THE HERO

From the Knickerbocker.

'My God directs the Storm'.

BY J. N. M'JILTON.

The Spirit of the Tempest shook
His wing of Raven hue
Above the sea, and hollow winds
Howled o'er the waters blue.

Up rose the mountain billows high,
And swept a stormy path;
Darkness and Terror mingled there
Their ministry of wrath.

A lonely bark, by bounding seas
Tost wildly to and fro,
Dashed o'er the billows foaming brow
To fearful depths below.

Crash echoed crash!—the quivering spars
Broke o'er the leaning side,
And left the bark a shattered wreck,
The stormy waves to ride.

The sturdy seaman struggled hard
To hold the yielding helm,
And keep the ship's prow to the surge,
That threatened to o'erwhelm,

And when the plunging ruin spurned
Their impotant control
They flew to drown their gloomy fear
In the accursed bowl.

Upon the raging ocean then,
Helpless was left the bark
To the wild mercy of the waves,
Amid the tempest dark.

Upon the deck, alone there stood,
A man of courage high,
A hero, from whose bosom fear
Had never drawn a sigh.

With folded arms, erect he stood,
His countenance was mild,—
And calmly gazing on the scene,
He bowed his head and smiled.

A wild shriek from the cabin rose,—
Up rushed his beauteous bride;
With locks dishevelled, and in tears,
She trembled at his side.

'O why, my love, upon thy lip'
She cried, doth play that smile,
When all is gloom and terror here,
And I must weep the while?'

No word the warrior spoke,—but he
Drew from beneath his vest
A pistol bright, and placed its point
Against her heaving breast.

She started not, nor shrieked in dread,
As she had shrieked before;
But stood astonished, and surveyed
His tranquil features o'er.

'Now why,' he asked, 'dost thou not start!
May not thy blood be spilt?'
With sweet composure she replied,
'My husband holds the hilt!'

'Dost wonder, than, that I am calm,
That fear shakes not my form?
I ne'er can tremble while I know
'My God directs the Storm!'

A SUPPLEMENT

To an Act, entitled an Act to incorporate a Fire Insurance Company in the City of Baltimore.

WHEREAS it is represented to this General Assembly by the petition of the Baltimore Fire Insurance Company that their charter of Incorporation is about to expire, and they pray an extension of the same under certain amendments and modifications hereinafter provided—and the said prayer appearing reasonable, Therefore—

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act entitled an act to Incorporate a Fire Insurance Company in the City of Baltimore passed at November session, eighteen hundred and seven, and by supplement thereto passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty, extended and continued until the twentieth of February, eighteen hundred and forty, and until the end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter be made perpetual: Provided nevertheless that the Legislature of Maryland may amend or repeal any of the provisions thereof after the expiration of the year eighteen hundred and fifty six.

Sec 2. And be it enacted, That the Capital stock of the said Company heretofore divided into ten thousand shares at Fifty Dollars each be subdided into Fifty Thousand shares of Ten Dollars each share,—Twenty Thousand shares of which are herein and hereby reserved and retained as the property of the present stockholders of the company.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That of the remaining Thirty Thousand shares, each Fire Company in the City of Baltimore shall be entitled to subscribe by itself for its own use, in its corporate capacity or by means of Trustees for the use of said company or the members of the Company may in their individual capacity for the use of themselves, or the Company, or Companies to which they belong subscribe for an amount of stock not to exceed in the whole Two Thousand shares for each company.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the subscription of one thousand shares by any Fire Company in the city of Baltimore, by itself or its members shall entitle the said company to send one Director to the General Board of Directors of said company.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the Board of Directors of said company may be hereafter increased to thirty—Fifteen thereof to be elected by the present stockholders and their successors and assigns, and the other fifteen by the respective Fire Companies of the city of Baltimore who may hereafter join the Corporation.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the said respective Fire Companies who may as aforesaid subscribe to the Capital stock of this company to the amount of one thousand shares shall hold separate meetings within three weeks after the said amount of one thousand shares shall be subscribed for, and on the first Monday in March in each and every year thereafter, and choose by ballot from among their members the Directors to which they shall be entitled as aforesaid—And in such election the proportion of voters assigned to each stockholder shall be regulated by the provisions of the original charter of this company, and the said Directors so elected (before he enters upon the duties of his office) shall produce a certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Company to which he belongs, of his election as a Director to represent said company in the General Board of Directors.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the Books for the subscription of said two thousand shares by each of the respective Fire Companies and their members shall be opened at the office of the Baltimore Fire Insurance Company or at such other place as the President and Directors may designate after giving four weeks notice thereof in all the daily newspapers in the city of Baltimore, and if the whole amount shall not be subscribed the first day the books shall remain open at the said office for the space of six months: and as soon as the amount of one thousand shares shall be subscribed on the part of any of the said Fire Companies, the Secretary of this Corporation shall forthwith notify the President of the said Fire Company thereof, who shall thereupon call the meeting required by the preceding section for the election of a Director as therein provided, and so much of the said stock as remains unsubscribed at the end of the said six months shall then by public notice be further offered for General subscription to individuals or Fire Companies as aforesaid over and above two thousand shares each, or may be retained by the company at the option of the President and Directors. Provided nevertheless, that if at any time hereafter, any of the aforesaid Fire Companies of the City of Baltimore shall by purchase or otherwise become the proprietors of one thousand shares, such company shall thereupon become entitled to the privileges herein as before reserved to them.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the sum of two dollars be paid on each share of said stock at the time of subscribing, and the further sum of three dollars at the expiration of six months thereafter, and the President and Directors of the Company shall call upon the Stockholders for the remaining subscription in further annual instalments of one dollar in each year thereafter until the whole subscription to the capital stock as aforesaid be paid in, and a failure to pay the same within the period limited shall create a forfeiture to the company of the stock of any delinquent, unless under special circumstances remitted by the President and Directors of the company.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the present stock, assets, funds, and estate of the company shall be appraised in the manner hereinafter provided for, for the purpose of ascertaining the true value of each share of said stock, and each stockholder shall be credited on the stock list of the company, the actual true value of his stock so ascertained, and so far as the same is ascertained to be below the par value of said stock (to wit the sum of ten dollars) the balance thereof shall be called in at the time corresponding with the instalments upon the other thirty thousand shares after there shall have been paid upon them the amount of the estimate hereby provided for—Provided nevertheless, that the dividends of said company hereafter declared, shall be paid to the several stockholders in the proportion of the capital respectively paid in by them.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That before the books shall be opened for the subscription of said thirty thousand shares remaining, the President and Directors of said company shall appoint three discreet and intelligent persons residents of the city of Baltimore and not stockholders in said company (who upon reasonable compensation paid to them as appraisers) shall proceed to ascertain the true and actual value of the present capital stock of the company now paid in, estimating therein all the assets of the company: which they shall certify under their hands to the said President and Directors for the purposes of the preceding section, and in the discharge of this duty the said appraisers shall have at all times when required by them access to the books and papers of said company, and before proceeding to make the said valuation, the appraisers shall make the following oath or affirmation:

(A B) Do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will truly and justly without partiality, examine the books and papers of the Baltimore Fire Insurance Company and certify to the President and Directors thereof to the best of my skill and judgement, the true and actual value of the capital stock of said company, which certificate when returned under oath as aforesaid shall be filed among the records of proceedings of said company.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That separate stock lists shall be kept of the stock of this company designating the stock held by the respective Fire Companies and their members, and the stock owned by others not members of any Fire Company distinguishing the stock owned by the present proprietors or their assigns of the twenty thousand reserved shares.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That no Director of any other Fire Insurance Company shall be a Director of this, and should any director of this company be elected a Director of any other Fire Insurance Company his acceptance of that appointment shall ipso facto disqualify him from continuing a Director of this Company.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That every member of any of the Fire Companies associated with this charter and every stockholder shall be entitled to effect Insurance at a discount of five per cent less than other persons upon producing to the satisfaction of Directors a certificate of his right of membership in such company,

Sec. 14. And be it enacted. That in case of death, resignation, or disqualification of the Director from any of the Fire Companies, the place of such Director for the remainder of the year shall be filled up by the company from which such Director had been delegated.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors shall from time to time, apply all sums received by them for premiums and dividends, and interest on their investments to the payment of charges and losses in the first instance, and to make up the amount of their original capital when it shall sustain a diminution from any cause whatever, and shall make such dividends of their clear net profits from time to time as they shall judge expedient, Provided that before making any such dividend as aforesaid, the said President and Directors shall first retain one fifth of the said net profits to be held and invested as a contingent fund to pay losses; and Provided that the said contingent fund shall at no time exceed the sum of two hundred thousand dollars:

Sec. 16, And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for said corporation to make loans upon bond and mortgage and other securities on real estate, and to convert any portion of their capital stock into real estate from time to time not exceeding three fourths of their capital, and shall have power and authority to provide for the investment of the funds of said corporation in the public debt of the United States, or of the State or of the City of Baltimore, or in the stock or funds of any corporation of this State, Provided that nothing contained in this act shall be construed to authorise the said Company to issue, or put into circulation any negotiable note, or notes payable to bearer, or notes in the nature of Bank notes, nor to authorise any contract which by existing laws amounts to usury nor to garantee in any manner whatever the payment of any chose in action, and that the real estate which the corporation shall be entitled to hold, except on mortgage, shall be only such as shall be actually necessary for the convenient transaction of its business.

Sec. 17 And be it enacted, That all contracts, policies and other instruments not under seal made by said corporation shall be good and valid in law and equity.

Sec. 18, And be it enacted, That the said corporation by its President and Directors is hereby permitted when hereafter deemed expedient and useful, to enlarge its capital by fifty thousand additional shares to the exient of one million of Dollars, and upon the formation of each of any other fire companies that may hereafter be formed in the city of Baltimore, it shall be the duty of this corporation to open books for subscription, by or on behalf of such new company, or the members thereof for two thousand shares of stock in manner and subject to all the regulations and conditions as to such subscription and with all the privileges as to electing a director or directors as are herein before provided, in respect to the existing fire companies or the members thereof, and the subscription of stock by said fire companies; and at the same time there shall be offered for general subscription the like number of shares, that shall be offered for subscription on part of the said new fire company or companies under the same regulations and conditions as hereinbefore provided, concerning general subscriptions of stock and for each Director which such new fire company shall become entitled to have and elect as aforesaid, the general stockholders shall, on their part, be entitled to have and elect one additional Director, and the additional stock that shall by virtue of the provisions of this section be subscribed shall be rated and paid for it such sum for each share as the valuation of the then existing capital stock of the corporation shall show the worth of the shares of such capital stock repectively to then be; such valuation to be made in manner as directed in respect of the appraisement prescribed of the present stock; Provided however, that such additional shares shall not be rated at less than ten dollars for each share.

Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That the concerns of this company shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the Treasurer of the Western Shore or of such other officer or agent of the state as may be selected for that purpose by either branch of the Legislature, and that the Legislature shall at all times have full power to lay any tax on the said company which it shall be authorised to lay on any similar companies or the property of said companies.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That this act shall have no force or effect unless it be accepted by a majority of the stockholders of the company convened for the purpose of submitting the same, upon four weeks notice in all of the daily newspapers in the city of Baltimore to be given by the President and Directors of the company, and this act if so accepted shall be taken and held as part of the charter originally granted to said company, and of the same force and effect as the said original charter.

Sec. 21. And be it enacted; That so much of the act and its supplements, to which this is a supplement as may be inconsistent with this, be and the same is hereby repealed.

We certify that the aforegoing is a true copy of the act entitled a supplement to an act enfitled an act to incorporate a Fire Insurance Company in the city of Baltimore, which passed the general assembly of Maryland at December session, one thousand eighteen hundred and thirty five.

Given under our hands at the city of Annapolis this 10th day of March, 1836.

JOS. H. NICHOLSON, Clk. Senate Md.
GEORGE G. BREWER, Clk House Del. Md.

In compliance with the 20th section of the aforegoing supplement, a general meeting of the Stockholders of the Baltimore fire Insurance Company will be held at the Company's office, on Monday, the 2nd day of May next, for the purpose of determining upon the adoption or rejection of the above supplement to the original Charter of the Company.

Two Hundred Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber, living on Goose Creek, near New Market, Dorchester county, Eastern Shore of Maryland, on Monday, 8th of February last, negro about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a dark chesnut color and rather a fierce look, with small whiskers near his chin. He is a little bowlegged, yet straight built, and has on his breast below his neck a King's Evil, or lump, nearly as large as a hen's egg. His clothes are a drab flushing over jacket, trowsers of new blue Kersey, with a fur or hair cap (not his own,) his shoes recently half soled, with sparrow bills in the bottoms. The above described man is about 21 years old.

WESLEY,

One hundred dollars will be given for his apprehension, if taken in this or any of the adjoining counties; and the above reward if taken out of the State and secured so that I get him again.

He was seen in the neighborhood of Cambridge on Thursday, previous to his departure. He passes himself off as a sailor.
