...tility, and that moreover, they will be much less patient under their want of French wines and French silks, and of a market for their cotton and tobacco, than the people of France will be under corresponding disadvantages.

Bourse, Nov. 7. Quarter to 4 P. M.

The Three per Cents look downwards at Tortoni's this morning, and at the opening of the Bourse there were 81f. 15c sellers. The news that the Charge d'Affairs of the U. States had demanded his pasports has made but little impression at the Bourse, several brokers having made considerable purchases. The Three per Cents. got up to 81f. 35.

Paris, Nov. 7.

Mr. Barton; who has hitherto performed the functions of Charge d'Affaires of the United States, at Paris, decidedly leaves this city on Monday. It is said to be in consequence of the refusal of M. de Borglie to give a satisfactory answer to three proposals which he was commissioned to make to him on part of his government.—Messager.

The Constitutionel does not consider the step taken by Mr. Barton as indicative of an approaching rupture. It observes that the consul for the U. States is to remain at Paris to keep up, as heretofore, the commercial relations with France. It seems, in fact that little or no uneasiness prevails in any part of France about a risk of a war with the United States. and this probably is because there exists a strong impression that no means will be left untried to avoid a rupture, and that some mode of adjustment will be devised which may prove equally satisfactory to both sides.

The fact of Mr. Barton, the U. S. Charge d'Affairs at Paris, having demanded his passports of the French government is mentioned in all the papers save the ministerial organs.

The Temps states that Mr. Barton made his application, in a peremptory style, on Friday, alleging the non-execution of treaties on the part of France — The pasports were delivered on Saturday, and the Charge d'Affaires was to quit Paris on Monday.—The Temps nevertheless expresses its confidence that matters will end in an amicable adjustment.

JUSTICES PRACTICE.

The subscriber has published the second edition of the Justices Practice by J. H. B. Latrobe. This edition brings down the Laws relating to the Justices of the Peace and Constables, and those subjects in connection with which their agency may be required, to Dec. 1834 which terminated to March 1835 inclusive. While the general arrangement of the work remains nearly the same as in the first edition, a great deal of matter has been added which experience had shown to be useful, and in particular the chapter on conveyancing has been very much enlarged, so as to furnish the Justice of the Peace with precedents in most of the cases connected with the transfer of property, that can occur before him.

☞ The price is $8 per copy, bound in Law sheep.
