BALTIMORE MARKET.

November 16, 1850.

GRAIN.—Wheat.—The supplies of Maryland and Virginia Wheats were small in the early part of the week, but within the last day or two have increased. Prices have been steady at 80a100 cts. for ordinary to good reds, and 100a105 cts. for good to prime. Sales also of white Wheats at 105a108 cts., and family-flour white at 110a115 cts.

Corn.—Prices have been steady throughout the week at 61 cts. for old white, and 62a63 for old yellow. To-day there is a demand for the English market, and the supply being small prices have improved.

Oats.—Sales have been made throughout the week at 34a38 cts.

TOBACCO.—The demand for both Maryland and Ohio this week, which has been quite active, has been confined entirely to speculators and for manufacturing purposes, the high prices on this side, and the absence of corresponding prices on the other side, having the effect of keeping shippers out of the market. We note sales of 400 hhds. good ordinary Maryland at $6.50, being a slight advance on former rates. We, however, do not alter our quotations which are as follows: Common Maryland $5.50; good common $6; brown $5.50a7; and fine brown $7a10. The inspections of the week are 180 hhds. Md., and 206 hhds. Ohio—total 386 hhds. The total inspections this year are 39,049 hhds. against 43,792 hhds. to the same period last year.

New and Rare Assortment of FALL AND WINTER GOODS

JUST RECEIVED,

At the Store-house formerly occupied by Taylor & Co., and opposite the Farmers' Hotel.

COMPETITION being the life of trade, the undersigned respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally, that he has opened a New Cheap Cash Store in Port Tobacco, in the House formely occupied by Taylor & Co. where he would advise his friends to repair if they desire to spend their money to advantage. It is morally certain that he can and will sell as low, if not lower than any other country store in or out of the county. He is now offering a large and splendid assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, Crockery, Tinware and a great variety of Fancy Articles, which it is needless to enumerate, as those who are interested will of course call and examine for themselves.

To the Ladies' department he has devoted his special attention and can say to them, that he has the most splendid, durable and fashionable collection for their benefit that ever was offered in this place. He most earnestly and respectfully solicits them to give him a call.

Gentlemen may also be assured that Cloths of the most unexceptionable quality, fashion and color in all their varieties, Cassimeres, Casinets, Vestings, Neckties, Hats, Caps, Hosiery, Boots, Shoes and Slippers, and every other article in their line, will be furnished on the most accommodating terms.

He has also on hand all the staple articles for domestic use, viz: Cottons, Calicoes, Woollen Osnaburgs, Blankets, &c.

Also an extensive and excellent supply of Groceries, such as Sugars, brown and loaf, Molasses, Cheese, Brandy, Whiskey, Rum, Port, Madeira and Champagne Wines, Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes, &c. &c.

LYNE SHACKELFORD.
Port Tobacco, Nov. 20, 1850.

NEW GOODS
AT THE NEW CASH STORE.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to his friends and the public that he has just received a large and well-assorted stock of which will be found equal to any offered in Charles county, and will be sold on such terms as shall fully sustain the well known reputation of the CHEAP CASH STORE.

FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

LEWIS WEEKS.
Port Tobacco, Nov. 13, 1850.

Come, for all Things are Ready AT MY NEW STORE,
AT OWENSVILLE.

I HAVE just received a large and desirable stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS, embracing nearly every description of ladies' and gentlemen's wear, servants' clothing, &c. My Groceries were purchased when at a much lower figure than they can now be obtained at, in anticipation of the present rise. My stock of Boots and Shoes have been selected after the most careful examination of the different markets, and I think will compare favorably, as to price and quality, with any market.—Farmers and others in want of coarse Brogans and Boots, will do well to give me a call before buying elsewhere. The above, with all the other varieties of goods kept in a well-assorted Country Store, I have in such quantities, qualities and prices as must command attention by all who will favor me with a call. I wish it distinctly understood, that my goods are for sale, and no man, woman or child, need go empty away for the want of a price to suit.

Thankful to the public for the indications of favor received, I assure them that nothing shall be wanting on my part to merit their increased patronage. J. H. MONROE.
Owensville, Nov. 1850. [nov 13—tf.]

COME TO THE OLD OAK TREE!

WHERE the people come to make their shillings tell upon the destinies of their children; as a wise man has said "a penny saved is two pence clear." We need scarcely notify our numerous customers who are coming by the dozens, that we are now opening one of the LARGEST and CHEAPEST STOCKS OF GOODS ever brought to the Bumpy Oak, but for the information of the hitherto incredulous, we would say, come and examine our stock of and if we don't make your shillings go as far, or a little farther than any other house, then has our invitation failed to meet our expectation as well as yours.

Thankful to a liberal public for their patronage, we respectfully solicit a continuance of the same, assuring them that we will endeavour to do them good. MONROE & BRO.
Bumpy Oak, Nov. 1850. [nov 13—tf.]

SERVANTS FOR SALE.

I WILL sell at private sale, upon accommodating terms, two lots of valuable

YOUNG NEGROES,

among which are several very likely boys and girls from ten to fifteen years of age.

Sept. 25—tf. JAS. F. STONE.

NOTICE.

THE Public is hereby cautioned not to credit my wife, Elizabeth B. Leland, on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting, she having voluntarily left my bed and board.

ENLARGEMENT
OF THE Baltimore Clothing Emporium.

THE subscriber begs leeve to inform his friends and the public generally, that in order to accommodate his increased business, he has been compelled to take the adjoining store, and united the two. By this arrangement he has more room to sell his clothing, and to show his goods to better advantage than heretofore. From a number of year's experience and attention to business he is better prepared to suit his customers, by having a larger assortment of clothing and a better stock of goods to make up.

Ladies wishing to purchase garments for their sons are requested to call and examine the stock of boys clothing on hand; or they can have them measured, and the goods made up at the shortest notice, in the most fashionable style and substantial manner.

He has now on hand and intends keeping a general assortment of Men's and Youth's Clothing, of all qualities and grades.

He will be enabled to keep a much larger stock of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings than heretofore.

The Customers' Department is under the management of a practical and experienced Cutter, who has given general satisfaction.

☞ Persons wanting either Ready-made Clothing or Custom Work will find it to their advantage to call on him, as all articles furnished at this establishment are thoroughly shrunk before being made.

ASHBURY JARRETT,
Nos. 10 and 12, N. W. corner of nov 6—3m. Baltimore and Front Streets.

$200 REWARD

THE subscriber will give the above mentioned reward for the apprehension of slave MOSES, so that I get him again. Moses was purchased of WILSON DENT about July last, and ranaway shortly after that time. He is supposed to be lurking about the neighborhood of Allen's Fresh. He is about twenty-eight years of age; five feet, eight inches high, stout built; complexion tawny.

BALTIMORE PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTORY,
ELASTIC UNIVERSAL TOUCH.

WISE & BROTHER, Manufacturers of BOUDOIR, GRAND and SQUARE PIANOES, request those who would be assured of a first class Piano, that ladies can perform on with the greatest possible advantage—one that the touch can be instantly adjusted to the exact strength of the fingers and movement of music—one that will stand in concert tune—one that the tone will not become shrill and grating, that is chaste of style and elegantly made up of straight and regular curve lines, that will last an age—to give them a call. The ancient standing of the Baltimore Factory and liberal patronage of citizens and others of the first order of artistic taste and science, concede at once the most critical have been fully anticipated. Their recently finished Grand Piano, minutely reviewed by the most accomplished civil engineers and master artists, and denominated truly a GRAND PIANO; also, that their late BOUDOIR, for style, power and compass of tone, is not surpassed, if equaled, in the world. Friends and customers, please call and examine for yourselves.
