POETRY.

A SERENADE.

The full moon is throwing
Its light on the sea,
And silvers the lily
That droops by the lea:
The woodland is silent,
The meek dove's at rest—
Come, timid one come
To thy fond lover's breast!

The blue bell is swinging
Its head to the breeze,
And dew drops hang heavy
On blossoms and trees:
No longer the sweet rose
Is closed from the sight,
But blooms in the shadow
And stillness of night.

There's freshness around me,
There's beauty above;
Come, timid one, come,
To the home of thy love—
To the boat that is floating,
And rocks in the gleam
Of stars that are lighting
Their course on the stream.

I hear thee, I see thee—
Thy fleet step is near,
Thy young cheek is glowing
With love and with fear—
Thy red lips is breathing
Fond words they have blest—
Thy form in its beauty
To mine I have prest,

Thy fairy hand trembles,
Ah!—fly not, but stay!
Thy melting eye flashes
Consent—fly away!
Away—for my swift boat
Still rocks in the gleam
Of stars that are lighting
Its course on the stream.

REMOVAL

THE subscriber begs leave to return his thanks to his friends and the public generally, for the liberal support and encouragement which they have extended to him in the way of his business.

Having removed his hat store to the house lately occupied by Mr. Wm. L. Jones, as a Clock and Watch-maker's shop, directly opposite to the Saddler's shop of Mr. William W. Higgins, he intends keeping on hand a large and geneal assortment of which he thinks he can safely warrant to be equal, in faithfulness of workmanship and quality generally, to any manufactured in the State, and will sell on the most accommodating terms.

To country merchants or others, buying to sell again, he will sell, by the dozen, as low as the same quality of hats can be had in a city market.

Furs of all kinds, purchased or taken in exchange, at the HIGHEST CASH prices.

MR. & MRS. HAMILTON'S

Boarding School for Young Ladies,

Corner of Saratoga and Courtland Streets,

BALTIMORE,

Will be re opened on the first day of September next.

Mr. & Mrs. H. have provided their Seminary with every apparatus necessary to illustrate their instruction. Their Philosophical Apparatus is equal to any that can be found in private Seminaries in this country, and their chemical is sufficiently extensive to illustrate any subject treated upon in the text books of the School. Their Cabinet of Minerals, though small, contains upwards of 700 specimens.—Their Seminary is also furnished with an Armillary Sphere, Cary's, Wilson's, and Gardner's Globes; several Pianos, and a Harp.—The instruments they possess are the best they could procure in this country or in England.

The Library contains upwards of 2000 volumes, connected with the studies pursued in the School, to which the young ladies have access.

In all the departments, the most competent Teachers are engaged, whose instructions are given under the immediate eye of the Principals.

The course of instruction is carried on in a regular system of Academic studies, embracing all the scientific and ornamental branches.

Parents and Guardians who wish for more particular information, can obtain a prospectus of the Seminary, by writing, post paid, to the Principals.

Given under my hand the 4th day of August, 1835.

LAMBERT W. SPENCER.

$50 REWARD.

Alexander Larrimore, a tenant of mine, left a new house which has not been built more than three months past, on account of the death of his wife, and by and with my consent, on the 19th inst. which was on Saturday. On the next day, I visited the house late in the evening, and could not discover any fire left in said house. On Monday, late in the evening the house was discovered to be on fire, and soon consumed, with a large portion of the poor man, Larrimore's moveables in it.

I have made every inquiry of the people who left the house on Saturday morning, say five in number, and they all declare that previous to leaving the house, Mrs. Betsey Larrimore poured water on the fire in the heart'h and extinguished every spark.

Now taking all the circumstances connected with the case into consideration, viz: the fact of there being scarcely any fire on the hearth, and no wood at the time of pouring water on it. Also, the fact of its raining all that day, and night after leaving the house, with the fact of my visiting the house, and making an examination on the evening of the following day, and finding no fire in or about the house. I say taking all these circumstances connected together, it is manifest without the least shadow of doubt, that my house was set on fire by some incendiary or incendiaries.

I will give the above reward to any person or persons who will detect the villainous incendiary or incendiaries, with such proof as may lead to their conviction in any court of justice.

I will only add, that I suffered a severe loss in the month of April last on this same Cromwell farm, by having several of my best work oxen drowned, and killed otherwise by some villain or villains. It was then reported that my oxen jumped into a deep creek and drowned themselves. It may now be reported with the same propriety that my house has jumped into the fire and consumed itself, and poor Larrimore's household goods.

THE SILK CULTURIST

THE Executive Committee of the Hartford county Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmers Manual.

The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulburry Tree, in all its varieties—The rearing of Silk Worms—The production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method. The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the nett profit of land devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it. It is also a fact, that every moderate farmer can raise several hundred dollars worth of Silk, without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail himself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, which our soil and climate have given him, he must possess himself of information on the subject—for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to diffuse this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheapest rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will enable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or assistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general.

TERMS—The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarto Pages. at FIFTY CENTS a year. No subscription will be received unless paid in advance, and for not less than a year.

Subscriptions received by F. G. COMSTOCK, Secretary, Hartford, Conn., to whom also, Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to.

☞Editors who will copy the above, shall receive the publication for one year.
