EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, (MD.)

Saturday Morning Dec. 26

One of the vessels noticed in our last, as seen by the Steam Boat Maryland, on her passage from this place to Baltimore on Wednesday the 16th inst. proves to be the HESTER ANN, of Wye River, owned by John P. Paca, Jr. Esq. and Captain Marshall, of this county, and awful to relate, all on board must have perished: viz. J. P. Paca, Jr. Richard Baker, John Redman, Jas. G. Elliott and a Mr. Marshall a relation of Capt. Marshall (the Captain was not on board) and four or five negroes—Mr. Elliott and a negro man were found on the wreck, dead. Capt. M. is now on board of the schooner saving what he can of her cargo The loss of these gentlemen has cast a gloom over our county—they were among our most worthy citizens and all, we believe have left families who will long lament their untimely end.

We understand the Steam Mill at Todd's Point, Dorchester county, the property of Capt. Trippe, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night last. Also his barn containing a large quantity of corn, fodder, &c. &c.

CONGRESS.—Nothing of interest has and nothing of consequence will be done we presume until after the Christmas Hollyday's.

The Legislature of this State meet in Annapolis on Monday next.

We give in another column a partial account of the awful calamity which befell the city of New York on Wednesday night the 17th inst. The fire commenced in the store of Comstock and Andrews, in Merchant street about 9 o'clock, the wind blowing a gale at N W. and so cold that the engines were almost useless.

The following will be found a tolerable accurate statement of the number of houses and stores now levelled with the ground.

Six hundred and seventy four tenements. By far the greater part in the occupancy of our largest shipping and wholesale dry goods Merchants, and filled with the richest products of every portion of the Globe. How estimate the immense loss sustained, or the fearful consequences to the general prosperity?

The loss is variously estimated at from twenty to fifty millions.

The Secretary of the Treasury has instructed the Collector of the Port of New York, not to press the payment of bonds there, but to render every facility in his power to the merchants.

It is stated that a conversation was held with the President, on Saturday, on the subject of granting relief by government to the city of New York, but that he had expressed constitutional scruples with regard to it. He stated that New York had lost about ten per cent of its capital by the late calamity, but that Cheraw, S. C. had lost, on a recent occasion, ninety per cent of its capital, and that no relief was granted by the government.

Maryland State Convention.—The Whig Convention, after unanimously adopting the resolutions nominating Gen. Wm. H. Harrison and John Tyler as candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, took a recess until seven o'clock on Wednesday evening. At the evening session, we learn from the Chronicle that the following proceedings took place.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment. The following resolution offered by the committee on the business of the Convention was taken up, and after some discussion unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention recommend to the Whig voters of each congressional district of this State to hold a Convention on the first Tuesday in April next, to nominate as many electors for President and Vice President of the United States as they are respectively entitled to members of Congress, and that the Delegates from the first Congressional district meet at Princess Anne, in Somerset county; the Delegates from the second district at Centreville, in Queen Ann's county the Delegates from the third district at Watkins' Tavern, in Baltimore county; the Delegates from the fourth district at Baltimore city; the delegates from the fifth district at New Market, in Frederick county, the delegates from the sixth district at Hagerstown in Washington county; the delegates from the seventh district at Charlotte Hall, in Prince George's county, and that the Whigs of each county and city in the State, be requested to hold meetings in their respective counties and cities, to select delegates to represent them in their respective conventions for the purpose of nominating Electors of President and Vice President, to carry into effect the nomination of this convention.

Mr. CAUSIN moved that a committee of one from each county and city represented be appointed by the chair to draft and publish an address to the People of Maryland on the subjects acted upon by this convention, which was adopted.

The following gentlemen were appointed by the chair on the committee.

W. D. Bell, of Washington.
Jas. M. Coale, of Frederick.
Augustus W. Bradford, of Harford.
H. V. Somerville, of Baltimore County.
Jas. Wm. McCulloh, of Baltimore city.
Robert W. Kent, of Anne Arundel.
John M. S. Causin, of Prince Georges.
Benj. Gwynn Harris, of St. Mary's.
George Vickers, of Kent.
Tench Tilghman, of Talbot.
Nicholas L. Goldsborough, of Caroline.
Francis A. Ellis of Cecil.
John N. Watkins, of Annapolis.
Wm. P. Carpenter, of Charles.
Wm. T. Goldsborough, of Dorchester.
Benj. Harrison, of Calvert.

Mr. Nicholson, of Annapolis, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, that each and every member of this convention pledge himself to use his utmost efforts to secure the election of Gen WM. H. HARRISON, of Ohio, to the office of President, and of JOHN TYLER, of Virginia, to the office of Vice President of the United States, and that the presiding officers of this convention forthwith communicate to those gentlemen the fact of their nomination.

Mr. MUNROE, of Baltimore, offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, unanimously, That the thanks of the members of this Convention be tendered to the presiding officers and secretaries, for the dignified, able and impartial manner in which they have discharged their respective duties.

The Convention having now got through their business with great harmony and unanimity, on motion of Mr. LEAKIN, of Baltimore, adjourned sine die.

We observed that Mr. CLAY's seat in the SENATE, was vacant yesterday. We learn with real sorrow that his absence was caused by the afflicting news of the death of his only remaining daughter, Mrs. ERWIN, a lady whose distinguished virtues endeared her to all who knew her, but most of all to her fond and affectionate father. It will be poor consolation to him, and yet it is something, that in this city the sympathy with him in his affliction is universal, among the many strangers now here as among residents.

Nat. Intelligencer.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on Thursday 17th Mr. Webster offered resolutions to refer so much of the President's message as relates to carrying the mail upon Railroads &c., to a committee, with instructions to report the extent and location of Railroads already constructed or in progress, and as to transporting United States troops free of charge, &c.

In the House of Representatives.—Overton Carr being re appointed door-keper without opposition, a ballot was had for assistant door-keep—Col. John W. Hunter received 155; Mr. Dade, 29, Mr. Pease, 17.

The several subjects introduced in the President's message were referred to appropriate committees for consideration.

On Friday, Mr. JACKSON of Mass. presented a petition from sundry inhabitants of Wrentham, Mass. praying that slavery in the District of Columbia may be abolished, and moved that it be referred to a select committee.

Mr HAMMOND moved that the petition be not received.

A debate of three or four hours, involving many points of order, and running occasionally into the merits of the question, ensued, in which Messrs. Hammond, Williams of N. C., Glascock, Payton, Beardsley, Wise, Thomas, Hopkins, Mason of Va, Bouldin, Repley, Vanderpool, Harper, Price of N. H, and Pickins, took part.

A motion to lay the petition on the table was moved and decided by the Speaker to have precedence over the motion to reject.

The question being taken, the motion to lay on the table was rejected—Yeas 95, nays 121.

Mr. HAMMOND'S motion that the petition be rejected, being then in order, the debate was resumed, and continued by Messrs Hunt, Glascock, and Sutherland.

Mr. Sutherland without concluding, yielded the floor, and on motion of Mr. Everett.

The House adjourned to meet on Monday

United States Senate.—A short time since there was only one vacancy in the Senate; now there are four, viz. one in Mississippi, one in Louisiana, occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Gayarre; one in Connecticut, occasioned by the death of the Hon. Nathan Smith; and one in Illinois, occasioned by the death of the Hon Elias K. Kane.

The vacancy in Mississippi will be filled by the Legislature just chosen, the political complexion of which is not clearly ascertained.

If the vacancy of Louisiana should be filled by executive appointment, the new incumbent will certainly be a Whig; if by the Legislature, probably. The Legislature meets in January.

The Legislature of Illinois being now in session, the election of a successor to Mr. Kane will devolve upon them. A Van Buren man will probably be elected Were the appointment made by Gov. Duncan, (which it cannot be,) the case would be otherwise.

In Connecticut a Van Buren man has been appointed by the Governor.

DEATH OF BISHOP EMORY.

We have been furnished, says the Baltimore Chronicle, with the following facts relative to the death of this gentleman: "The late Bishop Emory left his residence, one mile this side of Reistertown on the morning of the 16th instant, about 6 o'clock, and proceeded on his journey towards Baltimore as far as the hill a little north of Weaver's Tavern, where it is supposed the horse ran away with the carriage, and in passing violently down the hill, a short distance below Weaver's, at a water break, it is believed the Bishop was thrown from his carriage with great force, the back of his head coming in contact with a large stone, broke the skull, and the brain protruded out. The horse becoming disengaged from the carriage continuing down the road was first discoved by Mr. Simpson, going up the road, near the Bridge at Owings' mill, who made an effort to stop the horse but failed. Mr. Simpson on approaching the water break, discovered the Bisop lying on the margin of the east side of the road, and the carriage nearly opposite on the west side. He was then taken to Mr Weaver's where every kindness and attention was paid to him,—and the professional attendance of Drs. Addison and Larsh, procured without delay. He expired at a quarter past seven o'clock on the evening of the same day. He was found speechless, and continued so until his disease.

THE NATIONAL.

At the instance of a number of friends in Congress, and to accommodate their wishes the Publishers of the National Intelligencer propose to issue, during the Session of Congress, a WEEKLY PAPER, to be called THE NATIONAL; to comprise, so far as its limits will admit, the Proceedings and Debates in Congress, and such other selections from the columns of the National Intelligencer as may be deemed interesting or valuable. The paper will be of the same size as the Intelligencer, and will be commenced on the first day of January, if a sufficient number of copies to justify the experiment be subscribed for by that time. It will be published SIX MONTHS or longer, if the session continue longer, the price for the whole term will be as follows:

For five copies, or more, one dollar each.

For single subscriptions, to be sent by mail, one dollar and a half each.

☞ Gentlemen desiring to be supplied with copies will please to send their orders in promptly, that the publishers may ascertain as early as practicable whether they may proceed to make arrrangements for issuing the paper.
