POETRY.

SUBTRACTION BY JOHN.

One Winter's day, when threshing corn
Alone, he thought, within the barn,
Well fill'd with cares his head;
Perplex'd and in a thoughtful mood,
Upon his flail shaft leaning stood,
And to himself he said:

From two—take one and three remains,
From two—take two, and four's the gains;
And three from two, leaves five;
If this goes on, my master's cow
Will ne'er be paid for that I know,
Whilst him or ma's alive.

The master, unperceived, was near,
And did with due attention hear
This strange conclusion drawn;
Not comprehending by what rule
They were produced, for he at school
Had ne'er such problems known.

What rule is that, said he to John,
You ground these propositions on;
Says John, Subtraction, sir—
Prove that, says Hodge, and as I live
To thee the cow I'll freely give,
Ere from this spot I stir.

Four years ago, my wife and I,
Were bound by wedlock's sacred tie—
None were more blest than we;
And ere the second year begun,
These arms embraced my first-born son,
Then one—from two, made three.

Another year roll'd o'er my head,
My wife again was brought to bed,
Thus two—from two, made four;
'Twas then the cow you kindly sold,
Which has been worth her weight in gold,
And is so to this hour.

Another son in one year more,
Increased my stock of living store;
Thus three—from two, made five:
The cow is thine, said Hodge to John,
I freely own she's fairly won—
Long may she live and thrive.

FOR A NEW PAPER
George Town D. C.

ENCOURAGED by the liberal offers of support, the subscriber has purchased the interest of the present proprietor of the Columbian Newspaper, printed in this town, and proposes to commence on the 1st July next, the publication of a new paper, under the title of the Columbian Gazette, and respectfully solicits the aid of his personal and political friends in the undertaking.

The Columbian Gazette will appear three times a week, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, on Imperial paper of the best quality, and with entire new type, at $5 per annum, and will be devoted to the topics usually embraced in a public Journal.

In politics it will be decided; it cannot be expected that it will support an Administration which has deprived the subscriber of his office without any cause. The Editor will, however, express his opinions in a candid and respectful manner, and will not be unmindful of the high responsibility he assumes.

The latest foreign and domestic news and commercial information generally will have a due share of attention.

A portion of the Gazette will be allotted to extracts from new and interesting publications.

In short, the Editor wishes the paper to speak for itself, and hopes it will be conducted in such a manner as to deserve patronage, his unremitting exertions at least will be used to that end, and he does not and will not ask support longer than he shall merit it.
