DEATH OF THE GOVERNOR OF DELAWARE.—Caleb P Bennett, Governor of the State of Delaware, died on Saturday evening last, at his residence in Wilmington. He was 78 years of age The duties of the office will devolve upon Charles Polk, Speaker of the Senate and formerly Governor of the State.

The captain of the Texian armed schooner Invincible, which arrived at New Orleans about a fortnight ago, reports that he captured off the Brasos o Matamoras, the American brig Pocket, and carried her into the Bay of Galveston, where he left her discharging.—This brig was cleared from New Orleans about the end of March with a cargo of provisions, and the cargo is insured by the Louisiana State Insurance Company for 8000 dollars.

Balt. American.

After giving this statement of facts, the New Orleans Courier with great propriety asks—

'Is the American flag no longer a protection to the property it covers? If an American vessel is captured for carrying provisions, what will prevent their being captured for carrying specie, merchandise or any other article whatever? We are informed that orders have been forwarded to the Mexican coast to stop all shipments of specie except by the British packets to Falmouth until this matter is decided.'

The Baltimore American of yesterday says

The annexed statements, we regret to say, leave no room to doubt the accuracy of the accounts which have heretofore reached us, of the deliberate and cold blooded massacre perpetrated by the Mexican soldiery upon their Texian prisoners belonging to Fannin's and other detachments The fate of Colonel Fannin himself is yet doubtful, that officer having been left behind at Goliad with a few others, in consequence of their wounds.

From the New Orleans Courier, April 27

We, the undersigned, Wilson Simpson, Dillard Cooper and Zachariah S. Brooks, do declare that we were members of Capt Shackleford's company in the late division of the Texian army, commanded by Col. J. W. Fannin; that after the surrender of Col. Fannin and his men, they were marched back to Goliad, where they were kept eight days, that early in the morning of the eighth day, they were ordered out, unarmed, in four divisions, to hunt up beeves, as they were informed; that they had proceeded not more than three hundred yards from the fort, when they were ordered to halt, lay down their blankets and face about; they did so, and were fired upon by the guards; that nearly every man in this division was killed by this fire—deponents not being wounded, made their escape by running—the other three divisions were fired on at the same time—deponents do not know their fate—they think, however, that very few of the whole number of prisoners, amounting in all to about four hundred men escaped—that Col Fannin having been wounded in the hip, was left in the fort when they marched out, with Dr. Shackleford Dr. Ferguson & Dr Burnard, who were kept in the fort to attend the wounded of the enemy—that they learned from the enemy during the time they were prisoners, that they had one hundred and ninety men killed and wounded in the battle, and that their whole force consisted of about two thousand men.

Deponents further state that the Georgia battalion were taken prisoners near Dimitte's landing, and brought into the Fort the day before deponent's division marched out, and were marched out at the same time with the others, and which added to the number taken with Colonel Fannin, made upwards of four hundred men; that Colonel F. had about twenty five men wounded who were also left in the fort.

LATEST INDIAN AFFAIRS.

When the express left, the army had on its return from Tampa, reached the neighborhood of the Withlacoochee Gen Scott, with the command of Gen Eustis, was on the march to Volusia, where a post will be kept up. Gen Scott will proceed to St Augustine, and there establish his head quarters for the summer Gen. Clinch, was, after scouring the country bordering on the Withlacoochee, to march to Fort Drane, where he has, it is supposed, ere this arrived. Col. Lindsay, at the head of the centre column, did not leave Tampa Bay till the arrival there of Gen. Scott. He marched north also, with the two wings, and is to return to Tampa bay. All this being done, the campaign ends till next November. It is possible, but not very probable that one or the other of these three divisions have had or may have a skirmish with the Indians, before the close of the campaign.

The Louisiana Volunteers were discharged at Tampa Bay. The Georgia and South Carolina troops will be discharged, and return to their homes.

Col. Crockett.—The following is an extract of a letter from a gentleman in Louisiana, dated April 12th, to a Member of Congress:

"Crockett was found (within the Alamo) in an angle made by two houses, lying on his back, a frown on his brow, a smile of scorn on his lips—his knife in his hand, a dead Mexican lying across his body, and twenty two more lying pell-mell before him in the angle."

CLAIMS ON FRANCE.

The following notification appears in the Washington Globe of Thursday last.

Treasury Department,
May 11, 1836.

This Department is now issuing certificates to claimants in whose favor awards have been rendered under the convention with France. Those of the claimants. Who have not given directions respecting the manner in which the certificates shall issue are requested to inform the Department in relation thereto, and also where they are to be transmitted,

Part of the money due from France has arrived at New York.

We are happy to infer, almost certainly, from the Mexican official papers published to-day, that the whole story of the massacre of Colonel FANNIN's command, from beginning to end a fabrication, and that Colonel FANNIN and his men are now prisoners of war in the Mexican territory.—[Nat. Intel.

The National Anti-Masonic Convention which lately assembled in Philadelphia, has deemed it advisable to avoid making any nomination of a candidate for the Presidency, and has accordingly adjourned sine die, without having done so. This result will greatly tend to simplify matters in Pennsylvania, and to reconcile some elements of the Ritner and reform party, which have heretofore been in opposition to the Harrisburgh nomination of December last. That whole party, ninety four thousand strong, will now go in solid column for William Henry Harrison.—Patriot.

Mr ADAMS AND GEN JACKSON.

We are informed that several members of Congress have made inquires of the President in relation to the fact stated by Mr. Adams in debate, that he had consulted him (then a Major General in the United States Army.) in regard to the limits stipulated in the treaty of 1819, for the south western frontier of the Union. We are informed that the President, in reply to these inquiries, has said, that Mr. Adams must have fallen into some mistake; that he has not the slightest recollection of having been consulted on the subject; that he could not have expressed an opinion in regard to the topography of the country, or the nature and extent of the claim set up for it by our Government; and because the only point in the treaty with which his duties as a military man made him acquainted being Florida, he presumes, if consulted at all, in relation to the treaty; of which he has no recollection, it must have been in regard to that territory.—Globe

The editor of the Cincinnati Advertiser, an Administration paper, pays the following tribute to the integrity and patriotism of Gen. Harrison:

"General Harrison we do not only believe to be an honest man, but we know him to be so; his personal character we esteem and admire, he is open, candid and honest in his intentions; he is no hypocrite; he pretends not to hold principles which he does not approve in order to recommend himself to office; he speaks his mind freely and avowedly But no one who has the slightest knowledge of the character of Gen Harrison can truly charge upon him mercenary motives. He cares nothing for money. He never projected any public measure for the purpose of advancing his pecuniary interest. If he approved of, or promoted any public improvement, it was for the benefit of his country; not for his own."

JOHN RANDOLPH'S WILL

Decision Reversed.—We learn from the Richmond Compiler, that Judge Carr, on Tuesday last, delivered the opinion of the Court of Appeals, reversing the decision of the General Court, in the case of John Randolph's Will. The substance of the opinion delivered by Judge Carr, as given in that paper is; that on the first of January, 1832, John Randolph, of Roanoke, was of unsound mind, and therefore the paper purporting to be his last Will and testament is void. The Court, however, desired to be distinctly understood, that they express no opinion upon any other point. The Court was unanimous.

The Will of 1821 is before the General Court for probat, and it is to be presumed a contest will be made on that also. It will be remembered that this Will provides for the emancipation of all the slaves belonging to Mr Randolph's estate. It is probable the case will be taken up at the ensuing term in July.

On Crockett's return to his constituents after his first session in Congress, a nation of them surrounded him one day, and began to interrogate him about Washington. 'What time do they dine at Washington, Col. asked one. 'Why,' said he, 'the common people, such as you here, get dinner at one o'clock, but the gentry and big bugs dine at three.—As for us representatives, we dine at four and the aristocracy and the senate, they don't get their victuals till five!'—Well when does the President fodder?' asked another. 'Old Hickory!' exclaimed the Colonel, attempting to appoint a time in accordance with the dignity of the station.) Old Hickory! well, if he lines before the next day, I wish I may be totally d——!'

ANNAPOLIS, May 5

On the 30th April last, the body of a man was taken up in Magothy River, & buried on the land where Mr. John Hilton resides. He had on a blue close bodied coat, a great-coat either green or brown; two Marseilles waistcoats, black and white spots; grey casinet pantalets; black stockings, and black stock. Supposed to be about six feet high; some scraps of paper found in the pockets; the names of Wilson, Williams & Mills, was all that could be read. Had thirty dollars in bank notes, and two and a half in silver. It is supposed to be one of the persons drowned last fall when Mr. John Paca's schooner sunk off Poplar Island.—Md. Gazette.

The Hon. Richard J Manning, a member of Congress from South Carolina, died suddenly in Philadelphia, on Saturday afternoon. He had arrived there on the previous day, from Washington—His death was announced on Tuesday in the Senate, by Mr. Preston, and in the House of Representatives, by his colleague, Mr. Pinckney, in impressive and eloquent language. Both houses, after adopting the customary resolutions of mourning, &c. adjourned.

By letters from Opelousas, says the Franklin (La.) Gazette, we are informed that a rencontre, or what is commonly called a 'street fight,' took place in that town on the morning of the first instant, between Alston Youngblood, Esq and Lieut. N. Tilton, formerly of the American Navy, in which the latter was mortally wounded. The wound was inflicted with a pistol ball, which entered the side, and passed through the body just above the kindneys, causing death in about 7 hours.

OBITUARY.

DIED, in this Town, on Thursday evening last, Mr. John Wright, one of our most enterprising citizens He was a kind neighbor and an affectionate parent. Whilst living he was generally respected, and although now dead, his memory will long continue dear to all who are capable of appreciating those high moral, and social virtues which show so pre eminently in his life.

FOR SALE

In consequence of a settled disease, I have had for more than two years, deprives me of paying that attention to my farms that is necessary to my interest, and I have come to the conclusion of disposing at private sale my farm lying within four miles of the Trappe, and about one mile from Great Choptank River, containing 184½ acres of land—this farm is now laid off in three lots, and three fields, the former is well improved, and the latter can be made so, as the soil is chiefly white oak land; there is a new brick well of first rate water in the yard, and also a fine Mineral Spring within 300 yards of the dwelling, this tract of land was formerly in two farms and can be made so again, if persons should be disposed to purchase together—the TIMBER is very abundant, being much more than is necessary for the farm, which could be disposed of to great advantage by a person living on the estate. The timber consists chiefly of white oak The situation is considered healthy Persons disposed to purchase, will of course view the property

Terms of sale.—On the delivery of the estate one fourth of the purchase money must be paid in cash and the balance in 1, 2 and 3 years equal payments with approved security, interest from the date until paid; and on the payment of the whole purchase money and not before, a good and sufficient Deed will be given. Apply to Martin Goldsborough near the Trappe, who will offer the same at public sale (if not sold before) on the 17th of May, at 3 o'clock before the Court House door, in Easton.
