thereof until many years after the first possession thereof by the said Lammot and until a short time before the institution of the said action of ejectment and when did he first set up such claim or interest whether the said Bowly did not admit in his life time that he had derived some benefit or advantage from the sale of the said land to the said Lammot as aforesaid by the payment in part of debts due from him and others to the said Gough or otherwise and finally whether the said Bowly has not admitted in his lifetime that the said Lammot was entitled in equity to hold the said land purchased by him as aforesaid against any claim of the said Bowly and further that subpenas may issue directed to the said heirs of the said Bowly that is to say to the said Mary Thompson and Anna his wife Charles Megman and Sarah his wife Peter Megman and Rebecca his wife William Hollins and Eliza his wife William L Bowly Frances A Bowly and Samuel H Bowly that they and each of them be required to appear and make full answers in this behalf in this honourable Court on a day therein to be stated that they may be decreed to release all right title and claim or supposed title in and to the said land purchased and possessed by the said Lammot as aforesaid which may at law now exist or remain in the said heirs of the said Bowly unto these complainants and that these complainants may be righted and relieved in all and singular the premises according to equity and good conscience and that the defendants may stand to observe and perform such order and decree therein as the nature of the case requires and shall seem meet unto your honors and as in duty bound &c.

Daniel Lammot Elizabeth Lammot

John Purviance, Nath.l Williams Sol.r pro Compt.

On this twenty first day of May eighteen hundred and seventeen personally appeared Daniel Lammot and Elizabeth Lammot before me Clement C Biddle Esquire Notary public for the commonwealth of Pennsylvania duly commissioned and by law authorized to administer oaths and affirmations residing in the City of Philadelphia and made oath on the Holy Evangelists of almighty God that the facts and statements set forth in the foregoing Bill are true to the best of their knowledge and belief. In Faith and testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my notarial seal of office the day and year first above written

(Seal)

Clement C Biddle Not Pub.

The Exhibits marked A.B.C.D.E.H & K referred to in the foregoing bill of complaint are as follows, to wit:

(Exhibit A) In the name of God Amen, I William Lux of Baltimore Town in the province of Maryland Merchant being in found health of body and of perfect disposing mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and how many casualties may snatch us in a moment to the grave. Do make ordain constitute and appoint this my last will and testament. Imprimis I recommend my soul into the hands of God who gave it hoping through the merits and intercession of my blessed Saviour Jesus Christ to obtain remission of my sins and with him to inherit eternal life and glory and my body to the earth to be decently interred. Item. It is my desire that all my just debts be satisfied and paid and the expenses of my funeral. Item I give and bequeath to my dear wife Agnes Lux for and during her natural life my tract of land and plantation called Chatsworth with the dwelling house and all the buildings and improvements thereon (save and except the rope walk) and I also give her the rents reserved on my lots of land in Baltimore town No 52 leased by me to Thomas Harrison Nath.l Smith John Read and James Smith at the yearly rent of twenty eight pounds eighteen shillings sterling and I further give her one neth third part of my personal estate. Item I give and bequeath to my dear and honored mother Ann Lux fifty pounds common currentmoney (computing dollars at seven shillings and six pence each) annually and every year during her natural life and also the rents reserved on my lot No 44 leased to Simon Wedge Robert Wallis and Thomas Shortiner at twelve pounds currentmoney per annum. Item I give and bequeath to my dear sister Elizabeth Bowly one hundred pounds common currentmoney - Item I give and bequeath to my dear sister Sarah Stewart one hundred pounds common current money. Item I give and bequeath to Agnes Walker one hundred pounds common currentmoney. Item I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Chase one hundred pounds common current money. Item I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Collins one hundred pounds common currentmoney to be laid out in the purchase of a negro girl and boy. I give and bequeath to my dear son George Lux his heirs and assigns my tract of land called Chatsworth lying and being in Baltimore County containing nine hundred and fifty acres but in case my said son should die before he attains of legal age and without issue then I leave and bequeath the said tract of land called Chatsworth to my dear wife Agnes Lux or her assigns to be at her own will and disposal as it originally was (save and except five acres to be laid off in a long square on the south two degrees west one hundred and thirty one perch line being the fifth line from the beginning and that said five acres together with the rope walk and all the buildings and improvements thereon I give and bequeath to my dear nephew and partner Daniel Bowly his heirs and assigns. and I further my will and intention that if my said dear wife should die before my dear son George so that my estate be vested in him and he should afterwards die before he attains legal age and without lawful issue then and in such case I leave and bequeath all that part of my said tract of land called Chatsworth that lies to the northward of a north west line drawn from the beginning trees of the tract of land called Haphazard to Agnes Walker and the heirs of her body lawfully begotten and in default of such issue to Charles Walker his heirs and assigns forever and all the rest and residue of the said tract called Chatsworth I give and bequeath to my said dear nephew Daniel Bowly and his heirs & assigns