Lawyer and Judge, JOHN MARSHALL—and unite with the bar of the U. States in a monument commemorative of that truly great and good man?

There could be no doubt of it in any honest and generous mind—Hear what Henry Clay himself says, what, in his opinion, the Whigs of the United States ought to do—unite on Daniel Webster and defy the Office holders,—the intriguers; the low minded prejudiced. creatures of the country. Could Henry Clay as a patriot, a statesman, a man of truth and honesty say any thing else? As a man of honor & gratitude could he do less? Like a wise man—like a great man, he scowls and scorns at the idea of party names, and by gone party attachments being thought of as grounds of applause or disapprobation at this time—he knows that none but groveling minds can yield to such influences—he sees the insincerity of all those who profess, pretend, or indulge such unworthy sentiments.—But hear, read his own words.

DANIEL WEBSTER.

The prospects of Mr. Webster assume daily a more encouraging—the most encouraging—appearance. In admitting his unwavering integrity, his statesman-like eloquence, his intimate understanding of the Constitution and devoted attachment to that sacred instrument—in admitting all these qulifications, the open enemies and timid friends of Mr. Webster, have added daily to his strength and popularity. No one denies his intellectal vigor, his political purity, his personal honor. The mass of all parties repose in him the most unlimited confidence Even the Washington Telegraph, which has for years opposed Mr. Webster, and still opposes him, is compelled to admit that on the two most important topics that will be agitated for the next five years—EXECUTIVE POWER and EXECUTIVE PATRONAGE—Mr. Webster is a Democrat of the old School.

The Urbana (Ohio) Gazette, last received, contains an article which says that Mr. Clay will never consent to be a candidate—RECOMMENDS UNION AMONG THE WHIGS on Mr. WEBSTER—AND RIDICULES THE CONTEMPTIBLE IDEA THAT THE MERE WORD SHADOW—FEDERALIST, IS TO BE THE BUGBAR TO FRIGHTEN THE WHIGS FROM HIS SUPPORT. "The most shallow pated politician," says the Gazette, "any one the least acquainted with the former and present state of political parties, must know that the old lines between the democrats and federalists, so called, have been completely broken up, and that Gen. Jackson has among his supporters thousands of those who were formerly denominated federalist, and furthermore, that he has appointed many of the most strenuous of them to some of the highest offices within his gift. Of what avail then will it be to our opponents to denominate Mr. Webster a 'federalist'? We leave the answer to the reader."

Attention!!! Here, read the sentiments of the New York Evening Post the favourite Press of Martin Van Buren—his organ—a press that bends to his nod and exclusively patronized and supported by his friends—Hear what Van Buren's own press says of the GREAT and GOOD Chief Justice MARSHALL.

IMPORTANT,—For the information of the country, we transcribe the following momentous piece of news contained in an article from "an unknown pen," in the New York Evening Post of Wednesday: "By means of an ingenious special pleading, and attenuated refinement of logical subtleties, with the liberal use of literary gloss and ponderous learning Chief Justice Marshall had well nigh frittered away the constitutional principles of our Government, and artfully despoiled us of all the attributes of liberty."

From the Village Herald

Agreeably to previous notice the Whig Delegates from the several election districts of Somerset county, assembled in Convention, at the Court-House in Princess Anne on last Tuesday for the purpose of selecting four gentlemen to be recommended to the voters of Somerset county, as suitable persons to represent said county in the next General Assembly of Maryland. The following gentlemen appeared as delegates, were registered and took their seats.

From Brinkley's District.—Dr. W. Williams, Maj. T. Marshal, William Sudler, Benjaman Lankford, Henry Ward.

Dublin District—Morris H. Adams, John A. Lankford, Littleton Sturgis, Levitt Wilson, John D. Anderson.

Princess Anne District—Dr. James Stewart, Col. Geo. A. Dashiell, Mathias Miles, Samuel W. Jones.

Hungary Neck District.—James Webster, Littleton Harris, John Leatherbury, Benj Bayly.

Trappe District.—Wm. Whayland, James S Anderson, Noah Rider.

Tyaskin District Benj. Dashiell, Thomas Walter, T B Robertson of Jno.

B. C Springs District.—Jesse Walter, Levin Phillips, Alex. S. D. Evans, Robt. D. Robertson

The Convention organized by calling Col George A. Dashiell to the Chair and appointing S. W. Jones, Secretary.

On motion, it was resolved, that a majority of all the delegate present shall be necessary to the electibn of any candidate, by this Convention.

The Convention then proceeded to select four gentlemen as suitable persons to represent this county in the next Legislature, when the following gentlemen were unanimously chosen.

ISAAC D. JONES, Esq.
JOHN DENNIS, Esq.
DANIEL BALLARD, Esq.
BENJ. I DASHIELL, Esq.

On motion, it was resolved, that the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and the Editor of the V. Herald and the Whig papers of the State generally, be respectfully requested to give them an insertion.

GEO. A. DASHIELL, Chairman.
SAML. W. JONES, Sec'y.

Mr. Randolph's Will.—We learn from the Richmond papers, that the decision of the Court in this case was pronounced on Monday last. The following Judges decided in favor of the Will of 1832, viz.

Judges Saunders, Parker, Field, May Duncan and Estill. The following Judges decided against the Will, viz Judges Smith, Lomax, Scott, Thompson and Clopton.

The Will has, therefore, been admitted to probat by a majority of one. But an appeal has been taken to the Court of Appeals.

By the Will of 1832, the eldest son of Mr. Bryant, who married a neice of Mr. Randolph's, is appointed his principal heir. It supersedes the provisions of the Will of 1822, which had emancipated his slaves, and appointed Bishop Mead and Mr. P. B. Key the Trustees for their benefit. A very elaborate argument may be expected before the Court of Appeals on a question, which has called forth more testimony, and excited more interest, than any other Will perhaps which was ever offered for probat in this Commonwealth.

Another late arrival from Europe presents us with European advices to the middle of last month The American Indemnity Bill passed the French House of Peers by a majority of 103; this bill contains the clause requiring an apology for the language of the President's Message. As the whole tenor, and bearing of this matter has been laid before the French Nation in the excellent letter of Mr Livingston, they must be content with the explanation there given, or seek satisfaction in the usual way,

A large Belgian force was about entering Spain in aid of the Queen, which, with the army nearly ready to embark from England, will soon restore tranquility to that country, and annihilate the prospects and hopes of Carlos.

An unexpected change in the Portuguese Ministry seems to have been caused by the predilections of the young Queen for the son of the King of France, for whom she had taken a fancy in a visit to Paris some time since. A majority of the old ministry, including several of the Queen's nearest relations having other objects in view, opposed the union, but the Queen remained inflexible, and compelled the Ministry to give place to those more favorable to her wishes.

VIRGINIA SPRINGS.—We learn from the Lewisburg Alleghanian, that the crowd at the White Sulphur has increased rapidly. The number there now exceeds three hundred, and daily accessions are made to it from every point of the compass The Salt and Red Sulphurs have between them about one hundred and forty boarders; some fifty or sixty of whom are at the former and the balance at the latter places; and thinks that it would not be exaggeration to say that the number at the different Springs in Monroe, Greenbrier and Bath Counties, exceeds seven hundred.

The celebriety which the Virginia mineral waters have attained, has ranked them among the first in the world, on account of their extraordinary powers in healing some of the most difficult diseases which the human system is heir to. A great many strangers have also passed through this city within a few weeks, wending their way thither.—Richmond Com.

GENERAL HARRISON.—The name of this gentleman has been repeatedly announced as likely to be placed on the Webster ticket, as Vice President The editor of the Cincinnati Whig however, informs us, that General Harrison has authorized him to say, 'that this disposition of his name is made without his consent, and that he is firmly resolved not to permit his name to be ran as vice president, on that ticket, or any other.'
