Jacob Cartenhoover's Lessee
vs.
John Domer.

Be it remembered, That heretofore, to wit, on the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty, John Dorm Lessee of Jacob Cartenhoover by Franklin Anderson his attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland of Habeas Facias Possessionem to the Sheriff of Washington County directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Sct. The State of Maryland, to the Sheriff of Washington County Greeting; Whereas at a county Court begun and held at Hagers Town in and for Washington County on the fourth Monday of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, a certain John Dorm Lessee of Jacob Cartenhoover by judgment of the said Court recovered against a certain John Domer late of Washington County yeoman his term yet to come and unexpired of and in all that part of the tract or parcel of plantable Land called Absolons Forest, lying and being in Washington County aforesaid, within the claim and pretensions of the said Jacob Cartenhoover, as located by him on the plots returned in this cause, with the appurtenances lying and being in Washington County, which the said Jacob Cartenhoover on the first day of January eighteen hundred and twenty had demised to the said John Dorm for a term of years, which is not yet expired, to hold from the said first day of January then last past until the full end and term of fifteen years from thence next ensuing and fully to be completed and ended, as also the sum of one hundred and forty three dollars and seventy six cents for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said John Domer is convict, as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court brought before the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore at the City of Annapolis by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears. And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis on the second Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty, that the said judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said John Dorm Lessee as aforesaid, might have his possession of his term aforesaid, yet to come and unexpired of and into all that part of the tract or parcel of Land called Absolons Forest and appurtenances aforesaid and also execution against the said John Domer, for as well the damages costs and charges aforesaid, adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of thirty eight dollars and twenty two cents for his costs and charges by him sustained by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said John Domer before the Court of Appeals for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said John Domer is convict as of record it likewise appeareth. Therefore you are hereby commanded, that without delay you cause the said John Dorm Lessee of the said Jacob Cartenhoover to have his possession of his term aforesaid, yet to come of and in the land and premises aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and in what manner you shall execute this writ make appear to the said Court of Appeals to be held at the City of Annapolis on the first Monday in December next. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honorable John Buchanan Esquire Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the fourteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty.

Issued the first day of November 1830.
