James McComick Jr.
vs.
William Dudley Digges, Leonard McDeakins and Abraham Clarke.

Be it remembered, That heretofore to wit, on the thirty first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty, James McComick Jr. by John Scott and Revardy Johnson his attorneys prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Venditioni exponas to the late Sheriff of Prince George county directed, in the words and figures following to wit.

Maryland Set. The State of Maryland, to Thomas Osborne Esquire late Sheriff of Prince Georges county Greeting. Whereas at a county Court begun and held at Upper Marlboro Town in and for Prince Georges county on the first Monday in September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen a certain James McComick Junior by the judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain William Dudley Digges late of Prince Georges county Gentleman as well the sum of five thousand dollars current money for his damages which he had sustained by occasion of the non performance of a certain promise and assumption to the said James McComick Jr. by the said William D Digges before that time made as the sum of five dollars and seventy cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said William D Digges is convicted, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of appeals on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen that the said judgment given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said James McComick Jr. might have execution against the said William D Digges for as well the debt, damages costs and charges as adjudged unto him in the said county Court, as also for the sum of nine dollars and ninety six cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said William D Digges before the said Court of appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said William D Digges is convicted, as of record & likewise appeareth, for which said damages costs and charges the said William D Digges, and certain Leonard McDeakins and Abraham Clarke on the twenty six days of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty before Edmund B Duvall Esquire one of the Justices of the orphans Court for Prince

Georges county aforesaid, did confess judgment to the said James McComick Jr. the said damages, costs and charges to be levied of their bodies goods and chattels lands and tenements for the use of the said James McComick Junior, in case the said William D Digges should not pay and satisfy to the said James McComick Jr. the damages costs and charges so as aforesaid recovered against him with the additional costs thereon, at the respective times hereinafter mentioned to wit; one third part thereof with the interest due on the whole sum, and all the costs, on or before the thirtieth day of November then next; one third part thereof with the interest due on the whole sum then unpaid, with the additional costs, on or before the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty one, and the residue thereof with the interest thereon and additional costs, on or before the thirtieth day of November in the year eighteen hundred and twenty one, according to the acts of assembly in such case made and provided, which said confession in form aforesaid taken, was by the same Justices returned to the Court of appeals, and whereof the said William Dudley Digges, Leonard McDeakins, and Abraham Clarke are convicted as of record is manifest. And whereas also on the third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three, you were commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said William Dudley Digges, Leonard McDeakins and Abraham Clarke being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the damages costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums of money before the said Court of appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis, on the first Monday in December then next, to render unto the said James McComick Jr. the damages costs and charges aforesaid, on which said first Monday in December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty three, you made return to the said Court of appeals that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose, you had taken, negroes, Moses, Ned, Rusty, Jack, Joe, Hannah, Betsey, Magdalene, Sophia, Susan, Louisa, Peter, John, Patience, James, Tom, Judy, Ann, and twenty thousand weight of Tobacco this years growth, and two hundred acres of land part of Walnut Manor in Prince Georges county, and adjoining Fort Washington, of the lands and tenements, goods and chattels of the said William Dudley Digges in your bailiwick being, to satisfy unto the said James McComick Jr. the damages costs and charges aforesaid in the said writ mentioned, which said lands, and tenements, goods and chattels, remained in your hands unsold for want of buyers, so that the said damages costs and charges you could not have, as you were by the said writ commanded. Therefore you are hereby commanded, that the said lands and tenements goods and chattels, so as aforesaid taken, you expose to sale, and the money thereupon arising you have before the said Court of Appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first Monday in December next, to render unto the said James McComick Junior, the damages costs and charges aforesaid, and all such costs as have accrued on the said writ of fieri facias, and how you shall execute this writ, you make appear unto the said Court of appeals, at the place and on the day aforesaid, and have you then
