POETRY.

THE TRUMPET.

[BY MRS. HEMANS.]

The trumpet's voice hath roused the land,
Light up the beacon-pyre!
An hundred hills have seen the brand,
And waved the sign of fire!
An hundred banners to the breeze
Their gorgeous folds have cast:
And hark! was that the sound of seas?
A king of war went past!

The chief is arming in his hall,
The peasant by his hearth;
The mourner hears the thrilling call,
And rises from the earth!
The mother on her first-born son
Looks with a boding eye;
They come not back, though all be won,
Whose young hearts leap so high.

The bard hath ceased his song, and bound
The falchion to his side;
E'en for the marriage altar crown'd,
The lover quits his bride!
And all is haste, and change and fear,
By earthly clarion spread!
How will it be when kingdoms hear
The blast that wakes the dead?

Caroline County Court:

ON THE EQUITY SIDE THEREOF
MARCH TERM, 1829.

Philip S. Derochbrume, petitioner against William B. Tillotson surviving Administrator of Jacob Dyett deceased, & Alexander Dyett, the son and surviving heir & devisee of the said Jacob Dyett, defendants.

Petition & exhibits.

The petitioner in this case states that the said Jacob Dyett late of Caroline co. deceased, was in his life time, possessed of some personal estate, and seized and possessed of some lands and real estate, lying in the Co. aforesaid, and died so seized and possessed that he left a will directing his property to be sold for the payment of his debts, and the benefit of his widow and three children, that his widow & two of his children, are dead, that the said Alexander Dyett is his only surviving child, an infant in foreign parts, out of the State of Maryland, and the jurisdiction of Caroline County Court, that the said Wm. B. Tillotson is the surviving administrator of the said Jacob Dyett, that the personal estate of the said Jacob Dyett is insufficient for the payments of his Debts, that his lands and real estate have not been sold as directed by his will, that he was considerably indebted at the time of his death, and that his estate is now indebted to the petitioner in the sum of one hundred dollars, and more, and to others in sundry sums of money—The object of this petition therefore is to obtain a decree for the sale of the said lands and real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the said debts.

It is thereupon, this 11th day of March in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and twenty nine, ordered and adjudged, by Caroline county Court, sitting as a Court of Equity, that the said petitioner, by a publication of this order in one of the Newspapers published in Easton, in Talbot county, three successive weeks, before the first day of June, in the year aforesaid, give notice of the said petition and of the object thereof warning the said Alexander Dyett, the absent defendant, to appear in Caroline County Court, in person or by guardian, on or before the thirteenth day of October next to shew cause, if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed for.
