The Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural Society for the Eastern Shore, with the view of purchasing a Stallion of the first sinew, order, as well for their own accommodation, as to improve the breed of that noble animal throughout the Eastern Shore, by will stand at Easton, every Tuesday & Wednesletting him to mares on such terms as would day at Mr. Ridgaway's stables, at St. Michaels, enable every farmer who had a good brood every other Saturday, and will attend the above mare, to avail himself of his services, have for places hroughout the season, the remainder of some time past held a correspondence with the time he may be found at the subscribers some of the most distinguished breeders of hor- stable. ses in the country, and after examining the characters and qualities of the many valuable stallions recommended to their attention, hav purchased & offer to the public the celebrated

This horse is a beautiful mahogany bay, sixteen hands high, and combines beauty of form with great strength, fine action, and perfect docility of temper. To the lovers of fine horses for the turf, saddle, or quick draft, they feel much pleasure in recommending him, being confident that no judge can see and not admire

This horse, with his dam, was purchased by General Callendar Irvine of Philadelphia, from the Hon. John Randolph of Virginia; his pedigree will be seen to be equal to that of any horse of the country, by the following extract of the time at the Subscribers stable, and will from the letter of Gen.
