he was sincere in recommending him to Mr. The Tariff, Internal Improvement, Sem- near and in Biololonka were buried; 500 men ations made at a rise. f om party and local considerations.

Litical tenets, to this day, differ. "toto tado."- curred which brought forth Mr. McLane Up to welve o'clock, on the second day of ernments are in full revolt."

opposition; and with Giles, Gallatin and Ran- with his characteristic ardor and cour- tula, occupied by them, they have erected aand, after holding it for a few years he further who heard it. It was pronounced by many was to be attempted at five points. thereupon, left New York for New Orleans, but was prevented by a decision of the battle might be shortly expected. where he settled himself in the practice of his chair, expressed his regret that the most tions and proclamations of the Governor Gen. possession of it. and commenced improvements he would pursue a moderate and digni- disobedieice will be severely punished. The and sales. It was estimated to be worth over fied course; and what infatuation induc- Governor having convinced himself that in was principally or entirely alluvion and as ed him and them, afterwards to support spite of at preceding prohibition, several per- Mr. Editor: as public property.

ence on the subject with the attorney the department to which he is called with The Vile Governor orders all Polish officers ingston then made his famous "Appeal to principle, or respect the "capacity and chains liately to join their regiments, on pain the People of the United States," against civic virtues" of Jackson, is too much this proceeding of the President: a doc- to expect Mr Mil and is of small stat. ument which, in ability and eloquence, ure and rather esseminate appearance. is almost unparalled; but it did not re- His manners are amiable, and his moral business. has the folgain for him his lost property. Subse- and social character unimpeachable. quently, upon Mr. Jefferson's retirement from the Presidency, Mr. Livingston in · stituted a suit against him, as a privateindividual, for trespass. The case was tried at Richmond, and resulted in Mr. The packet ship Sovereign, at New York Livingston's defeat. Mr. Livingston's from London and Portsmouth, brings London "Instructions to his Counsel;" on this oc- papers to the evening of the 15th April, incasion are to this day much read and ad- clusive. The following items are contained mired. The Batture question was, how- in a postcript to the New York Commercial ever, tor a long time after much vexed The letters from Dantzic, received on the in the Courts of Louisiana, and we be- 15th in London, contained very interesting lieve it was finally decided, so far as Mr. news from Warsaw. Information had been Livingston's claim was concerned, by received by a mercantile house in Dantzic, from Mr. Livingston claimed. This golden saw, states, that he saw the Russian troops ton turned the attention of his great and in the course of exercise when the letter was juminous mind to Jurisprudence and Pol- despatched, to join the Polish army. The session a thousand times more lasting the communication having been cut off. and ennobling than the treasures which the road from Memel to Rigs, a great number he coveted and toiled for. Mr. Livings- of persons had risen against the Russian troops. ton's course in Congress, since his re-ap- It was reported that the army under General In the Gazette de France of the 16th we find supervisor, the Bishop of the Diocess; a bestow them in the promotion of the Diebitsch was suffering severely from want of this paragraphs. pearance there; is too well known to re- provisions. quire any comment from us. It has French papers of April 19, had reached throughout been marked with strong traits | London .- The Electoral Law was passed in of his early party feelings and notions, the Deputtes on the 12th by a majority of 300 showing how difficult it is even for the The Chamber then took up the subject most capacious and enlightened mind, to granting to the Ministry an extraordinary credreceive new ideas after the meridian of it of 100,000,000 francs-upon which life. His age is sixty-four or five; great- warm discussion ensued. er than that of any Secretary we ever had. He has strong friends and violent pulsive. We shall quote it to-morrow. enemies. Randolph, his old coadjutor. Dutch papers to the 13th of April, had has spoken of him in the Senate, as a reached London on the 15th, from which the "man whom he would not touch but with following supplementary intelligence respecta pair of tongs." His appearance is ing the affairs of Poland is selected:somewhat venerable and imposing; and Warsaw contains among the official articles ty will not be damped by the pacific assurantion, ought to ensure. in manners and conversation, he is affa- two reports from General Skrzynecki, one da- ces of the French Ministers. Prussia has more ble and winning. He will fill the De. ted from the field of battle at Dembe Wielkie, need that France to assume an imposing attipartment of State with dignity and ability the other April 1, 10 P. M. These have been tude." for he writes readily and with grace: and already published from other journals.) is 'acquainted with things of his native counts: land and things of foreign countries."

much later period than Mr. Livingston, They launched at Karezow three boats filled to have been established by the revolutionists. and expectancy" of Federalism. Mr. others to put back. Two of the fire ships It is yet difficult to estimate the loss of the demand repulsion. They call aloud for ford. McLane is the son of Allen McLane, a burnt, the third remained aground; the expio- enemy, which the obscurity of the forest ren- denial even on the part of those, whose May the Protestant Episcopal Church revolutionary veteran, who long reposed sion of the shells was heard for five hours, ders it impossible to make out. 3000 men al- innocence exempts them from the stain therefore who in the case before us is from his toils in the snug birth of the ade had been heard in the direction of Willa-low. If the five ships had not run aground, the control of the prisoners will be more numerous; like the prisoners will be more numerous. the first reformer, did not venture to re- object would still have failed, as every precau- for our seldiers, and the peasants, are bringing appear to be a shadow of application. But in vain. May she not "ask bread from move him from this situation, though he tion had been taken. was one of the most open, decided, and

Edward Livingston is of a distinguished and the administration of John Adams was ly belonging to Poland. such was claimed by the city of New Orleans Jackson we cannot tell. Mr. M'Lane's be delivered by to-morrow, otherwise such number of Russian troops who had thus deserted amounted, it is stated, to 4,000. There are pril. His code of Criminal Law is a pos- in letters from St. Petersburg this morning,

Boston Palladium.

Warsew, April 4.—The State Gazette of

The same paper contains also the Russian ac-

Louis Mc Lane commenced life at a ed to burn the bridge from Warsaw to Praga. be at thehead of the Central Government, said templation. The other Departments are assign- where party distinctions, as in small under the command of the French Colonel ed, by common report, to a number of different communities, are severe and uncom- Romarin, who was in the battle as brigadier Prusian State Gazette, April 8 and 9. dun arobe of the 12th that a letter I'c criveu by

"Paris, Wednesday Evening Ap il 13. "The news of Diebitsch and his army having en taken is confirmed. We can only add, that this intelligence has not reached office at home. [We have no confidence in it.—Com. Adv.

LATEST FROM FRANCE. The Havre packet ship Charles Carroll, arrived at New York at one P. M. on Saturday, brings

The rumor of the capture of Diebitsch and his corps is not confirmed -but the continued success of the Poles on the 1st April is. War- Bishop Hobart.

Paris announcing an insurrection in that city, York, and then its higher guardian and er withheld my means when entreated to this paragraph:-

de Greve, uttering seditious cries. The guards igable industry, and a zeal that nothing my purse was always open, when asked four others were arrested. This miserable at hension, either as to the manner in which her interests may have thought proper tempt ony served to prove signally the inabil- it will be conducted, or the principles to suggest. ity of the disturbers to produce any bad conse-

A royal ordinance for a loan of 80,000,000, was issued by Louis Philippe on the 15th. The Fench journals contradict the story of the attempted escape of Polignac.

Official intelligence of the insurrections in Volhynia and Lithuania had been received.

for the place was so great, and the sev- under these walls, heard at the same time of attack was so impetuous, that the enemy only action. There must be a diligent attenfor the place was so great, and the sevthe beginning of the action & its success. The bad time to save part of his magazine, being tion, and a uniform extension of aid, both obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw, obliged to abandon the rest to us. The most bridge of rags had been covered with straw and the seven covered with straw and the seven covered with straw and the seven covered with straw and the seve

For the Easton Gazette.

of their sailing, the 18th, they saw a letter from general theological seminary in New cause of religion demanded it. I nevman of sincere and unaffected piety, of great and important ends, which the Last evening, some persons clad as workmen, varied and profound learning, of indefat- Church had in view. On the contrary at the town house took arms, and the disturbers can tire or subdue. Such direction plac- for the advancement of her prosperity in immediately fed. The standard bearer and ing the paper at once beyond all appre- any way which the faithful guardians of said to be, that the number of applicants inhabitants of the capital, though all passed bie articles have fallen into our bands. Our There must be fact that in former days martyrs and con-

The new ministry has not been announced, but report speaks so confidently of the appointment, of creating more ended to the State Department, and of Mr. Livingston to the State Department, and of Mr. McLane to the Treasury that we must, until otherwise informed, suppose them either to have been made or to be in contemplation. The other was tearing, of the state of the easy cannot passing of Minak, where we found 1200 wounded Poles of Minak, where we found 12 ed, by common report, to a number of different candidates. The claim of "New England De mocracy" for a Bureau must yield to the claims of Virginia Jacksonism; though, in truth, we of Virginia Jacksonism; though, in truth, we believe that our "Peter" deserves it as well The "era of good feeling" having then Guards the had lately arrived. General Foreign Affairs Many bankers were turned whatever we may do to promote the sucand will bette fill it than the 'Andrew" of commenced, under the auspices of Mr. Strzyneki had a horse wounded under him away, and the Ministers have not yet arranged cess of our temporal prospects, 'tis very Wirginia. The pretensions of Col Drayton for the War Department are in every respect equal to those of Judge White, and the President is appointing him to the War Department, that as brothers, but to take up new measures. The dy before yesterday the dead bodies Change; but there was yet a great many oper- whatever we do in aid and advance-Monroe for the same station. The resignation of Mr Berrien has not yet been made known officially, but is believed to have taken place; for the lete Cabinet came in and must go out.

The Tariff, Internal Improvement, Semprovided with spades were sent for that purpovement, Semprovided with spades were sent for the State of t for the late Cabinet came in and must go out Congress and the nation. Mr. McLane April in he same journal, M. Plichia, Secreta- and Lithuania. General Uminski, who quitted ble, redound to our eternal happiness. 'as a unit." The gentlemen mentioned for took a prominent part in these discussions ry General to the Government who was comthis office, Mr. P. P. Bathour and Mr. Buch-anan, seem to have equal claims to it, both forcible debater. In questions of finance on him, set him just as he had gained a further the Russian Army, and suddenly penetrated in-Mc. ane recall to our memory many and very city, and his labors in the Committee of Captan Leski, aid-de-camp to the Commandivers political circumstances. Their course, until they met upon the common ground of ways and Means were highly valued.— Standard taken on the 1standard taken Jacksonism, was widely different, and their political tenets, to this day, differ, "toto tado."— Curred which brought forth Mr. McLane them, in regard to general politics, can scarceix be expected, unless their political opinions as a champion of old federal principles and paving the state of the last seven misches of cannon taken in the bat le is be expected, unless their political opinions have been re-moulded to suit their interests; a circumstance which rarely happens to any men of their area and character. It may be well to of their age and character. It may be well to leries, while the electoral votes were o- cers of derent ranks A very great number very important ntelligence of a revolution in ness of the kingdom of heaven; and takremind our readers of a few passages of their pened and declared. The practice in of the prisoners are from the provinces former- Brazil. The troops had joined the people—all ing this expression in the sense of the Gosly belonging to Poland.

The Warsaw Gazette has the following arperor. Don Pedro, had abdicated in favour of pel with all its attendant blessings, it beaspiring democratic family in New York.—In relied upon as a precedent, which led to ticle:—In the night of the Russians his son, a child about seven years old. This comes a matter, which should engross all the year 1795 he was elected a Representative on attack when the relied upon as a precedent, which led to ticle:—In the night of the Russians his son, a child about seven years old. This comes a matter, which should engross all the year 1795 he was elected a Representative on attack when the relied upon as a precedent, which led to ticle:—In the night of the Russians his son, a child about seven years old. This comes a matter, which should engross all the year 1795 he was elected a Representative on attack when the relied upon as a precedent, which led to the relied upon as a precedent that the relied upon as a precedent to th the year 1795 he was elected a Representative an attack upon the policy of that admin- attempted to pass the Vistula at Siekierki measure, however, did not quiet the public the thoughts, the feelings, and the hopes in Congress from that State, which station he in Congress from that State, which station he istration. The Debate soon took a wide near Czarniskow, but their design was frustra- mind, and the Emperor had fled, having got of man. But abstracting all consideraheld till the year 1801. Though young, he was distinguished as one of the champions of the little per carried by the bare of the harbour. It is because of the harbour. It is a consolation arise. It is a consolation arise it, the bare erected as the harbour. It is because of t A revolution has taken place; the Emperor ing from the exertion of effort, and the dolph, he entered the lists against Otis, Bayard age, sent defiance, into the democratic cons, the passage over the river at the same has abdicated in favor of his son. He is at this has abdicated in favor of his son. He is at this cons, the passage over the river at the same has abdicated in favor of his son. He is at this cons, the passage over the river at the same ferson to the Presidency, he was "rewarded" this speech is well recollected by those with the office of District Attorney in N. York; this speech is well recollected by those harbor. It is impossible in our present state. was to be sttempted at five points.

| was to be sttempted at five points. | harbor. It is impossible in our present state. | cumstance. And chequered as life is not present state. | cumstance. And chequered as life is not present state. | cumstance. | "rewarded" himself by appropriating to his to be one of the ablest speeches ever made 5.—According to the latest accounts, the severown uses more than a hundred thousand dollars in Congress. Mr. McDuffie, who was eral Russin corps had collected in great force has been a plot long brewing and for want of is no moment during its whole continuous of government money. As soon as this defat. of government money. As soon as this defal-cation became known he was removed; and he burning with impatience to answer it, between faluszyn and Siedice, and a decisive turity. Great confusion and alarm prevail through- row, when the mind cannot look back out the city. The Portuguese residents are in upon such acts with the sweetest trans profession, the law. His success was com- able and eloquent vindication of federal eral. Le reminds the inhabitants that the law process was com- able and eloquent vindication of federal eral. Le reminds the inhabitants that the law process was com- able and eloquent vindication of federal eral. Le reminds the inhabitants that the law process was com- able and eloquent vindication of federal eral. The reminds the inhabitants that the law process was com- able and eloquent vindication of federal eral. mensurate with his great abilities. Before the close of Jefferson's second term, he had obtained, by purchase, the title of a French family to the New Orleans "Batture," had obtained a decree in favour of his right to it, had taken possession of it. and commenced improvements be would pursue a moderate and dignic.

The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the present state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of siege, and that now more than ever, all depends on the punctual without reply. Mr. McLane, with machine the ready to take the field at the first signal, and the smallest iness is of course at an end.

The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is still in a state of anarchy is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the Emperor all the property is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the property is allowed to continue. The troops attached to the property is allowed to continue that the property is allowed to continue the property is allowed to continue the property is allowed to continue the property is allowed to con when he was carried down into the depths and "the sea weeds were wrapped a-I must beg leave to call the attention | bout his head." Let is be remembered, recent course in the Senate and as Minis- persons shall be shot, in conformity with an of the members of the Protestant Epis- that it was this which drew the stripling The city authorities remonstrated to the ter to England present nothing remark- article which be has himself ordered to the copal Church, through your Gazette, David into the field, and inspired him President against Mr. Livingston's pre- able. He has the respect of all parties, & military code. He also requires a large quanti- to a paper lately established in the city with courage to engage the Philistine, tensions, and the President after confer- will undoubtedly, discharge the duties of ty of stray for the army in Warsaw and in of New York, under the name of "The Goliah, a man of gigantic size, in the full Churchman." It is edited by a gentle- maturity of strength and years, and who, general, issued an ejectment against Mr. great ability, so far as he may be left to and soldiers belonging to the camp in the field man of distinguished abilities, but its gen- it was told him had been a warrior from Livington, which was directed to the his own free action. But that he can who cannot justify their remaining in Warsaw eral direction is entrusted to the Right his youth. Twas this which gave a Marshal, and duly enforced. Mr. Liv- harmonize with Livingston in political by a written permission of the Governor Gen- Reverend Benjamin T. Onderdonk, who force and a power to the eloquence of has been thought worthy in all respects | Paul, that made Felix tremble, and drew to succeed the late lamented Hobart .- | from Agrippa the confession "almost thou come a most interesting and userui peri- inis, which in the ages of savage cruelty odical. Its leading object, to adopt the and persecution, made the rack a bed of language of its prospectus, is, "as a reli- down, robbed the faggot of its terrors, gious work, to disseminate religious and shed a radiant light over the dark intelligence, to elucidate christian doo- and dreary cells of the prison house. And trine, and to explain and enforce the 'tis a pure branch of this same church, principles and precepts of evangelical "founded upon Apostles and Prophets," piety. With this view it will be particu- which now solicits the assistance of such ly devoted to the interests, in every de- of its members as are scattered throughpartment, of the Protestant Episcopal out this peninsula. And happy will that Church; and accordingly will maintain man be, who shall not be found turning Paris papers to the 16th ult inclusive, three and set forth, and when necessary, defend a deaf ear to her petition! Happy will he days later than the French accounts by the way those principles and that policy, which be, while reflecting upon all the good he had the well known, warm and decided had done throughout his life at that tryapprobation of the venerable and beloved ing hour when the short span of human existence shall have been almost run out Livingston's claim was concerned, by Warsaw, that the 95th Regiment of Russian saw accounts to the 2d are received. The bulletin given below of Gen. Szrynecki, of the op- be promised by any persons nor indeed taking nor any other of kindred interest from France, whose original title was ed and joined the date of the commercial house at Dantzic, in War-ditional particular. The rumor of Diebitsch's this scheme, of which the benefits are inshall be able to reproach him with cold-tended to be exclusively religious, than ness, and neglect; but who on the other vision having at last faded, Mr. Livings. arrive. They had marched from Grotia, and loth ult. but. according to the Gazette de tended to be exclusively religious, than ness, and neglect; but who on the other France of the 16th, had no other foundation the talents ensured for its execution, will hand shall have it in his power to exthan supposition—the courier from Warsaw fully and faithfully accomplish. To be claim with different feelings and in a difhaving brought nothing later than the 2d A- sure of which it is needful only to look at ferent strain, "I never refused to lend Capt. Clark, of the Charles Carroll, and a its immediate editor, a gentleman who my assistance, either in this case or passenger, both reported that on the morning graduated with the highest credit at the any other that I know of, when the

which it will inculcate, nothing is want- Whatever means I may have had in ing but the liberal encouragement of the my possession, whether small or ample, members of the church; and it is to them | they were still not mine, but the property particularly that a call is now made for of the great father of the universe, who had that share of their patronage, which the confided them to my care to be disposed The Brlin news of April 5 states that "fif- sacred object in view, together with the of "for good." In the application of them teen thousand Prussians are about to enter Lux. virtue and talents enlisted for its prosecu- therefore for the benefit of any scheme or schemes, which may have had in view It is a charge frequently alleged against the general dissemination of the pure and country, that they are too lukewarm; that disposal of them which I was bound that their lives but ill accord with the to do, and thus I restored them to him, who Berlin . pril 5 .- The Grand Duke Michæl fair professions they make, that they is their rightful owner; to whom belongs has Marcled, with 4000 of the Guards for Lith- do not assist the church to which they the earth, and the fulness thereof, the March 31.—Last night the Russians attempt. uania.—The Castilian Count Plater is said to belong, in a degree proportional to its beasts of the forest, and the cattle upon a wants, of their ability, that their sons and thous and hills." Other motives than from a very different political starting with combustible, one of which had also sev- HEADQUARTERS, 1st April.—At Demly daughters are permitted to grow up in those which have been mentioned, might point; though he has now overtaken him which it was supposed would prevent any advanced mentioned, might be urged in support of the truly behevepoint; though he has now overtaken fills in the race, and reached the same goal. When they look back upon their course, when it should be set on fire. Several boats they will laugh at themselves, or at the they will laugh at themselves, or at the they will laugh at themselves, or at the they should reached the same goal. When it should be set on fire. Several boats of which he first was beaten at Wauwer, and the themselves, or at the the second at Demly Welki. Lubienski's cave to religious matters than any other peopublic, who in time past, viewed the one to set the fire ships affoat if they should run alry, rusted upon the Russian infantry, in spite ple. If these things be true, which I am obligations of duty, and the consolation as a superagnuated and retired demran aground, and the shells beginning to burst and lett: at every charge destroying batthey ought to be so no longer. They any subsequent period of life will af-

them in constantly. The 4th Cuirassiers took it must be carefully borne in mind, that her children, and yet be condemned to April 1.—The success of yesterday is from theenemy three standards, which I send mere words will not be sufficient for the receive a stone," but on the contrary may was one of the most open, decided, and influential federalists in Delaware. The federalists in Delaware. The federalists in Chief, which were executed sons, many wagons, travelling medicine equip sons, many wagons, travelling medicine equip been spread abroad and gained currency. The such rapidity and secrecy that even the ages, several thousand muskets, & other valua-