to Delaware or New Jersey. The above reward will be paid for apprehending Daniel if taken out of the State, and Fifty Dollars if taken in the State and lodged in Jail so that I get him and all reasonable expenses paid if brought to Easton and lodged in Jail.

EDWARD O. MARTIN.

Head of Wye, Talbot co. Md.
Sept. 27, 1828.

20 DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber on or about the 15th of April last, a negro woman who calls herself MARGARET—she is about 23 years of age, stout and well made, rather light complexion for a negro.—The subscriber understands the above negro has made her way to Baltimore, where she has no doubt hired herself as a free woman.

Whoever takes up said negro and secures her in jail so that the subscriber gets her again shall receive the above reward.

THOMAS D. MONNELLY.

Chappel, Talbot county, (Md.) Oct. 4, 1828.

☞The Baltimore American will copy the above 4 times and forward the account to this office for collection.
