public houses in Detroit are overrun with them, and the books are filled with names several days before they can pos sibly take their departure. Three thousand at least, says that paper, have landed on the wharves since the opening of the navigation.

THE GREAT SHIP.—The following particulars in relation to the "big ship" the Pennsylvania, now on the stocks at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, have been communicated for publication by a sail maker in the U. S. Navy. Some of the newspapers have suggested that the government establish a school for the instruction of apprentices as seamen,—and if the suggession should be thought worthy of consideration, might not the Pennsylvania be fitted out for the pur pose of aiding in the plan.

Arrival of the frigate Constitution.—The New York papers announce the arrival at that port of the U. S. frigate Constitution, Commodore Elliott, having on board Mr. LIVINGSTON, our Minister to France, and his family. She left Plymouth May 17. On coming into the North River, on Tuesday morning, she fired a salute which was returned from Castle William. The Journal of Commerce says—'Mr. Livingston and family came ashore in a lieutenant's barge, under a second salute, and landed on the steps at Castle Garden. A great crowd had assembled on the Battery, who gave the Minister a very cordial reception and accompanied him to the house of a friend at the lower end of Greenwich street. From the steps, Mr. Livingston addressed his fellow-citizens in a brief speech, which was answered by hearty cheers.

'He expressed the satisfaction he felt at the cordial reception which had been given him, and assured his countrymen that during his abscence it had been his constant desire to secure the rights and maintain the honor of the United States. He then withdrew to a window in the chamber, and a friend announced that in consequence of fatigue, it would be impossible for Mr. L. at that time to receive his fellow citizens individually, but it was expected that the Corporation of the city would make a speedy arrangement for that purpose.

'We are glad to learn from the conversation of Mr. Livingston that his return to the United States is not to be taken as an evil omen. Among the reasons for it is the desire to put the President in possession of his views more fully than he could well do by letter. He has not perceived among the people or in the government of France, any hostile disposition towards us.—On the whole, we find nothing to shake our often expressed confidence, that our affairs with France will be brought to a satisfactory and friendly issue. Mr. Livingston will soon repair to Washington, and no doubt government will in some way put the people in possession of the impressions made by his statements.'

Ohio and Michigan.—The question of dispute between these two governments has been settled for the present by the passage of a bill by the Legislature of Ohio, in which that State agree to 'certain propositions,' having for their object the postponement of the question till Congress meets. The State of Ohio it is agreed, shall run the line as originally intended by the Legislature, and then the citizens who reside in the disputed boundary, are to obey the law of Ohio if they approve it; if not, they may resort to the laws of Michigan, & we suppose eschewing both they are to obey neither. After the passage of this resolution the legislature adjourned, first, however, authorizing the Governor to call out the militia and to draw on the treasury for $300,000 if the terms of the compromise should be violated.
Chronicle.

Whig State Convention.—We learn from the Frederick Examiner, that the Whigs in that vicinity approve of the proposition of 'An Eastern Shore Man,' made through the Patriot not long since, in regard to a change in the time of holding the State Convention and suggesting the 20th of August as the more sutiable period.

THE CROPS.—The Norfolk Herald of Monday last says—'We learn that the Wheat crop in the neighboring counties of North Carolina was never better in appearance than at present. In a few places, where the sed was sowed late, it came up thinly; but what grew is uncommonly luxuriant. The Indian Corn is coming on finely, and if the season continues favorable, the product will equal that of any past year.'

[From the Wheeling Gazette June 12.]
The weather for the last two weeks has been remarkably propitious, having been uninterruptedly warm, with frequent but moderate rains. The prospect for an abundant crop of wheat and hay, along the Ohio river to some distance into the interior, was never better. The appearance for an average supply of fruit of all descriptions is favorable.'

[From the Cincinnati Evening Post.
The season, which but a few weeks since was very unpromising, now bids fair to be one of the most productive that has been for many years; even the wheat, about which so much was said and written, of its being nearly all destroyed, will prove to be at least an average crop Rye, oats, and spring barley promise most abundantly; while hay which has been selling from eighteen to twenty dollars per ton, will not be worth eight a few weeks hence. Fruits will be very abundant.

A PETTICOAT PLEADER.—A lawyer pleading a cause against a lady, indulged in a multitude of digressions, which overcame the patience of the lady who interrupted. "My Lord," said she, "here is the case in a single word I engaged to pay to the opposing party a certain sum, for a piece of tapestry of Flanders with figures as handsome as your lordship. he attempted to palm upon me a wretched daub, with figures as ugly as the counsel opposed to me; am I not released from my bargain?" This comparison which flattered the vanity of the judge, completely disconcerted the opponent, who had no reply to make, and the lady gained her cause.

HAIL STORM.—The Carlisle Expositor of Tuesday last says:—"On Friday evening a violent hail storm passed over South Middleton township, in this county, doing considerable damage to the wheat fields, and most of the crops.—In several houses the windows of one side were broken Kidderminster Factory was injured much by the glass being broken.'

The Philadelphia National Gazette of Saturday last says—We learn, with deep regret, that the venerable Chief Justice Marshall remains very unwell, at his lodgings in Walnut street.

Under the same decree I will also offer at public sale on the premises on Thursday, the 16th of July next at 3 o'clock P.
