seised, for said, at public vendue on the fourth day of December eighteen hundred and thirty at the residence of the said Fielder Bowie in the county aforesaid by nailing up a written notice thereof at the Court House Door of the said County, and setting up written notices of the same at other public places in the said county, but there being no newspapers printed in the said County, no other than the above notices were given and on the said fourth day of December eighteen hundred and thirty, between the hours of eleven o'clock A. M. and two o'clock P. M. I sold said lands and tenements so seized and advertised as aforesaid at public vendue to Walter B. C. Worthington of the said county, the highest bidder for them, for the sum of twenty five hundred dollars current money - and then and there received from the said Walter B. C. Worthington the said sum of twenty five hundred dollars. And in manner aforesaid I have caused to be made of the lands and tenements of the said Fielder Bowie the said sum of twenty five hundred dollars, and have the said sum before the Court at the place and day named in the said writ in part satisfaction of the debt, damages and costs as stated in the said writ, as to me is commanded, and do return the said writ with Bond as to the residue. Ed: W. Bell Shff.

State of Maryland, Prince Georges County to wit. Be it remembered that on this fourth day of December in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty personally appear William G. Jackson, Eleazer Talbot, Michael Blandford and John A. Waring all freeholders in said county, who make oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that in appraising such real estate of Fielder Bowie as shall be shown to them to satisfy a fieri facias and all fas issued out of the court of appeals for the Western Shore of Maryland in the case of William C. Hodgskins, Henry Lyles and Margaret Lancaster administrators of David Lancaster use of Walter B. C. Worthington against the Fielder Bowie, Philemon Chew, William N. Dorsett, Thomas Bruce and Josias Young, they will act faithfully and impartially according to their best skill and judgment.

before me, Henry M. Chew Justice of the Peace

State of Maryland, Prince Georges County to wit. We the subscribers being duly summoned and sworn by the Sheriff of Prince Georges county, by virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued out of the court of appeals for the western Shore of Maryland in the name of William C. Hodgskin, Henry Lyles and Margaret Lancaster administrators of David Lancaster use of Walter B. C. Worthington against Fielder Bowie, Philemon Chew, William N. Dorsett, Thomas Bruce and Josias Young, to appraise the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Fielder Bowie, late of the said county, do appraise the same in current money as follows to wit - Part of a tract of land called Leith, containing about two hundred acres at seventeen hundred dollars current money, being the same land devised by the last will and testament of Allen Bowie to Fielder Bowie bearing date on the twenty fifth day of January seventeen hundred and eighty three, and conveyed by Fielder Bowie to Allen Bowie by deed bearing date on the second day of April in the year seventeen hundred and ninety one, as by reference to the said last will and testament recorded in the Orphans Court of Prince Georges county, and to the said deed among the land records of Prince Georges county will more fully appear. Part of a tract of land called Mount Calvert Manor containing seventeen acres of land, more or less, at one hundred and thirty six dollars current money being the same land devised to Fielder Bowie by Allen Bowie, by his last will and testament, bearing date as aforesaid, and conveyed by Fielder Bowie to Allen Bowie by the above recited deed, as will appear by reference as aforesaid to the said last will and testament, and to the said deed; also part of a tract of land called Chance, containing twenty nine acres more or less at two hundred and ninety dollars current money, being the same land devised by Allen Bowie to Fielder Bowie by his last will and testament above recited, and by Fielder Bowie conveyed to Allen Bowie by the above recited deed, as will appear by reference as aforesaid to the said last will and testament and to the said deed, being also the same land conveyed by Thomas Sim Lee and Judson Cooledge to Fielder Bowie by deed bearing date on the third day of April in the year seventeen hundred and seventy six, as by reference to the said last mentioned deed among the land records of Prince Georges County recorded, will more fully appear; all those tracts or parts of tracts of land called Essex Lodge conveyed by Thomas Sim Lee and Judson Coolidge to Fielder Bowie by deed bearing date on the third day of April seventeen hundred and seventy six, and conveyed by Fielder Bowie to Allen Bowie, by deed bearing date on the second day of April in the year seventeen hundred and ninety one, except one hundred and nineteen and three quarter acres, sold by Fielder Bowie, the above named defendant to Philemon Chew, leaving in the possession of the said Bowie, two hundred and seventy five, and three quarter acres more or less at forty six hundred and eighty six dollars current money, as will appear by reference to the deed from Lee and Coolidge as aforesaid and from Fielder Bowie to Allen Bowie as aforesaid, and from the above defendant Fielder Bowie to Philemon Chew, recorded among the land records of Prince Georges county; all that tract or part of a tract of land called Leith, conveyed by Edward Selby to Fielder Bowie, by deed bearing date on the sixteenth day of January in the year eighteen hundred and twenty four, containing ninety five acres more or less at nine hundred and fifty dollars current money as by reference to the said deed among the land records of Prince Georges County will more fully appear; all that tract or parcel of land called Leith contained in a deed from William A. Selby to David Lancaster bearing date on the twenty ninth day of October in the year seventeen hundred and ninety nine, containing two hundred acres more or less as will appear by reference to the said deed among the land records of Prince Georges county, and sold but not conveyed by David Lancaster to Fielder Bowie, at thirty four hundred dollars current money; all that tract or parcel of land called Discovery conveyed by William A. Selby to David Lancaster by the above recited deed containing eight and a half acres of land as by reference as aforesaid to the said deed will fully appear, at one hundred and forty four and half dollars current