The (N. Journal, Chronicle & Marylander, & Easton Gazette,) will publish the above, and send their accounts to the Centreville Times Office.

THE Subscriber, being impressed with the belief, that a Seminary for boys, embracing a limited number of Pupils, and furnishing instruction in the several branches of science and literature, demanded in a course of early education, in which, also, the strictest attention shall be paid to the morals, manners and health of the Pupils, would meet with the approbation of a number of enlightened parents, and believing that in no otherway he can employ himself so usefully, as in endeavoring to give a right direction to the early education of our youth; has taken a commodious mansion in the neighbourhood of Princeton, N. J.; and will open a Seminary for boys on the 2d of November, next, the principles and plan of which, the following articles will serve to explain.*

1. The number of Pupils will be limited to FORTY.

2. No boy above twelve years of age will be admitted into the school.

3. Pupils may remain connected with the school until they have attained the age of Sixteen years. To remain longer than this period, an application must be made to the Principal, and a new contract entered into. Any Pupils, thus permitted to remain, will, however, always be included in the Forty, to which the number of Pupils is limited.

4. No boy will be admitted, whose moral habits are known to be such as will prove injurious to the Pupils already in the school; and if the system of government and instruction fails to restrain a Pupil from such vices as exert a prejudicial influence upon the school, he shall be privately dismissed.

5. The Pupils will all be under the care and control of the Instructors, at all hours;—eating with them at the same table, sleeping under the same roof, and in all respects constituting one family. The discipline of the school is intended to be mild and affectionate—entirely of the paternal kind.

6. The Pupils will be advanced, as rapidly as the circumstances will permit, in the knowledge of such branches as will fully prepare them for a collegiate course, or for mercantile life. For this purpose, the Principal will provide competent teachers, of the first respectability, who shall instruct in the ancient and Modern languages. and in all other branches of science or literature, that can be advantageously attended to by the Pupils, according to their respective ages and destinations.

7 The plan of the Institution will require, that the Pupils be entirely secluded from intercourse with other boys.

8. The most particular attention will be paid to the health and manners of the Pupils.

9. The FIRST object of the system pursued in this institution, shall be the formation of good moral character. the SECOND, the cultivation of the mental faculties, as they develope themselves: and the THIRD, to form the manners of the Pupils, so as to render them at once simple and dignified in their deportment.

10. Religious instructions will be sedulously attended to, but none of the peculiarities of any one sect shall be inculcated.

11. The bodily exercises will be of such a character, as to promote the health, contentment, & manly deportment, of the Pupils. Every unnecessary exposure to present injury, or future disease, will be carefully avoided.

12 The year will be divided into two Sessions, including the vacations. The Winter Session will commence on the 1st of November (the 2d, if the 1st be Sunday,) and continued 23 weeks. The Summer Session will commence on the 1st of May, (the 2d, if the first be Sunday,) and continue 23 weeks. The Pupils may remain at the school, during the vacations, without any additional charge.

13 The charge for each Pupil will be THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS per annum, payable semi-annually in advance, at the commencement of each Session: and in no case can this rule be dispensed with. This sum will be in full for all the tuition, of whatever character, which the school embraces; for boarding, lodging, washing, mending, fuel, and light.

14. In order to avoid the trouble and expense which the parent or guardian would otherwise incur, in providing bedding, books, stationary, &c., and to prevent the usual additional charges for the use of maps, globes, library, and other privileges, which the parent or guardian had not anticipated, because not usually comprehended in the main charge, the sum of TEN DOLLARS shall be paid by each Pupil, at the commencement of each Session; for which sum, he shall be entitled to the use of bed and bedding, of all the class-books adopted in the school, of the necessary stationary, of maps and globes, of the library, and any cabinets or collections, or other privileges attached to the school.

15. The parent or guardian will have no additional bills excepting only for clothing procured by his direction for the Pupil; for travelling expenses to and from the school when advanced by the Principal; for postage and for medical attendance, if at any time it should become necessary

16 The parent or guardian, will thus be able to ascertain exactly the expenses of the school, before he places his son or ward in it; and will not be surprised by an additional bill of expenses, not contemplated in the original contract, amounting, in some schools, to Thirty or Forty Dollars, per annum, for books, of which the Pupil can make little or no use when he leaves the school; for extra-ordinary tuition; for polite accomplishments, and for gymnastic and other privileges.

17. The parent or guardian, may withdraw a pupil from the school WHEN EVER HE PLEASES; and all monies over-paid will be refunded — Such Pupil cannot, however, be again admitted except upon the same grounds as a new applicant.

18. As certain success cannot be insured, by any course of education, however wisely planned, or faithfully executed, all that the Principal can venture to promise to parents and guardians, is, that while every occasion of idleness and temptation to vice, will be removed out of their way; all practicable efforts will be made to promote the improvement of those committed to his care.

19. All letters of business or inquiry, relating to the school, must be addressed (POST PAID) to the Subscriber, at Princeton, New-Jersey—who is EXCLUSIVELY devoted to the management of its concerns. ROBERT B. PATTON.

N B. It is particularly requested; that the boys who come to the school, have all their clothes marked with their respective names.

Princeton, N. J. July 10, 1829.

*Note. Mr. Patton retires from the office of Professor of Languages, in the College of New Jersey, at the next commencement, for the Purpose of taking charge of the contemplated Seminary. August 22, 3t.

To Printers and Publishers.

THE Subscriber having added the Manufacture of moveable type to his Stereotype establishment, respectfully solicits a share of the patronage of the Printers of Pennsylvania and the adjacent States.

Having a practical knowledge of printing, and also having been longer practically engaged in the business of Stereotyping than any other person in the United States, he hopes to be able, from such experience, to give satisfaction to those who may favour him with their orders. From an intimate acquaintance for a number of years, (nearly eight,) with the business of type founding, he hopes to be able to produce type equal to any offered to the printers of the United States.

His prices, though low, will of course be the same as others in the same business. Nor will he attempt to violate truth, or insult common sense, by pretending to any "increased facility in the manufacture," (for there are no other facilities' at present in this city, than there, were 12 years ago, when type were from 40 to 50 per cent. higher than at present,) nor have the 'materials used in making printing types been so greatly reduced,' as to bear any proportion to the reduction in the prices of type.—But the reduction has been 'induced by competition, and an over bearing disposition in some of those founders who have grown rich on the heretofore enormous profits on type.

All sizes of type, plain and ornamental, for book and job printing, from 14 lines Pica to Nonpareil constantly on hand in such quantity as to supply any order at short notice. In the choice of Book letter, pains have been taken to select such faces as are generally approved for symmetry, neatness and durability.

He also keeps a complete printers' Ware house, (the only one in this city,) and can furnish a complete Printing Office at very short notice.

The following are his PRICES at a credit of 6 months, for approved notes or acceptances—or a discount of five per cent will be made for cash:—

Six lines Pica and all larger,	$ 30	Long Primer,	40
Double Pica to 5 lines Pica,	32	Bourgeois,	46
Great Primer,	34	Brevier,	56
English,	36	Minion,	70
Pica,	36	Nonpareil,	90
Small Pica,	38	Leads,	30
		Quotations,	30

The prices on ornamental and fancy type have been reduced in a greater proportion.

Old type received in exchange, at nine cents per lb.

A Book of Specimens will shortly be published.

STEREOTYPING will be done at the lowest prices, in the best manner, as heretofore.

Publishers of Newspapers in the States of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North and South Carolina and Georgia; who give the above 3 conspicuous insertions, shall be entitled to $2 50, payable in type, or in settlement of account.

THE LAST DAY OF GRACE.

——— Ye Powers!

That Dreadful note!—DAY OF DOOM.

I awoke in the morning before the usual time. My sleep had little of quiet. I dreamed of Duns and Deputy Sheriffs. I was no better off when awake, for my note was to be paid off by two o'clock, and my pockets were empty. I put on my clothes. Dressing is bad enough at any time; but dressing when you have a note to pay before night is horrible. Every thing goes wrong. You fasten the wrong buttons, stick pins in your flesh, and twist your clothes villainously out of shape.

At breakfast nothing was better. The coffee was scalding hot; the toast fell into my lap, buttered side down, (Nankeens on.) No appetite. Felt dispeptical.—Thought of my note—at two o'clock it must be paid.

"I have a whole forenoon at least before me," said I, as I sallied forth, intending to make a desperate effort to raise the money by borrowing. "Mr. Q.——— my dear friend, I have four hundred dollars to raise this forenoon, all of which I must borrow."

But Mr. Q———, had no cash. As to money, it was all sunk to the bottom of the sea, he believed. The banks would not discount. Horrible words! I had as lief hear it thunder, as "the banks won't discount."

So I went to Mr. X. and Mr. W. and Mr. Z. Not a dollar. Hard times—People failing; banks won't discount.

"Then nothing remains for me," said I, "but to go to Sharp the broker." This was a worthy who assisted needy gentlemen at critical times, out of pure friendship.

The rascal knew I was in search of him as he stood talking with some body at the corner of Congress-st. I shambled about near him, now trying to catch his eye, and now glancing at the dial in the Old State House, the hands of which moved with a fearful rapidly towards the point beyond which there was no salvation of credit. What could he be talking about so long? It was strange he could not see me.

After waiting a long time, I succeeded in catching him as he pretended to be moving off. "Mr. Sharp," said I, "have you any money to-day?"

"Not a dollar. I overdrew my cash account at the bank yesterday. Never saw such a time for money."

"If the thing be possible," said I 'I should like to have a note cashed."

"Ahem?" said he, "money is money now. I have a sum to raise myself, but if you are in urgent want of this——"

"So much so," answered I, "that if it were for my own particular use, I could not want it more."

"I think" said he, "that I know a man who can do it for you, a particular, acquaintance of mine—very particular I dare say, thought I) I'll step over the way and see him. Call on me in ten minutes."

"Very well," said I, and walked off.

My worthy friend saw me out of sight and then went into his office, and sat down. Presently I came in. I knew very well what he was about to say.

'I have been to see the person I spoke of,' said he, "but could not find him.—Wait a moment, and I will try again?' I sat down, and Mr. Sharp walked up the street, took a turn round the old State House and came back.

'Ah, I have found him' said he, 'but he is so short of money'—)I looked at my watch.)

Cannot he do it at all, asked I.

'Why ye-es, but he demands fourteen per cent for cashing your note at thirty days.'

I looked at my watch again—it wanted ten minutes of two, I looked at my obliging and conscientious friend. 'There is no remedy' thought I, 'when a man is between the devil and the deep sea.' Here is my note, Mr. Sharp.'

'You have made so hard a bargain with him,' said he, "that I ought not to demand any thing for my trouble.' ('How generous,' thought I.) But as I must provide for my family'—(your family must be horse-leeches,' thought I, 'if they want providing for at this rate,') 'I must say five dollars for my trouble.'

There was no remedy again, so five dollars more went. I got to the bank one minute before two. Coming a way I saw a great monster of a dog, with a poor miserable half starved puppy under his paw, squeezing the breath out of his body.

'There's a broker and his customer,' thought I. Boston Mer.

TETTER WORM.

After I had the tetter nearly twenty years on my hand, and had used dollars worth of celebrated tetter ointment, which took off the skin repeatedly without effecting a cure, a friend advised me to obtain some Blood Root (called also Red Root, Indian Paint, &c.) to slice it in vinegar and afterwards wash the place affected with the liquid. I did so, and in few days the dry scurf was removed, and my diseased hand was whole as the other.
