Thomas Franklin was Applied to to Survey and Lay out the Same that on his Attending for that Purpose he began to Run from Some Trees which this Deponent understood were the Beginning trees of Executors management and run the Distance of twenty Perches to the best of his knowledge and Belief on the Reverse of the giving Line of Executors Management and there marked three White Oaks and a Chesnut tree for the beginning that Part Sold this Deponent the Stump of Which Chesnut is now Standing the White Oaks are Decayed and gone. but that they stood about four feet to the E'E of the said Chesnut Stump and further this Deponent Saith not Sworn before me Luke Johnson one of the Commissioners the 20th day of November 1782 William his mark Sinkley

Baltimore County Ss The Affirmation of Aquila Carr one of the People called Quakers Aged Seventy two Years Solemnly Affirmeth and Saith that forty Years Ago or thereabouts he this Affirment run the Land Called Executors Management and begun at a Rounded white Oak and Red Oak which Stood on the East Side of a run Called the Round Cabin run on the Side of a hill near to the place Shewn to the Commissioners and Parties Concerned but think the trees were a little further up the Hill but cannott be Certain as the trees are gone and the place much Altered Since and further this Affirmant Saith not Qualified before Jacob Johnson Aquila Carr one of the Commissioners the 20th day of the 11th month Called November 1782

my Evidence is not fairly taken by the Commissioners I then said I had thought the trees had been higher up the hill but on Recollecting and from circumstances then Appearing I was Convinced the Bounds stood Where I suppose they now are fixed and this I Believe to be the best of my knowledge of the Boundaries of Executors Managmt.
