POETRY.

THE FARMER.

By Thos. G. Fessenden.

Let monied blockheads roll in wealth,
Let proud fools strut in state,
My hands, my homestead and my health,
Place me above the great.

I never fawn, nor fib, nor feign,
To please old Mammon's fry,
But independence still maintain,
On all beneath the sky.

Thus Cincinnatus at his plough,
With more true glory shone,
Than Cæsar with his laurel brow,
His palace and his throne.

Tumult, perplexity and care,
Are bold ambition's lot:
But those intruders never dare
Disturb my peaceful cot.

Blest with fair competence, I find
What monarchs never can,
Health and tranquility of mind,
Heaven's choicest gift to man.

To Literary Gentlemen.

The Editor of the Ariel respectfully solicits the attention of the gentlemen to whom this is sent, to the following brief proposals.

The number of the Ariel, which is now sent to you* is the last that has issued from the press, and is accompanied by two splendid copperplate engravings, illustrative, the one, of an interesting scene in Cooper's celebrated novel of the Pioneers—the other, of an equally remarkable incident in Scott's novel of Guy Mannering. All the embellishments to the Ariel are of the same costly & beautiful description, got up at great expense, and surpassed by those of no other literary periodical in the Union. Every third number contains an engraving.

The subscription-price to the Ariel is fixed at the very small sum of $1 50 per year—for which two hundred and eight pages of matter are furnished, together with eight copperplate engravings, equal in every respect to those which accompany this number. An immense patronage in every quarter of the United States has been bestowed upon the work, sufficiently attesting that the public considers it worth the small sum which is asked for it.

A few copies of the present volume, complete from No. 9, can yet be furnished: that is from August 22d. 1829, to May 1, 1830—at which time a new volume commences. For this period of eight months, there will occur six of these beautiful illustrations, which of themselves are worth three fourths of the price demanded for the whole eight months. The price for the above-named term, including the six engravings, will be $1:

If any gentleman, postmaster, or other, will exhibit this number to his friends, & interest himself to procure but five subscribers, at $1 each and remit the amount to the Editor, a sixth copy shall be regularly sent him for his kindness every other Saturday, with the papers for other subscribers.

The number of spare copies on hand is small. It is, therefore, desired that those who may order five copies, should advise the Editor by the earliest mail. The papers from August 22d will be sent on immediately, carefully secured in strong wrappers, and the succeeding numbers as they are published.
