December Term 1824

Curtis's Creek thence running with and bounding on the tide water of said creek to the first beginning containing and laid out for fifty acres of land more or less and that I have caused to be made thereout the sum of fifty dollars current money which I have here ready to render to the said James Roper in part of the cost and charges in the said writ of fieri facias specified and I further certify that the said Edward Hurn and Harriet his wife have no other goods or chattels or any lands and tenements in my bailiwick by which I could cause to be made and levied the residue of the cost and charges in the said writ of fieri facias specified or any part of such residue as by the said writ I am commanded So answer William O'Hara Shff.

Test Th. Harris clk