POETRY.

From the Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat.

SYLVAN POLITICS.

The Hickory Tree is passing fast
Into the yellow leaf,
His days of pride are nearly past,
—Great tree, of trees the chief.

And all the trees on hill and plain
Are sorely grieved to think,
That such a very goodly tree,
Should wither, fade, and sink.

They cried, as loud as trees can cry,
"Who now shall be our chief?"
And branches shook, both low and high,
And quivered every leaf.

Then many trees preferred their claim,
And for the king ship strove;
Trees tall and fair, of mighty name,
The pride of all the grove.

The Massachusetts Oak displayed
His princely head on high,
While amidst his mighty branches played
The breeze of Liberty.

The White wood cast its graceful shade
O'er blooming Tennessee:
Its fragrance gladdened many a glade:
It was a gallant tree.

But hist! the Hickory's self will speak,
Let every tree be dumb!
Let no leaf stir, or dry bough crack,
When forth his accents come!

"It is my will," the Hickory said,
Throughout the mighty realm.
That every tree should bow his head,
To—to—the 'SLIPPERY ELM.'

"And next to him in rank shall stand,
Obsequious at his back,
A sapling from the Western land,
My favorite sprig, 'BLACK JACK.'

"They stood by me, in many a blow,
Shall I desert them now?
I swear by the Eternal—No!
Let all the forest bow!"

From thousand hills and thousand vales
A deep voice swelled around;
As when the distant storm prevails,
Rolled on that murmuring sound:

Hold! Hickory, hold! that ne'er can be,
Bow to the "Slippery Elm!"
Ere we shall crown so base a tree,
May racking whirlwinds 'whelm.

In splintered wreck each goodly trunk,
And crush the forest's pride!
Better, far better, to have sunk
In ruin far and wide.

No! while our branches revel free
In the free air of heaven,
Never shall our allegiance be,
To creeping meanness given.

Thou, Hickory wer't in danger's hour,
A useful tree and brave,
And bravely didst thou strike thy root,
Deep in the Lion's grave.

But what hath he, thy minion, done
To claim such lofty meed?
No noble act is his—not one,
No patriotic deed.

Full well we know that round thy stem,
His vine-like bough he wound,
And cringing watched the slightest whim,
Low bending to the ground.

His servile soul we deeply scorn,
Away with him! away!
His yoke shall ne'er by us be borne,
Or felt his serpent sway.

But let his list in dark ravine:
The reptile's croaking voice,
Where noon's clear blaze is never seen,
"THE BUCK EYE IS OUR CHOICE!"

REMOVAL.

THE subscriber begs leave to return his thanks to his friends and the public generally, for the liberal support and encouragement which they have extended to him in the way of his business.

Having removed his hat store to the house lately occupied by Mr. Wm. L. Jones, as a Clock and Watch-maker's shop, directly opposite to the Saddler's shop of Mr. William W. Higgins, he intends keeping on hand a large and geneal assortment of which he thinks he can safely warrant to be equal, in faithfulness of workmanship and quality generally, to any manufactured in the State, and will sell on the most accommodating terms.

To country merchants or others, buying to sell again, he will sell, by the dozen, as low as the same quality of hats can be had in a city market.

Furs of all kinds, purchased or taken in exchange, at the HIGHEST CASH prices.

SOLOMON BARRETT

Tavern Keeper, Easton, Md.

Respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he still continues to carry on the above business at his old stand on Washington street, opposite the office of Samuel Hambleton, jr. Esq. where he is prepared to accommodate travellers and others who may be pleased to patronize his establishment—His Bar is well stocked with the choicest Liquors and his larder with the best provision the market will afford—his stables are in good order and well stocked with provender—He has in his employ careful oystlers and he assures the Public nothing shall be wanting on his part to give general satisfaction.

Easton, Jan. 31, 1835

N. B. S. B. will at all times pay the highest market prices for Terrapines, Oysters and Wild Ducks.

TAILORING.

The subscriber presents his grateful acknowledgements to the inhabitants of Easton and the adjoining counties, for the flattering patronage he has met with, since he commenced the above business, and begs leave to inform them that he has just returned from Baltimore, with

A New Mode of Cutting,

That has never been practised in Easton; but one, that is almost universally used in Baltimore and in the best establishments: he has also engaged a

FIRST RATE WORKMAN,

that none can surpass; which will enable him to meet the demands of gentlemen for any kind of garments cut and made in the first style. His work shall be warranted to fit in all cases; otherwise he pays them for their goods or makes them others. He respectfully solicits a continuance of the favors of a generous public

MR. & MRS. HAMILTON'S

Boarding School for Young Ladies,

Corner of Saratoga and Courtland Streets,

BALTIMORE.

Will be re-opened on the first day of September next.

Mr. & Mrs. H. have provided their Seminary with every apparatus necessary to illustrate their instruction. Their Philosophical Apparatus is equal to any that can be found in private Seminaries in this country, and their chemical is sufficiently extensive to illustrate any subject treated upon in the text books of the School. Their Cabinet of Minerals, though small, contains upwards of 700 specimens.—Their Seminary is also furnished with an Armillary Spheres; Cary's, Wilson's, and Gardner's Globes; several Pianos, and a Harp—The instruments they possess are the best they could procure in this country or in England.

The Library contains upwards of 2000 volumes connected with the studies pursued in the School, to which the young ladies have access.

In all the departments, the most competent Teachers are engaged, whose instructions are given under the immediate eye of the Principals.

The course of instruction is carried on in a regular system of Academic studies, embracing all the scientific and ornamental branches.

Parents and Guardians who wish for more particular information, can obtain a prospectus of the Seminary, by writing, post paid, to the Principals.

REWARD.

Runaway from Jacob C. Wilson one of the subscribers, living near Upper Hunting Creek Caroline County, (Md.) on Saturday the 5th September, 1835, a negro woman who calls herself

MILLY PINKETT.

The above negro is apparently from 35 to 40 years of age, and of a dark color. She is very large and fat with an erect walk and forbidding appearance. No particular marks upon her person recollected, except that one lock of her hair in front, is grey, the rest has not changed its hue. The clothing she had on when she went off, is not recollected, but she took a good supply with her. It is supposed she has made her way through Delaware, intending to reach New Jersey or Pennsylvania. The above reward will be given, if she is apprehended without the limits of the State, or $50 if taken in the State. To be entitled to the reward, she must be delivered in the Easton or Cambridge Jail.

$50 REWARD.

Alexander Larrimore, a tenant of mine, left a new house which has not been built more than three months past, on account of the death of his wife, and by and with my consent, on the 15th inst. which was on Saturday. On the next day, I visited the house late in the evening, and could not discover any fire left in said house. On Monday, late in the evening the house was discovered to be on fire, and soon consumed, with a large portion of the poor man, Larrimore's moveables in it.

I have made every inquiry of the people who left the house on Saturday morning, say five in number, and they all declare that previous to leaving the house, Mrs. Betsey Larrimore poured water on the fire in the hearth and extinguished every spark.

Now taking all the circumstances connected with the case into consideration, viz: the [illegible] of there being scarcely any fire on the hearth, and no wood at the time of pouring water on it. Also, the fact of its raining all that day, and night after leaving the house, with the fact of my visiting the house, and making an examination on the evening of the following day, and finding no fire in or about the house. I say taking all these circumstances connected together, it is manifest without the least shadow of doubt, that my house was set on fire by some incendiary or incendiaries.

I will give the above reward to any person or persons who will detect the villainous incendiary or incendiaries, with such proof as may lead to their conviction in any court of justice.

I will only add, that I suffered a severe loss in the month of April last on this same Cromwell farm, by having several of my best work oxen drowned, and killed otherwise by some villain or villains. It was then reported that my oxen jumped into a deep creek and drowned themselves. It may now be reported with the same propriety that my house has jumped into the fire and consumed itself, and poor Larrimore's household goods.
