June Term 1829

Henry Darnall & Nicholas Darnall vs Benjamin Owens	Be it remembered. That heretofore, to wit, on the thirteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven Henry Darnall and Nicholas Darnall by Thomas S. Alexander their attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Fieri facias to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel county directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Sc. The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel (Seal) County Greeting. Whereas at a county court, begun and held at Annapolis in and for Anne Arundel county on the third Monday of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty six a certain Henry Darnall and Nicholas Darnall by the Judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain Benjamin Owens late of Anne Arundel county yeoman otherwise called Benjamin Owens of Anne Arundel county and State of Maryland as well the sum of two thousand dollars current money a certain debt, as the sum of six dollars and thirty eight cents and one third of a cent for their damages which they had sustained, as well by reason of the detention of that debt, as for their costs and charges by them about their suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Benjamin Owens is convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of appeals for the Western Shore, at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears: and whereas it hath been adjudged, in the said Court of appeals, at the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven that the said judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Henry Darnall and Nicholas Darnall might have execution against the said Benjamin Owens for as well the debt, damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto them in the said County court, as also for the sum of nine dollars and ninety two cents for their damages, costs and charges by them sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain writ of the said State by the said Benjamin Owens before the said Court of appeals, for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said Benjamin Owens is convict as of record. Nikewise appeareth: Therefore you are hereby commanded that of the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said Benjamin Owens being in your bailiwick you cause to be made the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid and have you those sums of money before the said Court of appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June next, to render unto the said Henry Darnall and Nicholas Darnall the debt, damages costs and charges aforesaid. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honourable John John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven. Issued the 13th day of December 1827.
