POETRY.

From the American Manufacturer.

THE IMPRISONED.

He started from his sleep. The chain
Clanked on his stirring limb,
The fatal truth came back again,
Like an echoed curse to him.
Chained and alone—his proud heart rose,
Like a tided river then,
And his curse went forth, as the Samiel goes
To the doomed abodes of men.

Ye've bound your gyves upon the hand,
And fettered down the form,
And trampled on the freeman's land,
With his father's blood yet warm.
Ye've bound me where the sun is not,
Where the star-light never falls,
But ye humble not the kingly thought
That mocks your guarded walls.

The soul—the godlike soul is free,
Its glory is not dim,
It gathers sterner energy
From every tortured limb.
Dream ye that feelings nursed as mine—
Are touched by human ill?
The form beneath its chains may pine,
The soul is mighty still!

And heavier ye may bind the chain—
My spirit shall not quail,
Though madness revel on my brain
The heart shall never fail.
Ye cannot crush—it for the deep,
And burning sense of wrong,
Through every weary hour, shall keep
Its thirst of vengeance strong.

That sleepless vengeance! It will come—
A whirlwind upon earth.
The dungeon-stone—the very tomb
Shall send its summons forth.
The injured spirit sleepeth not,
It may not be confined—
The tyrant's hand hath never wrought
A fetter for the mind!

NOTICE.

WAS committed to the Jail of Kent county on the 15th inst. as a runaway by Robert B. Pennington Esq. a Justice of the peace for said county, a Negro Man who calls himself THOMAS, but as he speaks little or no English, I cannot understand by what sirname he calls himself, said negro appears to be from 35 to 40 years of age about 5 feet 3 inches high, quite black, and tolerably well made, he speaks the French or Spanish language altogether and I cannot therefore understand from whence he last came, although he seems quite anxious to communicate. Had on when committed an old cotton and woolen kersey round about, blue pantaloons old fur hat and coarse shoes, from his appearance I would suppose he had been a sailor.

The owner of said Negro (if he has any) is requested to come forward, prove property pay charges, and take him away, he will otherwise be discharged according to law.

PROPOSALS

FOR A NEW PAPER

George Town D. C.

ENCOURAGED by the liberal offers of support, the subscriber has purchased the interest of the present proprietor of the Columbian Newspaper, printed in this town, and proposes to commence on the 1st July next, the publication of a new paper, under the title of the Columbian Gazette, and respectfully solicits the aid of his personal and political friends in the undertaking.

The Columbian Gazette will appear three times a week, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, on Imperial paper of the best quality, and with entire new type, at $5 per annum, and will be devoted to the topics usually embraced in a public Journal.

In politics it will be decided; it cannot be expected that it will support an Administration which has deprived the subscriber of his office without any cause. The Editor will, however, express his opinions in a candid and respectful manner, and will not be unmindful of the high responsibility he assumes.

The latest foreign and domestic news and commercial information generally will have a due share of attention.

A portion of the Gazette will be allotted to extracts from new and interesting publications.

In short, the Editor wishes the paper to speak for itself, and hopes it will be conducted in such a manner as to deserve patronage, his unremitting exertions at least will be used to that end, and he does not and will not ask support longer than he shall merit it.
