And the said cause so standing was continued until August Term eighteen hundred and twenty seven, when the Court passed the following decree.

Philip Greenwell vs Henry G. J. Key & others | In Saint Marys county Court sitting as a Court of Equity August Term 1827.

This case being submitted, the Bill answer and all other proceedings have been by the Court read and carefully considered. It is thereupon this 17th day of August 1827 adjudged ordered and decreed that the Injunction issued in this cause be and the same is hereby dissolved and the bill dismissed but without costs.

John Stephen.

Memorandum. At the argument and decision of this case the Honorable Edmund Key and John R. Plater Esquires Associate Judges withdrew from the Bench.

Whereupon the said Philip Greenwell by Gerard Mcsween and Nicholas Hungerford his Solicitor aforesaid prays an appeal from the decree aforesaid to the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore, and the same was accordingly granted. and thereupon the said Philip Greenwell by his Solicitor aforesaid, files in Court here the following appeal bond to wit.

Know all men by these presents that we Philip Greenwell, Benedict Spalding and Francis Abell of Saint Marys county in the State of Maryland are held and firmly bound unto Henry G. J. Key and Henrietta H. Key his wife of the county and State aforesaid and John Taylor of Washington county in the District of Columbia in the full and just sum of sixteen thousand dollars current money to be paid to the said Henry G. J. Key and Henrietta H. Key his wife and John Taylor or to their certain attorney, their executors administrators or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves and every of us our and every of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this eighteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven. Whereas at a County Court sitting as a Court of Equity begun and held at Leonard Town in and for Saint Marys County on the first Monday of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, the said Court decreed as follows, to wit:

Philip Greenwell vs Henry G. J. Key and others. | In Saint Marys County Court sitting as a Court of Equity. August Term 1827.

This case being submitted, the bill answer and all other proceedings have been by the Court read and carefully considered. It is thereupon this 17 day of August 1827 adjudged ordered and decreed that the Injunction issued in this cause be and the same is hereby dissolved and the bill dismissed but without costs. From which said Decree so as aforesaid passed the said Philip Greenwell hath prayed an appeal to the next Court of Appeals to be held for the Western Shore. Now the condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Philip Greenwell shall not cause a transcript of the record and proceedings of the said Decree to be transmitted to the Court of Appeals to be holden for the Western Shore within the time required by law, and prosecute the said appeal with effect and also in all respects obey and perform the decree of Saint Marys County Court as a Court of Equity and also satisfy and pay to the said Henry G. J. Key and Henrietta H. Key his wife and John Taylor their executors administrators or assigns in case the said Decree shall be affirmed, as well all and singular the debt and damages adjudged in the said County Court sitting as a Court of Equity, as also all damages and costs that may be awarded by the said Court of Appeals, then this bond to be void remain in full force and virtue otherwise of no effect.

Signed sealed and delivered in the presence of Wm. J. Maddox. — Philip Greenwell (Seal) Benedict Spalding (Seal) Francis Abell (Seal)

It was therefore ordered by the Court here that the record and proceedings aforesaid with all things thereunto relating be transmitted to the said Court of Appeals for the Western Shore. and the same are transmitted to the said Court accordingly
