POETRY.

I'VE BEEN THINKING.

I've been thinking, I've been thinking,
What a curious world we're in,
Men are sleeping, eating, drinking,
Just as they have always been,—
Beaus are strutting, dandies quizzing,
Misses toiling night and day,
Boys are sporting, girls are frizzing,
Grandmas fidgeting away.

Tom is crying, Mary singing,
Jack is laughing merrily,
Dust is flying, tea bells ringing,
These have music sure for me;
Peasants toiling, rich men riding,
Staring with a lordly phiz,
Rogues through every crowd are gliding,
Zounds! how queer a world it is.

Marrying some, in marriage giving,
Others like the world of old,
All but me are feasting, living,
Would that wives were to be sold!
Others have their dears in plenty,
And their bosoms heave with love,
I've had chances, nineteen, twenty—
But I dare not one improve.

Brokers shaving, sheriffs dunning,
Politicians pull your sleeve,
Printers scolding, wits are punning,
Jail-bir ds begging for reprieve,
Preachers warring, idiots ranting,
Bacchus too, hath devotees,
Yonder wretch your wife's gallanting,
What a deuced fool he is,

Lawyers spouting, clients listning,
Doctors prating of their s'ill,
Patients groaning, school boys whistling,
Striving all old time to kill,
Pedagogues of science telling,
Millions of pretty things—
Lovers stroll with bosoms swelling,
Listening while the night-bird sings.

Clouds are lowering, tempests howling,
Friends suspecting, foes are glad,
Children screaming, mistress scowling,
Merry bosoms now are sad,
Presto! they are gone forever,
All is gay as it has been,
Sunbeams shine, the girls—oh never!
What a curious world we're in.

COACH, GIG AND

HARNESS MAKERS.

The undersigned respectfully present their thanks to their friends and the public of Talbot and the adjacent counties, for the many favours and flattering support, they continue to receive in their line, and now beg leave to inform them, that they are prepared to furnish

Coaches, Barauches, Charriotees, Gigs, Sulkes, BUGGIES, CARRY-ALLS, of any description of Carriage, at the shortest notice in the most fashionable and substantial manner, and on the most accommodating terms they assure those gentlemen and ladies who are so worthy of ease and pleasure that there is no necessity of sending to the cities for handsome and good carriages, as their work will bear comparison and examination with the best city work, and has stood the test of time and criticism: they will also say, that they will use every exertion to merit the unbounded confidence and patronage, their work has received from a generous and discerning public nearly all over the Eastern Shore of Maryland

Having enlarged their establishment considerably, and keeping constantly on hand a

Large and complete assortment of

with the assitance of the best of workmen they will be thankful to fill all orders. Gentlemen and Ladies at a distance have only to specify the kind of carriage and price and have it brought to their own door free of charge. All kinds of repairing done at the shortest notice, in the best manner, and on the most pleasing terms. Silver Plating of every description done in the establishment, and all kinds of Steel Springs, made and repaired.

They have now on hand, a handsome assortment of carriages, both new & second hand, of various kinds and prices, and they solicit an early call from their friends and the public generally.

The public's obedient servants,
ANDERSON & HOPKINS.

They have for sale, a pair of handsome young Horses, well matched, color, blood bay, warranted sound and kind to harness, also a first rate gig horse.

Temperance Convention.

A Temperance Convention, for the State of Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia, will be held in Easton, Md. on the first Tuesday in June next, 7th. It is designed that each county send ten delegates, and it is important that so far as practicable, every delegate attend. It is presumed that this will be the largest convention ever held on the peninsula, and the friends of the cause are looking for favorable results from it. The Convention will open at 12 o'clock on Tuesday the 7th of June, in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The following gentlemen compose the delegation from the Talbot county Temperance Society, viz. Jas. Parrott, Rev R. M. Greenbank, Thomas C. Nichols, T. R. Loockerman, Manlove Hazel, Wm H. Hayward, Dr. James Dawson, James Chaplain, William Townsend, Joseph Turner.

NEW FIRM.

BELL & STEWART,

BEG leave to inform their friends and the public generally, that they have commenced the

COACH, GIG & HARNESS MAKING, in Easton, at the old stand, at the North end of Washington street, for many years kept by Joseph Parrott, and recently by John W. Mills, where they intend carrying on the above business in all its various branches. The subscribers having been regularly brought up to the business, they flatter themselves that they will be able to give general satisfaction to all who may favor them with their custom, as they intend to keep constantly on hand the

BEST MATERIALS,

and employing EXPERIENCED WORKMEN. They will also pledge themselves to work on the most reasonable terms, for cash or country produces.

Two Hundred Dollars Reward

Runaway from the subscriber, living on Goose Creek, near New Market, Dorchester county, Eastern Shore of Maryland, on Monday, 8th of February last, negro about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a dark chesnut color and rather a fierce look, with small whiskers near his chin. He is a little bow legged, yet straight built, and has on his breast below his neck a King's Evil, or lump, nearly as large as a hen's egg. His clothes are a drab flushing over jacket, trowsers of new blue Kersey, with a fur or hair cap (not his own.) his shoes recently half soled, with sparrow bills in the bottoms. The above described man is about 21 years old.

One hundred dollars will be given for his apprehension, if taken in this or any of the adjoining counties: and the above reward if taken out of the State and secured so that I get him again.

He was seen in the neighborhood of Cambridge on Thursday previous to his departure. He passes himself off as a sailor.

Blacksmithing.
JOHN RINGROSE

Respectfully informs the public he has taken the shop on Washington street in Easton, heretofore occupied by Richard Spencer, Esq. where by the assistance of a well selected stock of the very best materials in his line, he is prepared to manufacture all kinds of work in the above business at a short notice and on accommodating terms. He deems it useless to say any thing in regard to his workmanship as the public have had a fair trial of it while he carried on for Mr Spencer; he feels confident the trial of his cast steel axes as well as his other work will give general satisfaction; he also intends keeping a supply of edged tools on hand, such as Axes, Drawing Knives, Chisells Grubbing Hoes, &c.

He also informs the public that he has in his shop a first rate horse shoer, and will execute that kind of work with all possible dispatch at a moment's warning. He is also prepared to repair all kinds of cast steel work.—Gentlemen who have old axes will do well to call and get them re steeled.
