the State a large bill for wine and fare and a fine travel for himself be hoped as chairman, and said he gloried in his first vote in favor of internal improvement, and he was now of the same mind.—Now, Sir, I am the friend of internal improvements when I see the way clear, and the party to which I belong is also in favor of them; and we tell the people so at all times. I only desire to point the attention of the community to the consistent, upright course of this politician, and shew them the dependence to be put in him and his professions. I see too that Mr. N. Martin is again a candidate. I presume this is the same gentleman who voted for the celebrated License Law, and enquired of a friend whether or not he did vote for it—the matter involving the interest of thousands of his fellow citizens made so slight an impression upon his mind, that he had to be told he did vote for it. I see the V. Buren men have put a certain Thomas Henrix upon their ticket again, as commissioner—they think that the odour of that celebrated "cut and carve" letter to J. M. Faulkner, Esq. has died away—or I presume, that as jockey's sometimes turn a broken down horse out to frost for some time, and then take him up again, hoping he may make running, so with this splinted, spavined nag—but I think he "will let down" during the heat. I suppose Mr. Colston has been "curbed" into the support of V Buren—We heard a man of character say, that he went so far as to call him a "d——d intriguer" &c. and declare his hostility to him last fall, when he, Mr. C. was running before the people—but he has had 'new lights," we presume since that time. So we go—farewell. Mr. G more anon from OBSERVER.

THE SILK CULTURIST.

THE Executive Committee of the Hartford county Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmers Manual.

The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulburry Tree, in all its varieties—The rearing of Silk Worms—The production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method. The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the nett profit of land devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it. It is also a fact, that every moderate farmer can raise several hundred dollars worth of Silk, without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail himself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, which our soil and climate have given him, he must possess himself of information on the subject—for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to diffuse this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheapest rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will enable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or assistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general.

TERMS—The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarto Pages, at FIFTY CENTS a year. No subscription will be received unless paid in advance, and for not less than a year.

Subscriptions received by F. G COMSTOCK, Secretary, Hartford, Conn., to whom also, Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to.

☞Editors who will copy the above, shall receive the publication for one year.
