the Union of the States. It is our right, and we ought to have it—it is our right, and we ought to demand it—it is our right and we ought to insist on it and never give it up.

The Purchase of Texas.— We mentioned a few weeks ago, that there was a rumour abroad that a treaty was in Washington between the United States and Mexico, by which Texas was ceded to the former. Our information now is such as to leave us but little doubt of the fact. To avoid all constitutional questions as to the right to purchase, the following plan; we understand, has been adopted: as the line between Mexico and the United States, has never been run by the authority of the two governments, and of course is still unsettled, to avoid all expense and controversy hereafter, for a certain payment in money to be made to the Mexican government, by the United States, it is agreed that the Rio del Norte shall be the dividing line.—Natchez Courier.

OBITUARY.

Died in this town on Sunday morning last, Mrs. ARIANN W. CHAMBERLAINE. To eulogise the virtuous and lamented dead would be farsical in the extreme were it not to operate as an incentive to virtue.

"'Tis religion alone that gives the flower
Of fleeting life its luster and perfume
And we are weeds without it."

A large circle of friends and relatives, and an interesting family of children are left to mourn the loss of a neighbour, friend and parent, endeared to them by every social and moral virtue, but they mourn not as those having no hope: for surely, the soul that shone on earth has been removed to those regions "where the righteous shine as stars of the first magnitude forever and ever." What is death? 'Tis nothing but a change: a transition from one state of being to another? 'tis the christians passport from earth to Heaven! Hence she who lived so worthily here must necessarily be happy hereafter.

Society at large, and especially the church to which Mrs. C was attached, has lost in her demise, one of its brightest ornaments, one of its most exemplary members; but our loss is her infinite gain. The warrior braves death for the passing acclamation of a moment, the historian and poet, often trim the midnight lamp, that their names may be handed down to posterity, but Christians serve their God from higher and holier motives! They love him, because he first loved them!!

Tho fame of the hero will be forgotten, the wreath of the Historian wither & the urn of the Poet crumble beneath the footsteps of advancing time, "but the reward of the righteous endureth."

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

REWARD.

Ranaway from Jacob C. Wilson one of the subscribers, living near Upper Hunting Creek, Caroline County, (Md.) on Saturday the 5th September, 1835, a negro woman who calls herself

MILLY PINKETT.

The above negro is apparently from 35 to 40 years of age, and of a dark color. She is very large and fat, with an erect walk and forbidding appearance. No particular marks upon her person recollected, except that one lock of her hair in front, is grey, the rest has not changed its hue. The clothing she had on when she went off, is not recollected, but she took a good supply with her. It is supposed, she has made her way through Delaware, intending to reach New Jersey or Pennsylvania. The above reward will be given, if she is apprehended without the limits of the State, or $50 if taken in the State. To be entitled to the reward, she must be delivered in the Easton or Cambridge Jail.

THE SILK CULTURIST.

THE Executive Committee of the Hartford county Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmers Manual.

The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulburry Tree, in all its varieties—The rearing of Silk Worms—The production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the nett profit of land devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it. it is also a fact, that every moderate farmer can raise several hundred dollars worth of Silk, without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail himself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, which our soil and climate have given him, he must possess himself of information on the subject—for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to diffuse this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheapest rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will enable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or assistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general.

TERMS—The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarto Pages, at FIFTY CENTS a year. No subscription will be received unless paid in advance, and for not less than a year.

Subscriptions received by F. G COMSTOCK, Secretary, Hartford, Conn, to whom also, Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to.

☞ Editors who will copy the above, shall receive the publication for one year.

Black Hawk and Allycroaker

FOR SALE.

The subscriber will sell at private sale, the above Horses, the property of Wm. Rayne of Ohio. Black Hawk was brought into this county in January last, and has stood for Mares at Georgetown Roads, and at the subscribers, his Pedigree is good he is sired by the celebrated horse Oscar, who was raised by Gen. Charles Ridgely of Hampton, the pedigree of his Dam is also good and can be seen by calling on the subscriber. Black Hawk is a beautiful dark bay, or brown, young and of good size, and perfectly sound.

Allycroaker is now believed to be in foal by Black Hawk, and has a horse colt about 2 months old (by uncle Sam, who was raised by Gen. Forman,) this colt is said, by those who have seen it, to be the best formed and finest proportioned one they have seen, and bids fair to make a splendid Horse.

Allycroaker is too well known to need a description, or to refer to her pedigree, as the purchase money will not be wanted immediately, a long credit will be given if required upon the purchaser's giving note with approved security, with interest from date—any person wishing to possess either of the above described horses can see them, and be made acquainted with the terms by applying to the subscriber, residing near New Market, Kent County Md. or to Hugh Wallis, Morgan's Creek, near Chestertown.
