Lib.r No. 6.

Ware Pole before Mr. Starkeys Ware that it shall be given to Ignatius Warren, Secondly I give unto Mr. Derby Flanagan the feather bed bolster and pillow two wood Blankets and Rowrings and the best pair of Sh[illegible] that I have my Chamon colloured Suit and one pair of ne[illegible] ed Stockings and my new gray hatt the two best Doublets Shirts that I have Eighthly I give unto

4 John Wheatleys Eldest Daughter the second Cow Calfe that falls of all my Stock the next Spring. Ninthly I do give all my female Cattle and their Encrease for Ever to be disposed of by my forest Executors as they shall think fit unto Charitable uses which may be most to Gods honour the Stock to be preserved and the Profitt to be made use off to the use of a school, if he shall think convenient, and for the Male Cattle that are or that hereafter shall Encrease I do give to the aforesaid use reserving to my aforesaid Executors the priviledge to kill for their own use some of the Male Cattle the better to Enable them to do Charitable office Profiuming that they will make no Waste contrary to this my Will and all the profit of my Estate to be disposed of as aforesaid to Good uses as they shall think fit, Tenthly I do give unto Mr. Flanagan one Cow to be delivered at my Death. Eleventhly I do give them power to appoint at their Death some other faithfull person in their stead whom they shall think fit with the same power as they or he hath, Twelthly My desire is if [illegible]y shall think Convenient that the Schoolle be k[illegible]pt at [illegible] and that the Cattle may be in the [illegible] John Warren

5. upon S[illegible] ment as my Executors shall make Provided that this [illegible] do not hinder them from doing a greater good to the Honour of God otherwise which I do leave absolute in their power and [illegible] their discretion, Thirteenthly If Barnaby Jackson do make a fair account with my Executors that then I do give him and acquit him from all the Debt due unto me for the Labour of my three Servants, and I do give and appoint unto him the Labour of William Ramsay and George Sprowe Untill St. Andrews day next Ensuing the Date hereof Provided that he shall give them Sufficient apparell during the time and for 3 months following

(and)

Lib.r No. 6 and also pay unto David Thomas 5 Barrells of Cru at my Death 2 Barrells Barrells of Corn he shall have at John Gry=noways and one Barrell [illegible] halfe of John Warren. Further more it is my will that after u[illegible] death John Warren shall have all my Seat of Land Lying a[illegible] Stowe Containing four hundred and fifty acres more or less and my Servant William Ramsey for 7 years paying yearly one thousand pound weight of good sound Merchantable leaf Tobacco & Casks for Eight years unto my Executors the Sd. William Ramsey is to be delivered unto him upon St. Andrews Day next Ensuing the date hereof, and his first payment of the Thousand pounds of Tobacco and Casks shall be made the next Crop following according to the usuall times of payment in this Country In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 8. aprill 1653.

Edward Cotton

Testes John Pike
Walter Sekes

That this is the true Will of Edward Cotton was attested and sworne unto by John Pike and Walter Sekes before me the

6. Governour this 22 of aprill 1653. John Pike
Walter Sekes

Jurat Coram me the day and —
Year above Written Wm. Stone C.

Nid my last Will and Testament I make In the presence of God and in presence of the Witnesses here under Written in perfect Memory and Understanding this 18 of January

I give my Soul to God my — 166[illegible] Maker by the merritts of Jesus Christ my Saviour and Redeemer — and my body to the Earth, to be buried in [illegible] Christian Manner and all my Worldly Goods [illegible] my now Wife Dorothy and Sonn Richard to be Equally divided betwixt them and in Case Either my Wife or my Son Richard dye then the Survivor to have all.

Debts owing to me

Mr. Walter Hall — 350
More the said Mr. Hall did Promise to me for Polor Summer 050

(John)