From the Baltimore Patriot of Thursday last.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.—Twenty six counties of the Ancient Dominion voted on Monday last—and nearly an equal number voted on each of the three preceding Mondays, in the month of April. There remain yet to vote, the counties of Hanover, Amelia, Elizabeth City, Madison and Tazewell, which hold their elections in all the present week. Many of the counties which voted on Monday last, are not yet heard from; but enough is known to produce the impression, if not to warrant the conclusion, that no material change has been effected in the party complexion of the State Legislature. The Administration strength will, doubtless, be somewhat diminished from what it was last year, but not, as we anticipate, sufficiently so to change the character of the two Houses, or to hazard the supremacy of 'the party' therein. But the popular vote exhibits a very different and far more encouraging state of things for the Whigs. Their real strength as thus unerringly indicated, is evidently on the increase. And in November next when every vote tells there cannot be a doubt that they will gain the victory and redeem that Ancient Commonwealth from the hands of the "spoilers."

The Richmond Whig of Tuesday, in reference to the elections, now nearly closed says: 'The returns are well, very well. Every man who knows the State, feels satisfied that the New York faction is down. The Whigs are gaining at the polls most handsomely—increasing their own, and reducing the majorities of the Van Burenites. Victory is certain in November, with common activity and vigilance. A small majority in the Legislature, will be silenced by the November elections.'

For the Easton Gazette.

"Calhoun's Weasel" it seems, after a great of some days, has left his miry hole again, and while I undertake to exhibit to public the glare, the many foul deceptions, perversion and misstatements of facts, made by him in relation to the duties of the Treasurer of the Eastern Shore, I trust I may be allowed, so far to digress from the main question, as to award to him just praise for his candour in acknowledging that it is under the administration of President Jackson that the Franking privilege has been carried to the greatest extent, and has been the most abused—That matter, though altogether irrelevant, being put to rest, I am again to the point, and will first point out of his many absurdities, notice his fanciful refutation of my reasoning, to show that the Treasurers duties have been greatly multiplied. He asks, doubtless, he thinks sagely too, if the duties for twelve months require him to write two sheets of paper, and he should write one sheet every six months, where is the increase of labour? I would ask where is his honesty in putting the question in so false a shape, and whether it is not him, rather than 'one of the People,' that would gull & deceive his fellow citizens? I am willing to submit this fact to their decision—and I again say, that semi annual instead of annual settlements to say nothing of any thing else, double his duties, and I will show it in such a light as cannot be clouded, even by the chicanery of "Calhoun's Weasel,"—for example as to the annual settlement.

		A. B. Dr.
1820, Nov. 1,	To amount of revenue for one year to this date, say	$2,000 00
" "	By cash received on revenue for 1 year to this date	2,000 00

And now as to the semi-annual settlement

		A. B. Dr.
1885, May 1,	To amount of revenue for six months to this date, say	$1,000 00
" "	By cash received on revenue for 6 months to this date	$1,000 00

		A. B. Dr.
1835, Nov. 1,	To amount of revenue for six months to this date, say	$1,000 00
" "	By cash received on revenue for 6 months to this date,	$1,000 00

Now I would ask any honest man to compare the statement of the semi-annual with that of the annual settlement, and say, whether, so far from declaring the truth, "Calhoun's Weasel" has not attempted the grossest deception. It is most clearly seen that, in journalizing these settlements, two entries only, are required for the first, while four for the latter are necessary, and if this tawny looking animal has intelligence enough to enumerate the words and figures, he will find that the annual settlement, amounts to but forty four, whilst the semi annual settlements number eighty eight words and figures. And yet by his reasoning and deductions, it will take double the space and labor to write the former, that it will that of the latter.—Can any thing be more shamefully ignorant and absurd, and still he presumes thus to insult the understandings of an honest community. 'Calhoun's Weasel' shows himself to be as little conversant with the system of book keeping, as he is with the information necessary to be embodied in the Treasurer's reports, and in fact, as he is with the whole subject that has given rise to his stupid productions. I understand there are several modes of book keeping,—by single entre.—By double entries &c. but the one he has suggested. I must confess is novel and new to me. He says he knows any thing about book keeping, thus to preserve the dollars and cents—But his knowledge of it, enables me to know that one may keep his books correctly, though he should even scatter his money to the winds. So that book keeping is no part of, simply, taking care of the dollars and cents, and 'Calhoun's Weasel' falls as far short of a proper knowledge of it, as he has every thing else he has attempted to establish. It is utterly unfounded and false that it has ever been denied that the Treasurer's having to perform the duties of the State's Agent, was one cause of the proposed increase in his salary, as is stated by 'Calhoun's Weazel'—Neither has it been said that in performing the duties which once devolved upon that officer, the Treasurer had to travel through the State, as the State's Agent had to do. It is not necessary that he should, as he is enabled to do those duties in his office.

The framers of the Constitution of Maryland, considered it necessary that there should be a Treasurer for the Eastern Shore, and I am inclined to the belief that their views and opinions on that as well as most other subjects, were quite as likely to be correct as are those even of 'Calhoun's Weasel.' In those by gone days some regard was had to the interest and convenience of the people; but now to get into political power, it matters not by what means it is effected, seems to be the only consideration.

As to the time necessary to transact the business of the Treasurer, that depends upon circumstances. I doubt very much whether every day in the year would be sufficient for 'Calhoun's Weasel' to do it in. In the present case more depends upon the officers, than the officer. Wherever they call, however often it may be, the Treasurer must be in place to attend to their business.

'Calhoun's Weasel' says, I had bet or drop the subject—doubtless he is becoming weary of it, finding as he must have done, that he has gained nothing by the contest. He struck the first blow, I pledge myself to strike the last.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

"STOP MY PAPER!"

Of all the silly, short-sighted, ridiculous American phrases, this as it is frequently used, in the most vile and unmeaning. We are called an infant nation, and truly we often conduct ourselves like children. We have a certain class of subscribers who take the Mirror, and profess to like its contents, till by-and-by an opinion meets their view with which they do not agree.—What do they, then, in their sagacity? Turn to their nearest companion with a passing comment upon the error they think they have detected? or direct a brief communication to the editor begging to dissent therefrom, in the same pages where the article which displeased them has appeared? No: Get into a passion, and for all we know, stamp and swear, and instantly before the foam has time to cool on their lips, write a letter, commencing with—Stop my paper!'

If we say, rents are exorbitantly high, and landlords should be too generous to take advantage of an accidental circumstance—round comes a broad hat and gold headed cane, with 'Sir, stop my paper!' Does an actor receive a bit of advice? The green room is too hot to hold him till relieved by those revengeful word—'Stop my paper!' If we ever praise one, some envious rival steals roomily in—with—'Sir, if you please, stop my paper!' We dare not hope to navigate the ocean with steamboats, but our paper is 'stopped by a ship-captain.' Our doctor nearly lost us to die the other day, because a correspondent had praised an enemy of 'our college,' and we expect a fieri facias' in the office presently, on account of something which we understand somebody has said against some lawsuit in, we do not remember, what court. But all these affairs were outdone yesterday by the following:—

We were sitting in our elbow-chair ruminating on the decided advantage of virtue over vice, when a little, withered Frenchman, with a cowhide as long as himself, and twice as heavy, rushed in to our presence.

'Sair!' and he stopped to breathe.

'Well, sir?'

'Monsieur!' he stopped again to take breath.

'Diable, Monsieur!' and he flourished his instrument about his head.

Really, my friend,' said we, smiling, for he was not an object to be frightened about, 'when you have perfectly finished amusing yourself with that weapon, we should like to be the master of our own leisure.'

'No, sair; I have come to horsewhip you wid dis cowhide!'

We took a pistol from a drawer, cocked it, and aimed it at his head.

'Pardon, sair,' said the Frenchman, 'I will first give you some explanation.—Monsieur, If you have write dis article?'

We looked it over and acknowledged ourself the author. It was a few lines referring to the great improvements in railroads, and intimating that this mode of travelling would one day supercede every other.

'You have write dat in your papair?'

'Yes, sir.'

Well, den sair, 'stop you dem paiper' I have live quarante neuf ans. I have devote all my life to ride de balloon!—c'est ma grand passion! Bien. Monsieur! I shall look to find every one wis his little balloon—to ride horseback in de air—to go round de world in one sum mair, and make me rich like Monsieur Astair, wis de big hotel. Well, Monsieur now you put piece in you dem paiper to say dat de rail road. Monsieur, de littel rail road, supercede—viola supercede'—Dat is what you say—supercede every thing else.—Monsieur, begar I have de honnair to inform you dat the rail road nevair supercede de balloon—and also. Monsieur rentre blue' 'stop you dem papain?'—N. Y Mirror.

In consequence of a settled disease, I have had for more than two years, deprives me of paying that attention to my farms that is necessary to my interest, and have come to the conclusion of disposing at private sale my farm lying within four miles of the Trappe, and about one mile from Great Cheptank River, containing 844 acres of land—this farm is now, lain off in three lots, and three fields, the former is well improved, and the latter can be made so, as the soil is chiefly white oak land; there is a new brick well of first rate water in the yard, and also a fine Mineral Spring within in 300 yards of the dwelling, this tract of land, was formerly in two farms and can be made so again, if persons should be disposed to purchase together—the TIMBER is very abundant, being much more than is necessary for the farm, which could be disposed of, to great advantage by a person living on the estate.

The timber consists chiefly of white oak. The situation is considered healthy. Persons disposed to purchase, will of course view the property.

Terms of sale.—On the delivery of the estate one fourth of the purchase money must be paid in cash, and the balance in 1, 2 and 3 years equal payments with approved security, interest from the date until paid, and on the payment of the whole purchase money, and not before a good and sufficient Deed will be given.
