agent bearing date at London the twelfth day of September seventeen hundred and twelve and registered in our Secretarys office of our said province together with a paragraph of our instructions bearing date at London the fifteenth day of December seventeen hundred and thirty eight and registered in our land office But before the said Charles Carroll Esq sued out our grant of confirmation for the same he did on the thirty first day of august seventeen hundred and fifty one assign over all his right and title unto four fifths of the certificate of resurvey aforesaid and the land and premises therein mentioned unto Daniel Dulany Esq Doctor Charles Carroll Col. Benjamin Tasker and Charles Carroll son of Daniel their heirs and assigns forever as tenants in common and not as joint tenants and desired that patents might issue in all their names which we have thought fit to condescend unto We do therefore hereby grant and confirm unto them the said Charles Carroll Esq Daniel Dulany Esq Doctor Charles Carroll Col. Benjamin Tasker and Charles Carroll son of Daniel Carroll late of Duddington Manor dec all them the aforesaid two tracts or parcels of land now resurveyed with the surplus included and vacancy added reduced into one entire tract and now called Orange lying in Baltimore County on the north east side of the north west branch of Patapsco river Beginning at the end of the north eighty two degrees west three hundred and nine perches line of a tract of land called Phillipsburgh heretofore laid out for Benjamin Tasker Esq and near to the head of a creek called Kemps creek oftentimes Collets Creek and running from the said Beginning bounding on and with Phillipsburgh the three following courses viz. South thirty eight degrees west forty perches south ten degrees west forty perches south five degrees East forty perches to the end of that line of Phillipsburgh and the head of the aforesaid creek called Kemps or Collets creek thence west twenty perches over the said Creek until it intersects a tract of land called Parkers Haven thence reversing the given line and bounding on the said land north by east forty perches to the end of the east south east seventy perches line of the said Parkers Haven thence still the same course north by east eighty perches to the end of the East south east one hundred and sixteen perches line of a tract called Kemps addition thence bounding on and with said land reversely west north west one hundred and sixteen perches to the end of the north by East twenty four perches line of the said land thence still bounding on said land reversely south by west twenty four perches thence still bounding on said land south west by south eighty perches until it intersects the south East by south ninety six perches line of a tract of land called Copus's Harbour thence bounding on said land reversely north west by north forty perches until it intersects the given line of a tract of land called Mountanys Neck then reversing the given line of said land and bounding thereon north north East ninety perches to the end of the East south East one hundred perches line of the said land thence still bounding on the said land reversely west north west one hundred perches thence north fifty one degrees and thirty minutes west thirty perches to a bounded white oak the beginning tree of a tract of a tract of land called Coles Addition thence bounding on Coles Addition and reversing the given line thereof north sixty four degrees and thirty minutes East fifty four perches thence still bounding on Coles Addition and reversing the line thereof north East eighteen perches to a bounded red oak of the said land thence still bounding on the said land reversely the four following courses viz north by west sixty perches north by west half a point west twenty two perches north west forty perches south west fifty perches thence north eleven degrees East one hundred and fifty perches until it intersects the west by north one hundred perches line of a tract of land called Darby Hale thence reversing the said line and bounding thereon east by south seventy perches to a bounded white oak the beginning tree of Darby Hale thence reversing the given line thereof and bounding thereon north twenty two degrees East one hundred and twenty perches to a bounded white oak of the said land standing in a valley near the head of a glade called Mountanys glade being also the beginning tree of a tract of land called Ensors Chance then reversing the given line of Ensors chance and bounding thereon north twenty degrees East fifty eight perches to the end of the East fourteen degrees south one hundred and fifty five perches line of said land thence still the same course north twenty degrees East forty perches thence north seventy six degrees west one hundred and twenty perches south eighty six degrees west twenty four perches to the end of the East thirty two degrees south one hundred and thirty nine perches line of the aforesaid Ensors chance thence bounding on and with Ensors Chance reversing the said line north fifty eight degrees west seventy perches until it intersects the north sixty eight degrees East sixty two perches line of a tract of land called Gants Addition thence bounding on and with Gants addition north sixty eight degrees East fifty perches to the end of the said line and also the end of the south sixty eight degrees west sixty perches line of a tract of land called Goreuches Folly thence bounding on and with Goreuche's Folly reversely and running still north sixty eight degrees East sixty perches thence still bounding on Goreuches Folly reversely the two following courses viz north ten degrees west one hundred and forty perches north thirty degrees