By the House of Delegates.
January 19th, 1836.

Ordered, that his Excellency the Governor, be requested to furnish this House, a copy of the report of the commissioners for the Baltimore and Chesapeake Steam Towing Company, made in conformity to the thirteenth section of the act of incorporation of said company.

Which was twice read and adopted.

The committee on the colored population, to whom was referred the memorial of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying that Isaac Hood, a free man of color, now a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, may be permitted to come into, and reside in this State; have had the same under consideration, and instructed me to report.

That they deem it inexpedient and impolitic, to grant the prayer of the petitioners, in as much as it would conflict with the policy of the laws of the State, in relation to that description of population. They, therefore, ask to be discharged from the further consideration of said memorial, and that the petitioners be permitted to withdraw the same.

All which is respectfully submitted.
Benedict I Heard, Chairman
By order,
Benjamin Seegar, Clk.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and concurred in.

Mr. McLean, chairman of the committee on corporations, to which was referred the bill reported by Mr. Palmer, entitled, an act to incorporate the Queen Ann's county Silk company, reported the same with the following amendments

Amendment proposed,

Add the following as an additional section to the bill;

"Section 7 And be it enacted, that nothing in this act contained shall be so constructed as to confer any banking privileges on the company aforesaid, nor the right to issue any note in the nature of a Bank note,"

Determined in the negative.

Mr. McMahon moved to amend said bill by adding at the end thereof as an additional section, the following:—

'Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall report the situation of their concerns once in each year during the session of the General Assembly;'

Which was read & referred to Messrs Hambleton, Bruff, Dudley, Burchenal & Turner.

Mr. Richardson, presented a memorial of two thousand eight hundred and sixty four citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying for a change in the present License system.

On motion of Mr. Heard,

Ordered, that the committee upon grievances and courts of justice be requested to enquire into the expediency of changing the mode of compensating County Surveyors in this State, by substituting a per diem allowance in lieu of the fees now received; and whether it would not be a source of convenience to the community to authorise County Surveyors and their assistants to qualify land commissioners, &c. and further to enquire into the propriety of giving to County Surveyors and their assistants each a copy of the annual laws of the State.

Mr. Merrick submitted the following preamble and order,

Whereas, it is essential to the expeditious discharge of the business of the session, that reports should be made as early as possible, by the several standing committees of the House, upon the several matters referred to them respectively, and it is apparent, that by allowing the said committees an opportunity of holding their meetings in the forenoon, they will be enable to mature their business for the action of the House, at a much earlier day, therefore,

Which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr Graham:—It was with feelings of regret that I read the communication relative to the doings of the "Agy Club," in your paper of Saturday last—regret that your correspondent would or could not be satirical without personality, nor animadvert upon their ways without allusions either to politics or individuals. Topics, so exciting, in a communication of that character should be avoided, they never can do good but often harm and frequently excite bad feeling, if not bitter enmity; having said this much by way of prologue, permit me to express my surprise that so able a writer should mingle and blend together such heterogeneous materials, to prove that Bachelorship is not the most pleasant situation in life. Politics, Scripture, Ale-Houses, Taverns, Grog Shops, &c. &c. are brought into view by a single dash of his pen and nestle as snugly and cosily together as if they were sworn friends. Heaven & earth are put into requisition to furnish matter for this homily on the crime of celibacy. But, sir, what is the cause of this great display of zeal? why such officious and restless anxiety to appear as a champion of the Ladies? why so boldly, and I may say rudely attack the members of the Club instead of their proceedings. Shall I tell you what perhaps is no secret, that Timothy himself is a Bachelor in "the sear and yellow leaf" one who has been jilted and discarded until he has become a walking volume of "rejected addresses," an epitome of the trouble and vexation arising from unsuccessfully dancing attendance upon the sex, hence his zeal and kindness is nothing more than the last effort, the dying struggle to twist himself into favor by an officious show of devotion to their cause. But his ardour is altogether gratuitous and however well meant his services they are not coveted. The Ladies aver that they are competent to self defence, that they can and will manage their affairs in their own way, and therefore any assistance from rusty and worn out suitors or hen-peck'd husbands (with all due reverence be it spoken) can and will be dispense with. Timothy finds terrible fault with the resolutions, none suit him; the motto he demolishes at a single blow The 2d resolution he grins the bark off in little less than no time, and not content to stop here, falls to abusing the Club because heaven has not granted him penetration sufficient to understand the meaning of the others, as if the 'Agy' were accountable for the thickness of his skull or the dullness of his comprehension. Explanation is his cry, explanation of the resolutions for which he has most kindly promised to wait, so do friend Timothy & in the meantime con over your dictionary for "Agy or its derivative" and when weary of the search turn over to the Q's, where perhaps you may find a little word which may wonderfully help your apprehension and shed some little light upon the subject. The assertion that Females do not dwell in Taverns, &c. &c. cannot be sustained and while perhaps the inmates of these houses may not feel particularly complimented by the allusion made to them, it is no argument against the Club, with the same show of reason I might say that Timothy Twist has been black-ball'd by the 'Agy' hence his vituperations.

THE HARRISON MEETING.

The meeting held in the City Hall, on the evening the 26th inst., was large beyond expectation—when it is considered that the house was cold (the fires having been made, only at the opening of the meeting)—that the sleighing was fine and called away very many of the young and active—and that the weather was very cold, detaining many elderly persons at home, it may be considered as most promising of what N C. county will do for Harrison. There was probably not more than 800 persons at any one time in the Hall; but from the number constantly leaving the Hall, on account of the cold, there must have been little short of 500.—What a glorious beginning! The meeting was very orderly—unusually so—it was composed of freemen of all trades and professions, all equally anxious to guard their liberties from the grasp of unhallowed ambition.

Mr. R. H Bayard in a lucid and eloquent address, portrayed his career (Harrison's) from 19 years of age, at which period he entered the service of his country, in which he continued, principally in the public council, tho' occasionally in the field of battle against the Indians and British—he was eleven years Governor of the Northwest Territory (then called Indiana) during which, singly and alone he negociated thirteen treatise with the Indians. Sussex is moving—the whole state will be alive by the 4th of March next. Many Jacksonians will not consent to be Van Burenmen—Harrison will get all these with the great body of the heretofore Whig party of Delaware—Harrison is emphatically the people's Candidate—the people have called him from his retirement, and they will elect him. The office holders who have nominated their political cameleon Mr. Van Buren, must be disappointed when the people take their own affairs into own hands.

THE SALMAGUNDI, AND NEWS OF THE DAY.
EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A new periodical, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent salies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—☞as he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

The Salmagundi will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that more than will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The terms of The Salmagundi will be two dollars per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adherred to. ☞Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note ☞The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

☞The Salmagundi will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞All orders must come postage paid.

JUSTICES PRACTICE.

The subscriber has published the second edition of the Justices Practice by J. H. B. Latrobe. This edition brings down the Laws relating to the Justices of the Peace and Constables, and those subjects in connection with which their agency may be required, to Dec. 1834 which terminated to March 1835 inclusive. While the general arrangement of the work remains nearly the same as in the first edition, a great deal of matter has been added which experience had shown to be useful, and in particular the chapter on conveyancing has been very much enlarged, so as to furnish the Justice of the Peace with precedents in most of the cases connected with the transfer of property, that can occur before him.

The Silk Manual.

Just published and for sale by Sinclair & Moore and Robt. Sinclair, Jr. at the Maryland Agricultural Repository, Light near Pratt street, Baltimore, a complete Manual of the Silk Culture, in which plain instructions are laid down for the culture of the Mulberry, the feeding of the Silk worms, management of the cocoons, reeling, spinning and drying of the Silk. In fine, it is a perfect Manual, and comprises every department of the business The rules are arranged in so plain and methodical a manner that every one can understand them, and by a very few hours attention be come master of the business. It is clearly demonstrated in this Manual, that largely upwards of $500 may be netted from an acre in the Culture; and it is a singular fact connected with the Mulberry as adapted to the making of Silk, that poor dry, sandy or gravelly land suits it best, the fabric made from worms fed on leaves raised on such soil, being greatly superior in elasticity and richness of gloss to those grown on rich grounds.
