the president should be made public. Ought not rather every true American to regret, deeply regret, that his country has been saddled with a chief Magistrate who would commit such acts? Were General Jackson the President of the people of this country as a Chief Magistrate ought to be,—and as such were he to suffer in an unguarded moment, some indiscreet expressions to escape him we should deem it improper to make those expressions public. But the case is far different. Gen. Jackson is the open, avowed President of a Party; he puts himself at its head; uses the immense patronage of his station to promote its ends; takes it upon himself to declare how candidates for office shall be nominated, and who shall be the favored ones; and he denounces all who dare oppose his will. He publicly and privately denounces the Senate,a co-ordinate branch of the Government. He has denounced some of the best men in the country in public bar-rooms and on board public steamboats. He is now at the Rip Raps pursuing the same course of conduct, regardless of whom he may have for his auditors;—and the Norfolk Beacon regrets that his unguarded language should go before the public! Indeed it is time the people should have some realizing sense of the true character of their Chief Magistrate. It is time for them to unite upon, not the man he has seen fit to indicate as his successor! but a better man, to be their next President,—one who will not be continually uttering expressions which will require the press to come out, and, in charity regret that they should be made public.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Graham:—

I learn from your last paper that the independent Whigs of this Congressional District, by their delegates in convention on Thursday week last at Centreville, have recommended JAMES A. PEARCE, Esq. of Kent county to the attention and support of the People.—To this let us all cheerfully respond,AGREED—as Mr. Pearce is known to be a Gentleman of fine character and talents—and a man of sound Whig principles.

We hope he will soon be among us, as we are assured from many quarters, that he is one of those men of whom it may be said, "the more you know him the better you will like him."

Yours,

A WHIG.

From the Boston Transcript of Tuesday evening

The Abolitionists were wholly discomfitted as we learn from all quarters last night at Julien Hall. Thompson, the Wandering Insurrectionist, came in, and tried to take part.—He rose and stood for some minutes, when Mr Gurley commented on the disgraceful handbills circulated by his party in England; he then endeavored to interrupt him.—"Shame! Shame!" cried the audience. "Down! Down! Let Mr May answer,if he can.' He tried again and cried out, "Gentlemen, I'm not used to being treated in this way, I assure you." But they fairly shamed him down at last. A Boston audience, we trust, will always have the dignity and spirit to do the like. It is bad enough that this vagabond should be suffered to stir up insurrection in his own discussions. It is but justice to Mr. May to remark that he conducted his part of this discussion in his usual gentlemanly way, though plainly laboring under a bad cause.

BOSTON, July 21, 1835.

You will notice in one of our evening papers an allusion to a curious scene which occurred last evening at Julien Hall. It was the second and last night of a public discussion on the merits of the Colonization Society, to which Mr. Gurley, who is here to procure funds for it, and for no other known purpose, had been repeatedly challenged by Mr. May, of Brooklyn, Con., now an Itinerant Agent of the Anti-Slavery Society, and formerly of this city. Mr. May, by the way, is a gentlemanly man, on the whole—and as temperate as one of his party. The discussion, I am told went on very well, and greatly to the advantage of Mr. Gurley, although the Hall was the home of the Abolitionists,—when it came in his way to allude to the foul misrepresentations which had been circulated through the medium of hand-bills, in England particularly, and here, he added, is a specimen of them, showing one to the audience, and proceeding to make suitable comments. Thompson now showed himself It seems he had come in from his dirty work of insurrection at Andover, for the purpose of showing himself here, where of course by the terms of the debate he had no right to act.—He rose, and stood some time, and repeatedly tried for an opportunity to make a speech, with the insinuation that Mr Gurley misrepresented the case, and so on. He was at length, after much angry protestation, and gesticulation, completely put down by the general outcry of "Shame! Shame!" "Down! down!"—and "let Mr. May answer!" and so on. Not a word would be received from him. This discussion has added to Mr. Gurley's reputation which was high before. He has done well, and what is better I trust he has done good.

From the Louisiana Advertiser, July 11.

Outrage at Vicksburg—Several lives lost.—We have just learned the particulars of this horrible affair reported by one of the steamboats yesterday. It appears that some persons had kept a gambling house at Vicksburg for some time, and as usual in similar establishments, had their pimps and their decoys employed, inveigling inexperienced young men into the lion's den, where they were invariably fleeced of all they possessed, and frequently ill treated by the conductors. The inhabitants, determined to abate the nuisance, had held several meetings, and given notice repeatedly to the offenders to quit the city by a certain time, or suffer the consequences of an outraged community. The day at length arrived when the committee waited on them and told them, that their passage was paid for on board a steamboat and quit they must! they positively refused—the committee retired to deliberate and again returned, but the house was closed, and whilst endeavoring to gain admittance, several shots were fired from the windows, one of which struck Dr. Bodley, the chairman of the committee and caused his immediate death. Another gentleman of respectability was severely wounded, and the rest of the bullets passed through the hats of the other members of the committee. The towns people immediately assembled, broke open the houses, seized five men, the only inmates dragged them to the public square and HANGED them INSTANTER!!! They posted sentries and gave notice that any person who approached them for twenty-four hours would be served likewise. All the money which was of large amount, was piled upon a table before the suspended bodies, and the committee paid it away to all who could prove they had lost money at the house.—About twelve or fifteen persons in connection with the house started for this city in haste to avoid a similar fate. These are the particulars as we have heard them—we shall make no comments upon so dreadful an occurrence, hoping the accounts have been exaggerated.

Since the above was in type we have heard that Dr. Bodley was murdered in the gaming house, after having won a considerable sum of money at the table, which was the original cause of this execution of summary justice, or Lynch Law as it is called. The persons executed were, Mr. North, who kept a tavern, Dutch Bill, his barkeeper, Mr. Samuel Smith, Mr. Collum and Mr. McCall.

From the New Castle Gazette.

OUR TOWN.—The spirit of improvement which prevails so generally throughout our country at the present time, has reached this ancient place. Its effects are already visible in the change which has taken place in the upper and lower portions of the town. In the former situation it is the result of an individual enterprise; in the latter it appears as a part of the operations of the New-Castle Manufacturing Company.' Our citizens are beginning to appreciate the important local advantages which New-Castle possesses in regard to manufactures, and are determined to employ them to the utmost. As extensive as is the successful application of steam power to the numerous departments of manufactures, so great are the facilities which this location offers for their establishment among us. Situated directly upon the river Delaware—a natural Port of Entry—this town enjoys the means of uninterrupted and economical communication with all sections of the Union.—She is thus brought near to the supply of materials of every discription, and to the various markets for her manufactured articles.—By the New-Castle and Frenchtown Rail Road, and the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal she communicates readily with the Chesapeake Bay and it tributaries; while, through the liberality of the same Rail Road Company, access to the town is had upon the fine Turnpikes belonging to the Company, from every quarter.—free of Tools.

Excellent roads conduct to the adjoining fertile lands of Pennsylvania and Maryland, & open out an extensive back country for the abundant supply of Marketing and other produce. Her harbour is justly considered superior to any other upon the Delaware from the Breakwater to the City of Philadelphia; and is of incalculable importance to the commerce of that enterprising city, especially during the prevalence of storms, or in the severity of winter. By special contract between the State of Delaware, and U. S., this harbour is under the care of the General Government, and it is to be kept in order forever by it.—Extensive improvements upon the present works, and several large additional piers are expected to be made during the coming season, under the direction of the Engineers of the U. S. Under the guidance of judicious enterprise, and with such advantages and others which might be enumerated, New-Castle cannot fail to become, 'ere long, what Nature evidently intended she should be—the seat of large and successful Manufacturing business.

LATER FROM FRANCE.

The ship Champlain, Macy, has arrived at New York, bringing Havre papers to the 18th of June, and Paris to the 17th, containing London dates to the evening of the 15th. We copy the following intelligence from the Journal of Commerce and Courier.

The Paris Moniture contains officially the law for the payment of the American claims; agreeably to the votes of the two Chambers.

The Duke of Wellington has withdrawn his notice of a motion relative to Spanish affairs. Recruits for the Spanish service were enlisting in great numbers. The Moniteur contains a decree permitting French subjects to engage in the service of Spain, without being liable to the loss of any of their privileges.

The trial of the conspirators of April goes on in the Chamber of Peers. There is nothing in that part of the proceedings to interest our readers.

ORIGIN OF YANKEE.—A correspondent of the New Bedford Gazette says, "that in looking over some old papers I find in the New England Chronicle and Essex Gazette of Thursday June 8th 1775.the following etymology of the word Yankee. "When the New England colonies were first settled its inhabitants were obliged to fight their way against many nations of Indians. They found but little difficulty in subduing them all, except one tribe who were known by the name of the Yankoos, which signifies invincible. The Yankoos were at last subdued by the New England men; the remains of this nation (agreeable to the Indian custom) transferred their name to the conquerors; for a while they were called Yankoos; but from the corruption, common to names in all languages they got through time the name of Yankees. A name which we hope will soon be equal to that of a Roman or Englishman," Extract of a letter from Malaga dated 10th June.

"In consequence of advices having been given that Wheat was with us very scarce, and that what of foreign growth was permitted to be introduced, nearly one hundred vessels have lately arrived from the Levant and north of Europe and as the article is now prohibited, they are at an utter loss what to do with it, and if it cannot be sold at Lisbon or the Western Isle, the shippers will suffer as dead loss

At Gibraltar they are about putting up a Steam Mill for grinding wheat, which will be injurious to the sale of flour from the States."—Balt. Amer.

IT is now six months since this publication was commenced in Philadelphia—and although the publishers have used no extraneous means to circulate a knowledge of its merits, yet such is the satisfaction manifested by that portion of the public who have been made acquainted with its character and contents, that its list of patrons continues constantly and rapidly to increase. This paper is now distributed regularly every week over a wide portion of the Union, and the most satisfactory assurances are received that it will even ually become one of the most popular among the numerous excellent periodicals which issue from the American press. No exertions will be spared to establish its permanent reputation more extensively; and if the liberal sanction of those for whom it is especially designed shall warrant, its future improvement—both as regards typographical neatness and embellishment—will be materially advanced.

☞The different PLAYS and FARCES that will appear in the course of a year, of themselves, will be worth more than FOUR times the amount of subscription. The following is a list of those which have already appeared:

☞The MSS. copy of the IRISH AMBASSADOR, the favourite and highly interesting Drama in which TYRONE POWER so successfully amused the public, as SIR PATRICK O'PLENIPO, has been obtained by the publishers, and now will be published forthwith.

☞The sporting intelligence (at home and abroad) occupies a considerable portion of our columns, and is collected from the most authentic sources. Among the Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses which have been given, are—

The American Trotting Horse, Edwin Forrest.
The Imported Racing Horse, Messenger,
The favourite Racing Mare, Ariel, and her foal, by Eclipse.
Bond's celebrated Trotting Horse, Norfolk Phenomenon.
The well known English Race Horse, Touchstone.

A correct Picture of a Race Course, occupying the width of seven columns.

☞Among a variety of other Embellishments of subjects of interests which have been published, are the following:

A complete treatise on Riding, with Fourteen Illustrations, for the improvement of Ladies in that healthy of all exercises

Explanation of the Automaton Chess Player, illustrated by Eleven Engravings.

The subjects which are particularly embraced in the Vade Mecum will be more distinctly understood from the following summary of them:

The turf and all matters connected therewith.
On the Structure and Character of the horse
On the Improvement of Horned Cattle,
Rules for Novices in shooting.
Methods for Feeding and training Dogs.
Biographies of Celebrated Horses, with their Portraits.

in search of Health or Pleasure, for whom the best means of entertainment and accommodation within the ability of the proprietor will be provided.

The situation, which is easily accessible, being within half a day's ride of White Haven, Cambridge, or Easton, to which towns STEAMBOATS regularly resort, is one of the most airy and comfortable in this section of the country.

The waters of these Springs have been recently analysed by Professor Ducatel, the State Geologist, and classed by him among the ALKALINE Ferruginous Waters.

Many who have enjoyed the inestimable blessings of their healing and invigorating virtues, have pronounced them the best of their class in the United States. They are particularly beneficial in bilious disorders, as well as during convalescence from most diseases & debilities, proceeding from protracted sickness, may be effectually relieved, and vigorous health in a short time restored by their purifying and tonic powers.

The undersigned, in offering the benefits of these waters to his fellow citizens, can only add that he will do all in his power to render the sojourn of Ladies and Gentlemen at his establishment as agreeable as possible.

Black Hawk and Allycroaker

FOR SALE.

The subscriber will sell at private sale, the above Horses, the property of Wm. Rayne of Ohio. Black Hawk was brought into this county in January last, and has stood for Mares at Georgetown Roads, and at the subscribers, his Pedigree is good being sired by the celebrated horse Oscar, who was raised by Gen. Charles Ridgely of Hampton, the pedigree of his Dam is also good and can be seen by calling on the subscriber. Black Hawk is a beautiful dark bay, or brown, young and of good size, and perfectly sound.

Allycroaker is now believed to be in foal by Black Hawk, and has a horse colt about 3 months old (by uncle Sam, who was raised by Gen. Foreman,) this colt is said, by those who have seen it, to be the best formed and finest proportioned one they have seen, and bids fair to make a splendid Horse.

Allycroaker is too well known to need a description, or to refer to her pedigree, as the purchase money will not be wanted immediately, a long credit will be given if required upon the purchaser giving note with approved security, with interest from date—any person wishing to possess either of the above described horses can see them, and be made acquainted with the terms, by applying to the subscriber, residing near New Market, Kent County Md. or to Hugh Wallis, Morgan's Creek, near Chestertown.

FOR SALE.

IN consequence of a settled disease, I have had for more than two years, deprives me of paying that attention to my farms, that is necessary to my interest, and I have come to the conclusion of disposing at private sale my farm, lying within four miles of the Trappe and about one mile from Great Choptank river containing 484 1 2 acres of land—this farm is now laid off in three lots, and three fields, the former is well improved, and the latter can be made so, as the soil is chiefly white oak land, there is a new brick well of first rate water in the yard, and also a fine Mineral Spring within in 300 yards of the dwelling, this tract of land was formerly in two farms, and can be made so again, if persons should be disposed to purchase together—the TIMBER is very abundant, being much more than is necessary for the farm, which could be disposed of to great advantage by a person living on the estate. The timber consists chiefly of white oak. The situation is considered healthy. Persons disposed to purchase, will of course view the property.

Terms of sale.—On the delivery of the estate, one fourth of the purchase money must be paid in cash, and the balance in 1, 2 and 3 years, equal payments with approved security, interest from the date until paid—and on the payment of the whole purchase money, and not before, a good and sufficient Deed will be given. Apply to the subscriber, residing on his farm in Oxford Neck, Talbot county.
