Orator Henry Harding and defendant Edward Harding that the said bond should not bear interest during the said time – It was moreover agreed between them that your said orator should manage for defendant as heretofore and receive a compensation as heretofore – That your said orator took possession of his purchase about Jany 1st 1818 and then had a claim to the following discounts and allowances on the bond on which this judgment has been had, to wit for the 28 acres $140. and to the sum of $150 for services for 1814, and the like sums for the years 1815–16–17 and also to the sum of $81 paid by your Orator Henry Harding for defendant Edward Harding for sundry articles bought for him at his special instance and request in the year 1813 an account of which your said orator Henry Harding here files as Exhit B. Your Orators further state that the said defendant in the spring of the year 1818 assigned the bond in question to a certain Charles Cancell of Cancellton, whom your Orators pray may be also made a defendant in this case, and gave no credit on said bond for any part of the aforesaid sums of money as he was in equity and good conscience bound to do. To the end therefore that the credits claimed by your Orators on the judgment aforesaid may be allowed thereon and deducted therefrom, and that your Orators may have such further and other relief in the premises as to your Honors shall seem meet and consistent with equity and good conscience. And that the said Edward Harding may true answer make as fully and particularly as if all the premises were here again repeated and interrogated, and for as much as your said Orators are remediless at law; and may set forth whether the agreement was not made between him and your Orator Hy Harding in the Spring 1814 and the Winter 1814 as herein before stated. Whether the bonds were not given as stated in 1815 – the survey in August 1815 as stated, and the quantity found to be but 276 acres – Whether the conversation in substance in August 1816 did not take place as here stated? and that your said orator should have for his services as before $150 per year for the four years from Jany 1. 1815 to Jany 1. 1818 – and whether your Orator Hy Harding did not pay the $81 in 1813 for the said Edward Harding. And whether the bond on which this judgment has been paid is not the same bond given as stated above Jany 1815 when the land was supposed to contain 300 acres, in that whether said Bond should not be credited with $140 for deficiency of land, further with the sum of $150 for 1814 – $150 for 1815 – $150 for 1816 – and $150 for 1817 and the said sum of $81 paid as aforesaid – And that the said Charles Cancell of Cancellton may answer the true time of assignment to him – May it please your Honors to grant unto your Orators the states writ of Subpoena to be directed to the said Edward Harding and Charles Cancell of Cancellton commanding them to appear in Court on a certain day and then and there to answer the premises and to stand to and abide such order and decree therein as your Honors shall deem agreeable to equity and good conscience. And further to grant unto your

Orators the states writ of Injunction enjoining the said defendants and all officers of this Court from prosecuting any writ or other process on said judgment until the further order of this Honble Court, and your Orators shall ever pray and so forth.
