POETRY.

JUNIUS

BY JOHN C. MORRIS.

He sate alone within a princely chamber,
Art's master pieces decked the walls; & ranged
At distance due, in ornamental niches
Stood busts of Statesmen, Conquerors and Poets,—
Each representing, in cold majesty,
The lofty intellect, but not the passions,
Of the Great Dead. His face resembled theirs,
His broad unfurrowed forehead, his calm eye,
His settled features stern, and proudly cold,
Were statue like. A page lay spread before him
Whereupon he traced, from time to time, harsh words—
[illegible] eloquence divine—
[illegible] acute and wit, which, lightning like,
[illegible] whate'er it struck—yet, still, his features
[illegible] fixed and passionless.
[illegible] These the whose words
[illegible] mother Autocrats
[illegible] of this awful name.
[illegible] was as the voice of one
Crying amid the wilderness—prepare
The way for Freedom!—thus this man became
To liberty, what Bacon was to science;
But greater far than Bacon—he disclaimed
The rich man's bribe—the multitude's applause;
[illegible] proffered laurel crown seduc'd him [illegible],
[illegible] to pass them by; and die unknown.
His secret perished with him; and no hand
[illegible] raised the close drawn veil, wherewith like Nature,
Junius is shrouded!

JUSTICES' PRACTICE.

The subscriber has published the second edition of the Justices Practice by J. H. B. Latrobe. This edition brings down the Laws relating to the Justices of the Peace and Constables, and those subjects in connection with which their agency may be required, to Dec 1834 which terminated to March 1835 inclusive. While the general arrangement of the work remains nearly the same as in the first edition, a great deal of matter has been added which experience had shown to be useful, and in particular the chapter on conveyancing has been very much enlarged, so as to furnish the Justice of the Peace with precedents in most of the cases connected with the transfer of property, that can occur before him.

☞The price is $3 per copy bound in Law sheep.

NOTICE.

The Commissioners for Talbot county again give notice to the Trustees of the several school districts in said county, where schools have been established under the Act of 1825, and the supplement thereto, and to all persons in those districts, where schools have not yet been established, that it will be impossible for them to extend to the people the benefits and advantages of said Act and supplement, so far as they are authorized and requested to levy on the taxable property of said county for the payment of teachers, &c. until the Trustees already, and those hereafter to be appointed, shall make report of their proceedings agreeably to the law.

They are therefore earnestly requested to make report of their proceedings to the Commissioners on or before the 22d day of December next, to enable them to make such provisions as the law seems to authorize and require of them. The Commissioners for Talbot county will meet on the 22d December next.

REMOVAL.

THE subscriber begs leave to return his thanks to his friends and the public generally, for the liberal support and encouragement which they have extended to him in the way of his business.

Having removed his hat store to the house lately occupied by Mr. Wm. L. Jones, as a Clock and Watch-maker's shop, directly opposite to the Saddler's shop of Mr. William W. Higgins, he intends keeping on hand a large and geneal assortment of which he thinks he can safely warrant to be equal in faithfulness of workmanship and quality generally, to any manufactured in the State, and will sell on the most accommodating terms.

To country merchants or others, buying to sell again, he will sell, by the dozen, as low as the same quality of hats can be had in a city market.

Furs of all kinds, pur[illegible]d or taken in exchange, at the HIGHEST CASH prices.

PROSPECTUS
OF A NEW PUBLICATION
TO BE CALLED
The Catholic Periodical LIBRARY

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 6 cents each.

The dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still however, extremely dear; and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a Publication as that which the Subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community, and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas, has resolved to put it to press forthwith: and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The Subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of Subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS.—The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first Number will be issued on Saturday November 7th.—Terms of Subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.—Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as Agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion. Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches, The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington. Haywarden's True Church of Christ shown, Haywarden's Charity and Truth, Mores Catholici, or Ages of Faith. Mumford's Question of Questions. Mumford's Catholic Scripturist. Lingard's History of the Anglo Saxon Church' Perpetuity of the Faith. Dr. M'Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church, Fleury's Manners of the Israelites, Fleury's Manners - Christians, Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland. Bishop Hay's Works, Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings. Manning's Works, O Leary's Tracts, St Bonaventure's Life of Christ, Challoner's Meditations Butler's Book of the Chatholic Church, Butler's Festivals and Fasts. Butler's Lives of Saints, Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a Collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars

All new Catholic Works will be published in the PERIODICAL LIBRARY as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year. Oct 3

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS
REWARD.

Ranaway from Jacob C. Wilson one of the subscribers, living near Upper Hunting Creek Caroline County, (Md.) on Saturday the 5th September, 1835, a negro woman who calls herself

MILLY PINKETT,

The above negro is apparently from 35 to 40 years of age, and of a dark color. She a very large and fat with an erect walk and forbidding appearance. No particular marks upon her person recollected, except that one lock of her hair in front, is grey, the rest has not changed its hue. The clothing she had on when she went off, is not recollected, but she took a good supply with her. It is supposed she has made her way through Delaware, intending to reach New Jersey or Pennsylvania. The above reward will be given, if she is apprehended without the limits of the State, or $50 if taken in the State. To be entitled to the reward, she must be delivered in the Easton or Cambridge Jail.

The Academy at Easton

Notice is hereby given, That the Trustees of this Academy have appointed JAMES SHANLEY, Esq. to succeed John Neely, Esq as principal teacher in the Classical Department of the Seminary, and that the school will be opened on Monday next, for the reception of pupils. Mr. Shanley is highly recommended, as an accomplished teacher, by respectable gentlemen, who have been his pupils and instructed by him. He has great experience as a teacher of youth, having taught many years in the city of Baltimore, and in Cambridge, at the head of the Academy there, with reputation. The Trustees flatter themselves that Mr. Shanley will give full satisfaction to those, who think proper to place pupils under his charge.
