"Jackson to the back bone"---or that he is "of his own kidney." These exquisite qualifications for office, are peculiar to the present administration of the general government; they are the genuine fruit of the principles upon which it set out; principles which addressed themselves at once to all the bad passions and vulgar spirits of the country---which offered a premium to political subserviency and corruption and is fast introducing that state of public immorality and indifference to principle which has ever been the precursor of the downfall of Republics.---*Del. EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, (MD.)

Saturday Evening, Nov. 28.

There is something imposing in the following extracts in relation to the Jewish nation, and regard it as we may, we cannot repel the serious thoughts that will arise upon the contemplation of the subject.

Baron Rothschild is known as the richest man in the world—he is a Jew. Nothing could be more opportune than this purchase to the Grand Turk. It will enable him to pay off the million and a half of ducats said to be due under the former treaty to Russia—to meet the indemnities required by Russia under the late treaty at Adrianople, which are so monstrous that the contracting parties forbear to mention the amount in the treaty of peace, leaving that matter for a secret treaty; and will leave Turkey in possession of a large balance, as a piaster is said to be about eighty cents, which will repair her losses and refit her broken fortunes. Moreover, Baron Rothschild intends convoking all the Jews of the world to the ancient seat of Jerusalem, followed by all their wealth; by which he will not only unite them in one community, under their ancient laws and usages, as far as practicable, but will no doubt realize a great sum of money in selling out partitions of the purchase to the Jewish nation.

"The following is an extract of a letter, published in the Court Journal, on the subject of the purchase of Jerusalem by Baron Rothschild:—

"King Rothschild.—The following curious extract is from a private letter from Smyrna. We give it without note or comment:

"The confidence of the children of Israel in the word of the Prophet has not been in vain; the temple of Solomon will be restored in all its splendour. Baron Rothschild, who was accused of having gone to Rome to abjure the faith of his fathers, has merely passed through that city on his way to Constantinople, where he is about to negotiate a loan with the Porte. It is stated on good authority, that Baron Rothschild has engaged to furnish to the Sultan the enormous sum of 350,000,000 piasters, at three instalments, without interest, on condition of the Sultan's engaging for himself and his successors to yield to Baron Rothschild for ever the sovereignty of Jerusalem and the territory of ancient Palestine, which was occupied by the twelve tribes. The Baron's intention is, to grant to the rich Israelites who are scattered about in different parts of the world portions of that fine country, where he proposes to establish seigniorities, and to give them as far as possible, their ancient and sacred laws.

"Thus the descendants of the Hebrews will at length have a country and every friend of humanity must rejoice at the happy event. The poor Jews will cease to be the victims of oppression and injustice, Glory to the great Baron Rothschild, who makes so noble a use of his ingots.

"A little army being judged necessary for the restored kingdom, measures have been taken for recruiting it out of the wrecks of the Jewish battalion raised in Holland by Louis Buonaparte. All the Israelites who were employed in the various departments of the Dutch Administration, are to obtain superior posts under the Government of Jerusalem and the expenses of their journey are to be paid them in advance."

It is to be expected that the speculation of Baron Rothschild will turn out better than King Mordecai's of New York, with his grand scheme upon the Grand Island. What an ineffably ridiculous attempt at fraud!---Yet Mordi went on---it made no odds. If Mordi could not fool the Jews he found others that he could, and so he is now one of the verriest of the verriest, receiving a salary of three thousand a year, the wages of sin, the sum with which he has purchased the right to a place in the Potters Field of reputation---yet these are the kind of men selected as public officers of trust—These are the kind of men whose appointments we are called upon to approve---These are the kind of men against whom if we speak, we are proscribed, and branded, and outlawed, and abused.

Portugal.---Capt. Sise, at New York, from St. Ubes, Oct 22d, states that Lisbon was illuminated on the nights of the 14th, 15 and 16th, and great rejoicings took place in consequence of the acknowledgement of Don Miguel as king by the Spanish government. Lisbon had become quiet, and more confidence was felt in the stability of Miguel's Government.

The New York papers contain the following copy of a decree of the President of Mexico, abolishing Slavery throughout the whole extent of that Republic.

DECREE.

"The President of the Mexican United States to the inhabitants of the Republic, Greeting:

"Desiring to signalize in the year 1829 the Anniversary of our Independence, by an act of national justice and beneficence that may turn to the benefit and support of such a valuable good; that may consolidate more and more public tranquility; that may co-operate to the aggrandizement of the Republic, and return to an unfortunate portion of its inhabitants those rights which they hold from nature, and that the people protects by wise and equitable laws, in conformity with the 30th Art. of the Constitutive Act.

"Making use of the extraordinary faculties which have been granted to the Executive I thus decree.

"1st. Slavery is for ever abolished in the Republic.

"2d. Consequently all those individuals who until this day looked upon themselves as slaves, are free.

"3d. When the financial situation of the republic admit, the proprietors of slaves shall be indemnified, and the indemnification regulated by a law.

"And in order that the present decree may have its full and entire execution, I order it to be printed, published and circulated to all those whose obligation it is to have it fulfilled.

"Given in the Federal Palace of Mexico on the 15th of September, 1829.

VICENTO GUERRERO.
LAURENCE DE ZAVOLA.
(From the Sol.)

The ship United States, 675 tons burden which was built in New York about three years ago, has been recently purchased by the Emperor of Russia. He visited Cronstadt on the day that Capt Struthers, of the James Monroe, left that port, and was so much pleased with the United States which was then loaded and ready for sea, he immediately offered to purchase her, and took her master, Capt. Wilson, and young Mr. Barker with him to St. Petersburgh to receive payment.—He pronounced her the finest vessel he had ever seen, and intends to use her as a model, after which she will be sent to the Black Sea.

SAM PATCH'S DEATH.

A letter to the editor of the Albany Daily Advertiser, dated Rochester. Nov. 18th, says—"Sam Patch is no more! He made his last leap from a scaffold erected on the brink of the falls, this afternoon. The staging was elevated twenty five feet. He sprung fearlessly from it, and descended about one-third of the distance, as handsomely as he ever did. He then evidently began to droop, his arms were extended, and his legs separated; and in this condition he struck the water and sunk forever! It was a fearful leap, and fearfully has it terminated. The prevailing opinion is that he became lifeless ere he reached the water. He had drunk freely in the morning, but was not apparently more overcome than he was on Friday last. It was truly a solemn scene, where so many thousands were witnesses to an immolation, which had its origin only in an effort to satisfy the craving appetite of human curiosity. Sam's last request, as I understand, was that the funds collected, should be sent to his mother, if his adventure should terminate fatally. His body has not yet been found. The height of the Genessee Falls, down which he jumped, is 100 feet. The staging was 25 feet above the falls; the distance which he descended was therefore 125 feet."

The following article on this subject from the Albany Argus, leaves no room to doubt the fact of the man's having thrown his life away foolishly.

A slip from the office of the Rochester Daily Advertiser, dated Saturday, Nov. 14th, contains the following.

Shocking event!—Sam's last Jump:

Thousands collected yesterday to witness Sam Patch's "last Jump," as the bills expressed it—and an awful leap it was! He never rose with life!

A stage, 20 feet high, had been erected on the edge of the falls, which made a descent of about 120 feet to the surface of the water in the chasm below. Sam apparently lost his balance—struck the water in a side long manner—and disappeared to rise no more! Such a shocking result had a strong effect on the immense crowd. After waiting in breathless anxiety for some time, the multitude dispersed with feelings which can be better imagined than described. The corpse is not yet found.

CHEAP TRAVELLING.

The Editor of the New York Courier describes a recent jaunt in one of the North River steamboats in these terms:—

"Only fancy four hundred and fifty Christian men, women brats and bandboxes all crammed into one boat, puffing, squalling, scolding and fighting for their "found," which said word, being interpreted meaneth bread, potatoes, pig, beef and brandy. Such a crowd in so small a space does away all individuality---a man does not know whether he is himself or something else: "Me and the he-goat," says Billy Lackaday, "did'nt "know which was which" All that a "one dollar and found" man knows, is that he is part of a great many-headed monster compared with which the Siamese boys are nothing at all. We saw a woman toss off a stiff glass of brandy and water at one gulp, and smack her lips like a Kentucky stage-driver. She evidently mistook herself for the red-nosed old reprobate who sat beside her. However, she got a glass of grog by the mistake.

It is utterly impossible for a man to travel up and down the Hudson River without feeling like a rascal. "Evil communications corrupt good manners" and of all evil communications there is nothing more essentially diabolical than being jammed by 450, one dollar and found, men. A man inhales wickedness and snuffs iniquity all the while. He becomes savage and looks like a cannibal. Two hours before dinner yesterday the seats in the dining cabin were possessed by a set of wild fierce looking men determined to have the first touch of the edibles. It is said that they ate one little fellow, who ventured among them, by way of a lunch—certain it is, that he went down into the cabin and was never seen afterwards. However, one little fellow would hardly stay the appetites of four hundred and fifty one dollar and found men.

Once in a while you meet with a few decent men in a steamboat, "rari nantes in gurgite vasta" of the noisy crowd. There were four gentlemen on board yesterday one of whom was the Grecian dog Apollo, His dogship appeared quite scandalized at the conduct of his fellow passengers, and did not wag his tail or bark once. There were other dogs at dinner that barked repeatedly. It is a fashion introduced since the reduction of prices---and pretty generally adopted by the majority of locomotive "found" men. But there are other improvements among travellers. One lady yesterday had a basket of hens which she put in another lady's birth where they were "found" at bed time. The hen proprietor stated that it was not convenient to carry the coop and so she put the cacklers in a basket. She intends bringing her pigs to New-York next week per steam-boat.

De La Monterat's Columbian VEGETABLE SPECIFIC

For Coughs, Colds, Consumptions and Pulmonary affections of any kind.

FOR SALE AT THE DRUG STORE OF DR. SAMUEL W. SPENCER.

De La Monterat's Columbian Vegetable Specific has stood the test of experience and proved itself the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the cure of Consumption and pulmonary affections of every kind.

The following certificates just received from a highly respectable gentleman will show its value.

GENTLEMEN—I feel it my duty to acknowledge the great benefit I have derived from the use of De La Monterat's Columbian Vegetable Specific. I do not like to speak of the Medicine in the exalted terms in which I estimate it, I will therefore briefly as possible, give a history of my own situation, with the effects produced by this valuable medicine. I have been for the last five or six years labouring under a pulmonary Consumption, pronounced to be such by the attending Physician, during which time I have consulted many Physicians. Taken much medicine, but all to but little purpose. The 12th of March, 1828, I puked blood for the first time, and continued so to do for several days in succession, and on the 14th of the same month, was confined to my bed, where I lay for two months until I was reduced to such a state of debility, that my friends began to despair of my recovery. I had made use also of all the popular remedies without benefit, and having accidentally heard of this Specific I determined to give it a trial, anticipating from the use of it, no better result than had attended the use of all the remedies I had taken; but in this I was happily disappointed. At my very lowest state I commenced the use of this specific, I took the first dose at night in a little herb teasweatened, which threw me in a gentle perspiration & procured for me a good nights rest. I continued to take the medicine, as directed, and in about five days my cough was completely stopped and have not had any return since. I am now perfectly satisfied of the superior quality of this specific over every other medicine offered for the cure of the above disease. You are at liberty to use this letter in any way you may think proper. Yours respectfully,

Signed JOHN R. ELLICOTT.

Lancaster County, Pa. March 5th, 1829.

Messrs Boyd & Higgings,

COPY.—The following certificate is received from an agent in N. York, which is from a respectable lady of that city.

SIR—To withhold from public knowledge a manifest fact of the utility and perfect cure affected by the use of De La Monterat's Columbian Vegetable Specific, would be ungrateful, as long as it is a duty incumbent upon every one to facilitate the comfort of the afflicted. caught a most violent cold which affected my breast and lungs so much, I could scarcely speak for nearly three months at the same time accompanied with frequent discharges from my lungs. I had recourse to many medicines without the least effect, when upon hearing of the above specific I was induced to obtain some of it, and procured one bottle which afforded me considerable relief. I purchased the second, and before using the two-thirds of the bottle, I was restored to perfect health. I am fully persuaded it has not its parallel in the world, for the cure of those afflicted with asthma coughs, or other consumptive affections.

(Signed) SARAH A. PEALE.

New York, September 2d 1829.

DR. CHAPMAN'S ANTI DYSPEPTIC OR SOUR STOMACH PILL.—The following certificate is from Dr. Walter C. Cohen, late member of the American Philosophical Society, &c.

I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of Dr. Chapman's Anti Dyspeptic Pill, as a remedy for Dyspeptia, and the experience I have had from using them in my practice for several months past, fully convinces me that they are equal and in many cases superior to any preparation I have ever known. And in all cases where the stomach and bowels require evacuation by the intervention of a cathartic, they are in my opinion the most convenient and efficacious pill of any in use. At the same time being safe and easy in their operation
