Lancelot Warfields Lessee
vs
Augustine Gambill.

Be it remembered, That heretofore to wit on the twenty sixth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty, a certain Richard Tenn Lessee of Lancelot Warfield by Alexander Magruder his attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Habere facias Possessionem to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel county directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland set. The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel county Greeting

(Seal) Whereas at a county Court begun and held at the City of Annapolis in and for Anne Arundel county on the third Monday of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, a certain Richard Tenn Lessee of a certain Lancelot Warfield by judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain Augustine Gambill late of the county aforesaid his term aforesaid yet to come and unexpired of and in two tracts or parcels of plantable land called "Friendship" and "what you please" containing five hundred acres with the appurtenances situated lying and being in Anne Arundel county aforesaid, which the said Lancelot Warfield on the second day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven had demised to the said Richard for a term of years not yet expired, to hold from the first day of March then last past until the full end and term of fifteen years from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended, and also the sum of one cent for his damages which he has sustained as well by reason of the trespass and ejectment aforesaid, as also the sum of twenty four dollars and thirty seven cents and one third of a cent for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended whereof the said Augustine Gambill is convicted, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein manifestly appears: and whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis aforesaid on the second Monday in June in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, that the said judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said Richard Tenn might have execution against the said Augustine Gambill for as well his term aforesaid yet to come and unexpired in the said tracts or parcels of land with the appurtenances as adjudged unto him in the said county Court, as also for the sum of sixty six dollars and ninety five cents for his damages costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting of certain writ of the said State by the said Augustine Gambill before the said Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors, whereof the said Augustine Gambill is convicted as of record it likewise appeareth: Therefore you are hereby commanded that without delay you cause the said Richard Tenn Lessee of the said Lancelot Warfield to have his possession of his term aforesaid yet to come and unexpired
